

The peace of God be over us to shelter us,
under us to uphold us, about us to protect us,
behind us to direct us, ever with us to save us.

A Blessing:

May we go now and walk with Jesus towards Jerusalem. Listen to his words, be with him on his journey. Let his story linger in our homes and in our lives and let him welcome us. And may God bless us, the Maker the Son and the Holy Spirit. This night and all your nights and days. Amen

A MODERN CELTIC COMPLINE FOR

Holy Week

In the name of the Father of life; in the name of the Christ of love;
in the name of the Holy Spirit of comfort, the Three who are my strength.

Calm me, O Lord, as You stilled the storm.

Still me, O Lord, keep me from harm.

Let all the tumult within me cease.

Enfold me, Lord, in Your peace.

Find rest O my soul in God alone, my hope comes from him

A moment of quiet, for reflection on the past day:

A response:

Declutter our hearts and lives gracious Lord, of all that speaks of self and in the space that this creates, may your love reside and others know that they are welcome too.

Psalm 121:

I will lift my eyes up to the hills, where does my help come from?

My help comes from the Lord of all, the Lord of heaven and earth.

The Lord will not let you stumble

the One who watches over you will neither slumber nor sleep.

The Lord who watches over His people is shade at your right hand.

The sun will not harm you by day, nor the moon harm you by night.

The Lord will keep you from all harm and will watch over your life.

The Lord watches over you as you come and go now and for evermore

Psalm 34:1-8

I will bless the LORD at all times;

his praise shall continually be in my mouth.

My soul makes its boast in the LORD;

let the humble hear and be glad.

O magnify the LORD with me,

and let us exalt his name together.

I sought the LORD, and he answered me,

and delivered me from all my fears.

Look to him, and be radiant;

so your faces shall never be ashamed.

This poor soul cried, and was heard by the LORD,

and was saved from every trouble.

The angel of the LORD encamps around those who fear him, and delivers them.

O taste and see that the LORD is good;

happy are those who take refuge in him.

A time of prayer:

For the silent prayers deep in our hearts

that have no words but simply images held out to you, of those we love and those we miss the suffering, the sick, the lonely, the lost.

Hear our prayers the offering of our hearts

and bless the ones we lay before you now
