Angels Wanted to Knit Angels

We have been unable to visit people in the four Care Homes in our parish because of the virus. We are planning to give each home a small Christmas Tree covered with little knitted angels to show they are not forgotten.

Can you help? We have a pattern.

Ask Brenda or Gloria

and we could help with wool and needles if needed.

The Tudor Centre still remains closed until further notice

We will hold a brief

Annual Church meeting.

6:00pm Sunday 1st November at St Luke's

Fr Keith will lead our annual memorial service. If you have a loved one you would like to be remembered in this service

please put their name on the list at either church or let Fr Keith have their name.

If you cannot attend the service in person let us know and we will light a candle for you.

On Sunday 22nd November

(Feast of Christ the King) there will be no service at St Luke's The 10:30 service at Christ the King will be taken by Revd Steve Delaforce.

This will be our chance to say a formal goodbye to Steve which we could not do when he retired in April.

If you did not contribute to a leaving gift for Steve and would like to do so please let Mary, Dennis or Trevor have your gift.

The collect for today

Merciful God,
teach us to be faithful in change and uncertainty,
that trusting in your word and obeying your will we may enter the unfailing joy of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

1 Thessalonians 2.1-8.

You yourselves know, brothers and sisters, that our coming to you was not in vain, but though we had already suffered and been shamefully maltreated at Philippi, as you know, we had courage in our God to declare to you the gospel of God in spite of great opposition. For our appeal does not spring from deceit or impure motives or trickery, but just as we have been approved by God to be entrusted with the message of the gospel, even so we speak, not to please mortals, but to please God who tests our hearts. As you know and as God is our witness, we never came with words of flattery or with a pretext for greed; nor did we seek praise from mortals, whether from you or from others, though we might have made demands as apostles of Christ. But we were gentle among you, like a nurse tenderly caring for her own children. So deeply do we care for you that we are determined to share with you not only the gospel of God but also our own selves, because you have become very dear to us.

This is the word of the Lord Thanks be to God

Gospel Reading

The Lord be with you - And also with you

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew

Glory to you, O Lord

Matthew 22.34-46

When the Pharisees heard that he had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together, and one of them, a lawyer, asked him a question to test him. 'Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?' He said to him, ' "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind." This is the greatest and first commandment. And a second is like it: "You shall love your neighbour as yourself." On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.'

Now while the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them this question: 'What do you think of the Messiah? Whose son is he?' They said to him, 'The son of David.' He said to them, 'How is it then that David by the Spirit calls him Lord, saying, "The Lord said to my Lord, 'Sit at my right hand, until I put your enemies under your feet' " ? If David thus calls him Lord, how can he be his son?' No one was able to give him an answer, nor from that day did anyone dare to ask him any more questions.

This is the Gospel of the Lord Praise to you O Christ
