ST MICHAEL AND ALL ANGELS, COPFORD - CB JACKSON: 'IRON IN THE FIRE' SATURDAY 10TH OCTOBER AT 7.30 P.M.

- Jackson is returning, with his folk trio "Suffolk Street", with a spellbinding storytelling show called "Iron in the Fire". Stories will include a gripping tale from Whitby, a spellbinding story of spooky goings on from the Essex marshes and the most dramatic tale "Thunder Child". Refreshments will be available in the interval. Tickets are on sale now at £15 per person. Please contact Anne for tickets.

PILGRIM PLACES, HOLY LIVES

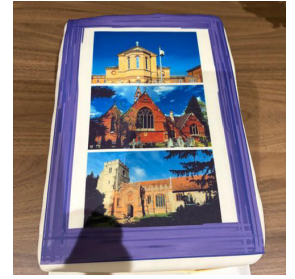

We are taking a break this week. The next session will be on the 13th October at St Peter's, Great Totham.

THANK YOU AND AU REVOIR...

Thank you, Trevor and Anne by Sarah Openshaw

All Saints was full on Sunday 27th September as Trevor Walt led his last Communion service, exactly 40 years after his ordination. After three previous attempts at retirement, he has decided the time has finally come to hang up his dog collar and put his feet up.

Since moving to Feering, Trevor has regularly taken services at All Saints and St Mary's, and he and Anne have helped All Saints in so many ways.

Trevor and Anne were given gifts from the two congregations. We're delighted they'll still be worshipping at All Saints, so this is au revoir, not goodbye.

Thank you both for all you've done for our two churches.

Thank you message from Anne and Trevor Walt

It was wonderful to have such a large congregation at the service to mark 40 years since ordination and my final retirement from active ministry. Anne and I are completely overwhelmed by the generosity of both congregations and we will thoroughly enjoy the very thoughtful gifts we were given.

Our whole immediate family were able to be with us and we also felt very much part of the wider church family of Kelvedon and Feering. We need to thank Simon, Liz and Ben for helping make the day go smoothly, Keith for playing the organ, Caroline and the choir for the beautiful John Rutter Blessing, Robert for the prayers and all who provided and served refreshments.

With grateful thanks to you all.

Love, prayers and best wishes , Anne and Trevor
