Churches Open for Private Prayer Sunday 9am – 10am (Holy Trinity & St.Elizabeth's) Sunday 11am – 12noon (Rivington & St.Catherine's)

Our four churches are now open for private prayer for an hour on Sundays:

Please do NOT attend if you are unwell, showing symptoms, self-isolating, have been in contact with anyone with symptoms.

Those at extra risk and the 'clinically extremely vulnerable' are, for their own well-being, encouraged to pray at home.

Churches opening soon for public worship

The Prime Minister announced on 23rd June that places of worship are allowed to reopen from 4th July, albeit with some restrictions in place. The government published their detailed guidance on 29th June, and the Church of England provided more detailed guidance on 30th June.

We are now working on plans for the best way in our context to open safely for Public Worship and will have a clearer picture soon. Please be patient with us.

We will be continuing with our online services which are available on our Facebook pages and YouTube channel.

Each Sunday we are posting a short online Team Service

On our Facebook pages and our YouTube channel

Book Review: Confronting Christianity – 12 Hard Questions for the World's Largest Religion

Michael writes:

I found it very clear, thought-provoking and stimulating.

It is easy to read and has plenty of stories by way of illustration.

Chapters include:

- Aren't we better off without religion?
- How can you say there's only one true faith?
- Hasn't science disproved Christianity?
- Isn't Christianity Homophobic?
- How could a loving God allow so much suffering?

"Compelling reading, not only because of its intellectual rigor but also because of its honest, empathetic humanity."

This is a great book to help you think through your faith more, and to help answer the hard questions people ask. It is available on Kindle, and as an Audiobook (your first Audiobook is free on Audible), as well as a traditional paper book.

Why not ring up our local Christian Bookshop, 'Isaiah 53', (01204 532384) to order a copy? They can post it to you.

Agape Meal

Today's Collect & Readings

A Collect (Prayer for the Day) & Lectionary Readings

from The New International Version (NIV)

A Collect for the Fourth Sunday after Trinity

God of heaven, you send the gospel to the ends of the earth and your messengers to every nation: send your Holy Spirit to transform us by the good news of everlasting life in Jesus Christ our Lord.

Genesis 24:34-38,42-49,58-67 'Lord... please grant success'

(Abraham has sent his servant to find a wife for his son Isaac – and this is what happens)

<sup>34</sup> So he said, 'I am Abraham's servant. <sup>35</sup> The Lord has blessed my master abundantly, and he has become wealthy. He has given him sheep and cattle, silver and gold, male and female servants, and camels and donkeys. <sup>36</sup> My master's wife Sarah has borne him a son in her old age, and he has given him everything he owns. <sup>37</sup> And my master made me swear an oath, and said, "You must not get a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites, in whose land I live, <sup>38</sup> but go to my father's family and to my own clan, and get a wife for my son."

<sup>42</sup> 'When I came to the spring today, I said, "Lord, God of my master Abraham, if you will, please grant success to the journey on which I have come. <sup>43</sup> See, I am standing beside this spring. If a young woman comes out to draw water and I say to her, 'Please let me drink a little water from your jar,' <sup>44</sup> and if she says to me, 'Drink, and I'll draw water for your camels too,' let her be the one the Lord has chosen for my master's son."

<sup>45</sup> 'Before I finished praying in my heart, Rebekah came out, with her jar on her shoulder. She went down to the spring and drew water, and I said to her, "Please give me a drink."

<sup>46</sup> 'She quickly lowered her jar from her shoulder and said, "Drink, and I'll water your camels too." So I drank, and she watered the camels also.

<sup>47</sup> 'I asked her, "Whose daughter are you?"

'She said, "The daughter of Bethuel son of Nahor, whom Milkah bore to him."

'Then I put the ring in her nose and the bracelets on her arms, <sup>48</sup> and I bowed down and worshipped the Lord. I praised the Lord, the God of my master Abraham, who had led me on the right road to get the granddaughter of my master's brother for his son. <sup>49</sup> Now if you will show kindness and faithfulness to my master, tell me; and if not, tell me, so I may know which way to turn.'

<sup>58</sup> So they called Rebekah and asked her, 'Will you go with this man?'

'I will go,' she said.

<sup>59</sup> So they sent their sister Rebekah on her way, along with her nurse and Abraham's servant and his men. <sup>60</sup> And they blessed Rebekah and said to her, 'Our sister, may you increase to thousands upon thousands; may your offspring possess the cities of their enemies.'

<sup>61</sup> Then Rebekah and her attendants got ready and mounted the camels and went back with the man. So the servant took Rebekah and left.

<sup>62</sup> Now Isaac had come from Beer Lahai Roi, for he was living in the Negev. <sup>63</sup> He went out to the field one evening to meditate, and as he looked up, he saw camels approaching. <sup>64</sup> Rebekah also looked up and saw Isaac. She got down from her camel <sup>65</sup> and asked the servant, 'Who is that man in the field coming to meet us?' 'He is my master,' the servant answered. So she took her veil and covered herself.

<sup>66</sup> Then the servant told Isaac all he had done. <sup>67</sup> Isaac brought her into the tent of his mother Sarah, and he married Rebekah. So she became his wife, and he loved her; and Isaac was comforted after his mother's death.

Psalm 45:10-17

(A love-song for a princess)

<sup>10</sup> Listen, daughter, and pay careful attention: Forget your people and your father's house.

<sup>11</sup> Let the king be enthralled by your beauty; honour him, for he is your lord.

<sup>12</sup> The city of Tyre will come with a gift, people of wealth will seek your favour.

<sup>14</sup> In embroidered garments she is led to the king; her virgin companions follow her – those brought to be with her.

<sup>16</sup> Your sons will take the place of your fathers; you will make them princes throughout the land.

<sup>17</sup> I will perpetuate your memory through all generations; therefore the nations will praise you for ever and ever.

Romans 7:15-25a 'although I want to do good, evil is right there with me'

(Paul's speaks of the inner battle we all face and of the deliverance Jesus offers)

<sup>15</sup> I do not understand what I do. For what I want to do I do not do, but what I hate I do. <sup>16</sup> And if I do what I do not want to do, I agree that the law is good. <sup>17</sup> As it is, it is no longer I myself who do it, but it is sin living in me. <sup>18</sup> For I know that good itself does not dwell in me, that is, in my sinful nature. For I have the desire to do what is good, but I cannot carry it out. <sup>19</sup> For I do not do the good I want to do, but the evil I do not want to do – this I keep on doing. <sup>20</sup> Now if I do what I do not want to do, it is no longer I who do it, but it is sin living in me that does it.

<sup>21</sup> So I find this law at work: although I want to do good, evil is right there with me. <sup>22</sup> For in my inner being I delight in God's law; <sup>23</sup> but I see another law at work in me, waging war against the law of my mind and making me a prisoner of the law of sin at work within me. <sup>24</sup> What a wretched man I am! Who will rescue me from this body that is subject to death? <sup>25</sup> Thanks be to God, who delivers me through Jesus Christ our Lord!

Matthew 11:16-19,25-30 'Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened'

(Many misunderstand or are blind to the message of Jesus, but those who respond find rest)

<sup>16</sup> 'To what can I compare this generation? They are like children sitting in the market-places and calling out to others:

<sup>17</sup> "We played the pipe for you, and you did not dance; we sang a dirge, and you did not mourn."

<sup>18</sup> For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, "He has a demon." <sup>19</sup> The Son of Man came eating and drinking, and they say, "Here is a glutton and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and sinners." But wisdom is proved right by her deeds.'

<sup>25</sup> At that time Jesus said, 'I praise you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you have hidden these things from the wise and learned, and revealed them to little children. <sup>26</sup> Yes, Father, for this is what you were pleased to do.

<sup>27</sup> 'All things have been committed to me by my Father. No one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son and those to whom the Son chooses to reveal him.

<sup>28</sup> 'Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest. <sup>29</sup> Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. <sup>30</sup> For my yoke is easy and my burden is light.'
