An Audience with Corinne and her Cello

At Suckley Church

Wednesday 4th November 3.30 to 4.30

Corinne is passionate about bringing music to people. She loves to improvise for her audience, playing favourites and requests as well as creating sound 'portraits'. Come and enjoy a fun and creative hour with her.

Corinne fell in love with the cello when her Mum took her to a concert at the age of three. She began lessons aged 5 and went on to train at the Royal Academy of Music. Corinne has studied with leading musicians and has gone on to give many recitals. She has been a member of the Philharmonia Orchestra and the City of Birmingham Symphony Orchestra and is now Co-Principal Cellist of the English Symphony/String Orchestra and coaches their Youth Orchestras.
