TRINITY 19

Lord our God, your wonders shine before us,
Your faithful plans stand firm from age to age.
You lift the poor and shelter all who stumble,
A refuge strong against the storm's fierce rage.
You spread a feast where every tear is scattered,
And death is swallowed in your radiant grace.
We trust your saving hand that never falters,
And wait with joy to see you face to face.

Services next Sunday - St Luke (Trinity 20)

CONTACTLESS GIVING AT ST PAUL'S

St Paul's Church Easton has never had a 'wall safe' and it has been many years since St Paul's had a fixed donation box. Rather than put either in place, the leap has been taken into the 21st century with the arrival of a Collectin contactless doantion point. Uisng the device, you can make a donation ot gneral church funds, the Bell Restoration fund, or make a donation in support of our local foodbanks (Wells Storehoue and Cheddar Valley Foodbank).

PASTORAL VISITING OR HOME COMMUNION

If you know anybody who would welcome a visit from “the parish” or receive Holy Communion at home, please let the Churchwardens know.

PEW SHEET

Any items for the PEW Sheet should be sent to Sue Kreter or William Newton Newey (Churchwardens of St Paul's Easton) who are compiling and printing the PEW Sheets.
