A prayer for October:

Father, please help us to shine your love and light to others today and every day.

This month please pray for:

- the government's plans to improve the care system;
- the discussions on controlling the development of A.I. and limiting its risks;
- our farmers struggling to care for their farms and livestock after the summer drought;
- the success of our musical evening on 17 October;
- the safety of our church building and hall during the winter storms.

News

Harvest Lunch: Our event on 19 September was very well attended and much enjoyed by our visitors, many of whom had followed the W.I. Scarecrow Trail around the village. Congratulations to the ladies in the kitchen, who provided such a delicious meal! It was a lovely opportunity to meet up again with old friends and also make some new ones.

Our Mini Scarecrow Hunt in the church was popular with the children.

THE PROMS at ALL SAINTS CHURCH

Saturday 17 October, 6-8pm

An evening of beautiful organ music with wonderfully talented organists assisted by a group of young musicians.

Entrance £5 on the door - children free

Refreshments included
