Collect

Blessed Lord,
who caused all holy Scriptures to be written for our learning:
help us so to hear them,
to read, mark, learn and inwardly digest them
that, through patience, and the comfort of your holy word,
we may embrace and for ever hold fast
the hope of everlasting life,
which you have given us in our Saviour Jesus Christ,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Amen

Reading: Colossians 3: 12-17

As God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, meekness, and patience. Bear with one another and, if anyone has a complaint against another, forgive each other; just as the Lord has forgiven you, so you also must forgive. Above all, clothe yourselves with love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony. And let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, to which indeed you were called in the one body. And be thankful. Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly; teach and admonish one another in all wisdom; and with gratitude in your hearts sing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs to God. And whatever you do, in word or deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.

Reading: Matthew 24: 30-35

Jesus said to his disciples: 'The sign of the Son of Man will appear in heaven, and then all the tribes of the earth will mourn, and they will see "the Son of Man coming on the clouds of heaven" with power and great glory. And he will send out his angels with a loud trumpet call, and they will gather his elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other. 'From the fig tree learn its lesson: as soon as its branch becomes tender and puts forth its leaves, you know that summer is near. So also, when you see all these things, you know that he is near, at the very gates. Truly I tell you, this generation will not pass away until all these things have taken place. Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.'

Post Communion Prayer

God of all grace,
your Son Jesus Christ fed the hungry
with the bread of his life
and the word of his kingdom:
renew your people with your heavenly grace,
and in all our weakness
sustain us by your true and living bread;
who is alive and reigns, now and for ever.

Remembrance Sunday 2020

Owing to the COVID-19 pandemic and in light of the risks posed, the annual Remembrance Sunday Services will not take place as they have done in the past.

We recognise this will be deeply disappointing and it is not a step that has been taken lightly - this decision has been taken based on expert advice to protect your health and well-being. Therefore if you would like to attend the Remembrance Services at Eckington and Bredon on Sunday 8th November this year you will need to contact Alison Khan (details above). Also please remember that due to the rule of six you must disperse immediately following the services.

Despite the changes this year, you can ensure Remembrance Sunday is still marked appropriately by taking part in remote and socially distanced Remembrance activities, whether that is watching the service on television or pausing for the Two Minute Silence in your home or on your doorsteps.

The Royal British Legion have also put together a wide-range of suggested Covid safe activities that are inexpensive to create:

- Hold a small Remembrance service in your garden.
- Use our Remembrance education activities to help children learn about Remembrance.
- Create your own Remembrance art piece using our teaching resources – children and families could be asked to display something in their window like the rainbows for the NHS.
