BIBLE READINGS 1st November

Revelation 7 9-end or 1 John 3. 1-3
1 Thessalonians 2. 1-8
Gospel reading: Matthew 5. 1-12

As we enter the month of November, the Church's calendar draws us into a season of remembering and remembrance.

Traditionally, this is a time when the distance between earth and heaven seems somehow closer, when the thin veil that separates us from those who have gone before us is brought into focus.

We begin with the celebration of All Saints' Day, giving thanks for the lives of those men, women and children in whom we have seen God's love and grace at work.
Some are well known, their stories passed down through generations. Others are known only to a few, yet their lives have touched ours, shaped our faith and helped us along the way.

At All Souls' Tide, also known as the Commemoration of the Faithful Departed, we remember more personally those whom we love but see no longer. In many churches, candles are lit and names are read aloud, as we give thanks for the blessing of their lives, acknowledge the fragility of our own, and hold fast to the hope and promise of God's eternal kingdom.
These days remind us that we are part of something much greater than ourselves:
a communion of saints, past, present and future, bound together in the love of God.

So, as we gather to celebrate All Saints' Day,
we give thanks for those who have walked before us,
those who walk alongside us, and those who will follow in the footsteps of faith.
Rejoice, people of God, praise the Lord!

Let us keep the feast in honour of all God's saints, in whose victory the angels rejoice and glorify the Son of God.

Please pray for:

Maggie Gordon, Paul Avis, Jennifer Palmer, Sue Taylor, Karen Wilkes
and all those in need of our prayers.

Please pray for the Family and Friends of the Departed

Sylvia Hopson, Jennifer Jaffe, Eddie Crane and all whose anniversaries fall at this time.
