

WHATLINGTON CHURCH SERVICES RESUME FROM SUNDAY 5TH JULY

We very much look forward to welcoming you back to church, we have made every effort to ensure safety and social distancing, with a one way system in operation and ask that you please read through the following notes:

ENTERING THE CHURCH AND TAKING A SEAT

- Entry through North Porch, both doors will be open
- Please use the Hand Sanitiser provided on the table as you enter
- Access to the Gallery is restricted, just organist and bell ringer
- Service books and Reading Sheets will be laid out for 'self service'
- We are asked to record the names of those attending to comply with 'Track & Trace' requirements
- Please take the Reading Sheet away with you and leave the Service Book in the box as you leave
- A One-Way system is in operation, a steward will give guidance
- Please move down the Nave along the left aisle and take the next available empty seat(s) starting from the right hand end of each pew, allowing 1 metre + from others not in your household group
- Please remain seated to maintain social distancing
- As much fresh air will be allowed to circulate as the weather permits
- The WC will be available for use and for hand washing

DURING THE SERVICE

- If you are to do a Reading, please stand and read from where you are seated
- We are not allowed to sing, but the hymn tunes will be played through
- The Peace will only be said, no physical contact
- The Priest may celebrate Communion at some services, members of the congregation may take the Wafer if they wish and as directed.
- There will not be a Collection during the service, offertory plates will be set out to allow you to make an offering either entering or leaving the church.
- We invite people to consider making a Direct Debit, forms are available in the church

AFTER THE SERVICE

- Please exit starting from the right hand side of the rearmost pew via the right hand isle
- The West door will be opened at the end of the service to ease exiting
- Please take the Reading Sheet home with you
- Please leave the Service Books in the box laid out ready
- Please do not stand so as to obstruct other peoples exit

THANK YOU!
