Life is full of ups and downs: after blessings, hard times often follow. They are not meant to destroy us but to help us grow spiritually by deepening our faith and dependence on God. The Holy Spirit led Jesus into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil – to give Him the opportunity to stand fast against the enemy. The devil's temptations were based on half-truths, which Jesus rejected by standing firm on the whole truth of Scripture. The truth sets us free!

On reflection

Hello everyone, if we have learnt anything from recent events concerning Donald Trump, social media reports concerning Covid and vaccines, it's not to take stories on trust but to enquire for ourselves, to seek evidence.

At Easter we celebrate Jesus coming back to life after he was killed on a cross. We hear about the part the man named Thomas had in the events of that time and we call him "Thomas the Doubter" because he was very sceptical. He knew perfectly well that dead people don't come back to life after being dead three days and that there are many people who would like to trick us into believing false news, lies and myths. "Jesus is dead and so is his message, thought Thomas, and that's the end of that. No point pretending you can carry on when you obviously can't."

When the news came that Jesus was back, not as a ghost or spirit but as a living person, Thomas did not want just to see, he also wanted to touch this so called brought-back-to-life Jesus, "Give me evidence!" Jesus gave him evidence: "Take a look at my hands and feel them" (where nails had been driven in to hold him to the cross). Put your hand into the wound in my side," (where a soldier had stabbed him with a spear while he was hanging on the cross). Yes, this definitely was a real body, this was Jesus, Thomas decided, and he blurted out, "My Lord and my God," and leaped from radical doubt to robust faith.

This is the faith which seems impossible to sceptics but which is in fact within reach of us all and which brings hope that overcomes the fear of death. The faith in which life is to be found, the different dimension of life that can be born inside us here and now and will go on for ever and ever, all the way through our deaths and to our own coming back to life at the last.

Wardens' Update

We hope you are all keeping well and hope that many of you have had the vaccine or at least have heard that you will have the vaccine in the near future. In the o, please all take care.

Lockdown continued in February but Sunday morning services on Zoom and Evening Prayer online have still gone ahead. So we hope that they have been some compensation for not having live services at the moment. We continue to thank Mark, Carolyn and Joan for leading or taking part in the services.

Last month unfortunately saw more funerals. One of which was Les Randle whose funeral took place at 10 o'clock on February 5th. This was led by Carolyn Baker and a reading was given by our Area Dean Louise Shaw. It was good to see many friends of Les from St. Paul's outside the Church gates to pay their last respects to him. We are sure this would have been of great comfort for Eileen and family. Les will certainly be missed at St Paul's. We are sure that Eileen and family will all be in our thoughts and prayers. Eileen and family also donated the collection for Les which came to £540 to St. Paul's in memory of him; they also gave a radio cassette player for use in Church. So a big thank to them.

Some more sad news: we heard that Barbara Shilton died on February 5th. Barbara regularly attended Church and will be sadly missed. Her funeral will be held at St. Paul's on Monday March 8th at 11 a.m.

During February, St. Paul's Norman Chapel became a collection point for the Food Bank at The Manna House, Glascote, Tamworth. The Norman Chapel was open twice in the month as a collection point for people to bring donations of food. This was organised by Lynn Middleton, helped on the open days by Carolyn Baker and our Curate Mark Waterstreet. Lynn was helped with sorting and delivering of donations by Ruth Griffiths and her sons. Thank you to all who helped and donated. This sort of thing is what Carolyn meant in her last live service, that the Church, even though the doors are closed for live services, we are still here to help. We hope to hold another donate day just before Easter.

Our Youth and Children Group continue to meet on Zoom on Friday evenings. Last month they also held a Zoom Pancake Party on Shrove Tuesday, welcoming new members to the group.

We are sorry that the news is not better on services at the moment. But be assured that when the PCC think it is safe then services will start again. (The next PCC Zoom meeting is on March 11th). Please check Facebook and the Church noticeboard for further news.

God Bless

Cover Story

The Youth and Children group have been challenged with creating a bible verse poster that they could use to help them pray. This month's front cover features Erin's design, and this is what she had to say about her poster:

"The verse I chose is from Proverbs 12:25 'Anxiety weighs down the heart but a kind word cheers it up.'

I chose this verse because I have struggled sometimes with my mental health and a kind word always makes it better."

Thank You

I wish to say a huge 'thank you' to all our lovely Church friends, for the many beautiful cards myself and family received following the sad and sudden passing of Les. Also, for gifts of flowers. So much love came from you all.. I can't express how I felt on the Friday morning as we approached the church and you were lining the route and clapping.

Thank you all so much.

With my love, Eileen Randle

Children's Society Boxes

Due to the lockdown I have been unable to collect the Christingle candles, which people kindly took when we had our Christingle service in December 2020. Thank you to those who have been able to return them. If anyone else has a Christingle candle and can return it to my home address, 29 Orchard Close, Dosthill, B77 1NB, that would be great. Or just let me know where you live and we can arrange collection. Thank you for your kind help with this.

Lent Challenge

The Youth and Children group are currently undertaking a 40 day Lent Challenge. As the children have had to sacrifice so much already over the last year, this year's Lent theme is about Giving rather than Giving up. The children have been challenged to carry out 40 acts of generosity - to friends, neighbours, please let them know that the Church of England offers a FREE national 'Daily Hope' telephone line at 0800 804 8044, with music, prayers, reflections, & worship services. David Biggs.

key workers and the planet.

The children are also raising sponsorship by doing the challenge for Sonya Britton's Elevator appeal. Cairn of Remembrance

Throughout Lent we are encouraging you to decorate a memory stone and add it to the Cairn of Remembrance in the church grounds. This could be decorated, or painted or have a name written on it and will be situated under the large tree on the right as you enter the churchyard next to the Church's East window. Simon Gordon

Maurice Arnold

Some sad news. Friend of the magazine and the church, Maurice Arnold sadly passed away on Saturday, 13th February, aged 95. Maurice was a regular contributor to the magazine over the years with his fascinating and insightful Nature Notes column. Maurice's knowledge of the local flora and fauna was second to none and we will greatly miss him and his articles. We send our sincere condolences to his family and friends who are in our thoughts and prayers.

Friend of Maurice, David Biggs has offered a few words in memory of Maurice: "I've known Maurice since I was at school. His encyclopedic knowledge of Tamworth's natural environment, landscape, and wildlife was unsurpassed. His contribution to conservation in Warwickshire and Staffordshire alongside, and then subsequent to, his brother George, has been enormous, and so valuable and worthwhile. Maurice also was one of the few - if not the only one in recent years - who could tell anyone anything about Wilnecote in the 1920s-30s from first-hand memories. His passing is a great loss to Tamworth, as well as to his family, and to all his friends. We can only be thankful that he has had such a long and active life, and been able to do, and contribute so much - including until very recently his regular Nature Notes column in Dosthill's Parish Magazine."

Monica's Thanks

Hello to all our lovely church family, it has been a long time since we have been together in church, but after the latest announcement we will soon be able to have our services resume in our lovely church building; it will feel strange but bounce back is closer now. Thank you to Mark, Carolyn and Joan for the evening prayer service, and the Sunday am Zoom services this has kept us seeing friendly faces and voices. I do hope you are all keeping well and are looking forward to us meeting at church very soon. God bless all, I am sure you are all counting down the days. Monica Ward xx

Dosthill WI

Hello everyone! We hope that you are keeping well.

Following last year's success with the Fairy Glen in The Broom, our WI ladies wondered what we could do this year, to give the Dosthill community a boost during the continuing Covid-19 restrictions.

We decided on a Scarecrow Trail, which will take place over the weekend of 13th and 14th March 2021. The Sunday is also Mothering Sunday.

Dosthill's residents are invited to make a scarecrow of any film character and place it in their front garden over that weekend, together with a Spring flower planter. Scarecrows will be judged and there will be prizes for first, second and third places.

Then, during that weekend, we hope that families will take a little stroll around Dosthill to find the scarecrows and guess which films they are from. It's important that everyone observes the Covid-19 guidance in place at that time (numbers, social distancing etc.).

The Scarecrow Trail will also form part of Dosthill's portfolio for this year's RHS It's Your Neighbourhood Campaign (which may be a digital campaign, depending on how things go with restrictions etc.).

If you are interested in making a scarecrow/planter and taking part, please email Sue Hollis on suzanne.hollis46@ gmail.com. It would be great if we could fill Dosthill with scarecrows that weekend and put smiles back on people's faces! Don't we deserve it?

Let's hope it's not too long now before we can start meeting and holding events again, just like we used to. Until then, stay safe everyone!

Pancake Extravaganza

Lockdown may be continuing but this didn't stop St Paul's Youth and Children group from meeting to celebrate their usual Pancake Party extravaganza on Shrove Tuesday. In true lockdown style the annual pancake party took place via Zoom in a bid to continue the traditional church celebrations.

Usually families would get together in the Chapel for a fun evening of pancake decorating, pancake splatting and toss the pancake, along with the making of the Alleluia banner and making plain the church altar. The children were all very excited to continue the fun from home with Pancake packs delivered to the front door in preparation.

The children enjoyed decorating pancakes from their kitchens with all manner of unusual pancake toppings mixed together in the usual fashion. Including chocolate sauce, fruit and sugar and lemon (possibly all on one pancake at a certain stage in our house)!

The group were pleased to welcome three new families to the celebrations and hope that they enjoyed their evening. The event culminated in a giant scavenger hunt around the house for a variety of items linked to Shrove Tuesday and Lent and the children enjoyed the challenge of trying to find the tallest item with bar stools, kitchen cupboards and a parent all coming out as strong contenders.

A Lent challenge form was also produced by Simon, focussed on 'giving back' during Lent and many families and households have chosen to take part. A copy of the form can be found on the church Facebook page or can be obtained by contacting Simon for anyone else that wishes to join in.

Many thanks to all those who made the night such a success. Hopefully next year the Pancake party will be back in full swing on church premises with the usual fun and mess!! The group looks forward to being able to do in person events again as soon as Covid restrictions allow.

Doing Nothing

It's good to do nothing now and then
Relax in the firelight's glow,
A fresh cup of tea, warm buttered toast
Turn the lights down low.

Close the curtains on the world
Shut out the dreary day,
Unwind in a pool of contentment
Your cares will drift away.

Let your thoughts go wandering
Across purple heathered Hills,
River banks draped in bluebells
And gently flowing rills.

Swathes of wild daffodils
Fields of golden corn
Wild flower meadows, a starlit sky
Dancing on a summer lawn.

Recall those happy moments
Carefree days of long ago,
Long summer days when life was young
Where did the time all go.

Dreams come on wings of song
Awaking memories that lie so deep,
In the shadowed silence of the evening
Surrender unto sleep.

Bible Bite

A short story from the Bible

It can be read in the Bible in Luke chapter 14 verses 15-24

Jesus was at a dinner when one guest said how good it would be to be at God's feast for His people at the end of time.

So Jesus told a story -
A man once gave a great feast.
I love feasts!

He sent his servant to invite his guests.
Then he knows how much food to cook.

When everything was ready, he sent his servant to tell his guests.
Time to get dressed up!

But they all made excuses.

One said, 'I've bought some land and I need to see it. Sorry!'
How rude! Nobody buys land without seeing it!

The next said, 'I've bought some oxen and I need to try them out. Sorry!'
And you don't buy oxen without trying them first!

And another said, 'I got married so I'm not coming.'
They insulted him with their rude excuses!

The master was very angry.

He told his servant to go to every street in the town and fetch everyone who was poor or disabled.
How generous!

His servant did that and there was still room.
Who else will be invited?

He told his servant to search outside the town and fill the house.
Everyone who will come!

The master of the feast said, 'None of those I invited but who wouldn't come will get even the leftovers!'

Lynn's Recipes

As it is Mothering Sunday on 14th, I thought this month's recipes should be cake and more cake, either for you to bake for your mother, or for yourself, or even a friend just because you can. There is nothing nicer than receiving a homemade cake made with love so hopefully you will bake one of my recipes. Happy Mothering Sunday to all the lovely mums of Dosthill and beyond.

Lemon Drizzle Cake

225g unsalted butter, softened
225g caster sugar
4 eggs
225g self-raising flour
1 lemon, zested
For the drizzle topping
1½ lemons, juiced
85g caster sugar

Heat the oven to 180C/160C fan/gas 4.

1. Beat together the butter and caster sugar until pale and creamy, then add the eggs, one at a time, slowly mixing through.
2. Sift in the self-raising flour, then add the lemon zest and mix until well combined.
3. Line a loaf tin (8 x 21 cm) with greaseproof paper, then spoon in the mixture and level the top with a spoon.

4. Bake for 45-50 mins until a thin skewer inserted into the centre of the cake comes out clean.
5. While the cake is cooling in its tin, mix together the lemons juice and caster sugar to make the drizzle.
6. Prick the warm cake all over with a skewer or fork, then pour over the drizzle – the juice will sink in and the sugar will form a lovely, crisp topping.
7. Leave in the tin until completely cool, then remove and serve.

Cherry Bakewell Cake

200g butter, well softened, plus extra for greasing
200g golden caster sugar
100g ground almond
100g self-raising flour
1 tsp baking powder
½ tsp almond extract or essence
4 large eggs
For the filling and top
½ a 340g jar morello cherry conserve
175g icing sugar
5-6 tsp water or lemon juice
1 tbsp ready-toasted flaked almonds

1. Heat oven to 180C/160C fan/gas 4 and make sure there's a shelf ready in the middle. Butter and line the bases of two 20cm round sandwich tins with baking paper.

- Using electric beaters, beat together all the cake ingredients with a pinch of salt until smooth, then spoon into the tins and level the tops. Bake for 30 mins or until golden and springy. Don't open the oven before 25 mins cooking time has passed.
- When they're ready, cool the sponges for a few mins, then tip out of the tins and cool completely on a wire rack. Make sure the top of one of the cakes is facing up as you'll want a smooth surface for the icing later on.
- When cool, put one sponge on a serving plate, then spread with jam. Sandwich the second sponge on top. Sieve the icing sugar into a large bowl. Add the water or lemon juice, then stir until smooth and thick. Spread evenly over the top and let it dribble over the sides. Scatter with the nuts and leave to set for a few mins before cutting.

Chocolate Fudge Cake

Everyone needs chocolate cake in their lives and this recipe is an easy one to bake and its delicious.

200g plain chocolate, broken into chunks (use one with about 50% cocoa solids)
200g butter
200g light brown muscovado sugar
100ml soured cream
2 eggs, beaten
200g self-raising flour
5 tbspcocoa powder
hundreds and thousands, to decorate or whatever you fancy.
For the icing
100g plain chocolate as above
170g can condensed milk
100g butter

- Heat oven to 160C/140C fan/gas
3. Line a 22 x 22cm square tin with baking parchment. Put the chocolate, butter and sugar into a large pan with 100ml hot water and gently melt together. Set aside for 2 mins, then stir in the soured cream followed by the eggs. Finally, stir or whisk in the flour and cocoa until lump-free, then pour into the prepared tin. Bake for 50-55 mins until a skewer comes out clean. Sit the tin on a wire rack to cool.
- Meanwhile, make the icing. Gently melt together icing ingredients in a heatproof bowl set over a pan of barely simmering water, then chill or cool until spreadable.
- To decorate, carefully turn out the cooled cake and peel off the baking parchment. Spread the icing over the top and scatter with hundreds and thousands, then cut the cake into triangles or fingers before serving.

Another Epidemic 1895

When an influenza epidemic struck Dosthill in 1895 it dashed the hopes of more than a dozen of the village's young people.

For months they had been preparing for the first ever confirmation service to be held at St Paul's church early that year. When it was announced the service would be cancelled candidates feared it would be some time before the Bishop of Coventry would again visit our small village church. But as soon as the epidemic was over the Bishop announced he would make a special trip to Dosthill and hurriedly arranged confirmation service for July 10th.

Telephone Kiosk (March 1937)

A telephone kiosk with full local and trunk facilities will be available day and night outside the Telephone Exchange, Victoria Road, Tamworth from 25th March.

Council House Estate Under Water (March 1947)

Tamworth has this week suffered its most serious flooding since 1932 when the rising waters of the Tame, Anker and Mease overflowed their banks and inundated thousands of acres of land, cut main roads, marooned villages and flooded hundreds of houses. The town council's new housing estate in course of erection on the Fazeley Road site was flooded to a considerable depth and the occupants of two houses marooned, while materials floated away on the 'tide'.

Centenary Easter Service (March 1972)

The parish church of St Paul Dosthill celebrated its centenary on Easter Sunday when the Lord Bishop of Birmingham, the Right Rev. Lawrence Brown, gave the sermon. The service began a week of celebrations including a flower festival in church. An exhibition tracing the last 100 year at Dosthill was held at the small Norman chapel including photographs and documents relating to the church and community. The new vicar of Dosthill the Rev. Alec Binnie said 'a wonderful spirit of service and community has been shown during the week and a great deal of interest in the centenary has been evident.'

Special Service (March 1977)

A special service was held at St Paul's Church, Dosthill, to commemorate the 'Women's World Day of Prayer'.

More than 35 women from Dosthill, Kingsbury and Wood End attended. The service was led by the vicars wife Mrs Rene Binnie. Mrs Marjorie Preston, a Birmingham Diocesan social worker gave the address.
