

ST GERMANS GROUP WITH ANTONY & SHEVIOCK

A STEP-BY-STEP LOOK AT HOW WE MIGHT SAFELY
REOPEN OUR BUILDINGS

UNTIL EASTER SUNDAY

We will continue with online Zoom worship, every day. Many of our congregation and Ministry Team have received the first vaccine, but not all. Staying at home at this time will help reduce transmission in our communities.

EASTER SUNDAY AT 10AM

In the second step we shall offer Holy Communion on Easter Morning at 10am. This will be in our biggest building at The Priory, St Germans where social distance can be confidently observed.

At the same time a Zoom Service of the Word will take place, for those who do not wish to be in the physical presence of others at this moment. With both services taking place simultaneously it is hoped no one will feel obliged to attend church if they feel uncomfortable to do so.

APRIL

If Easter Sunday is successful and the infection rates in this area are still low, we will offer a service every Sunday at 10am at The Priory, St Germans due to the space available.

Just like Easter Sunday, there will be a simultaneous Zoom Service of the Word.

MAY

We hope to return to the usual rota with two services in buildings on a Sunday at 10am and a Zoom Service of the Word at 7pm.

The Tuesday Holy Communion at Tideford could also resume.

A united service will take place at The Priory, St Germans on Trinity Sunday - 30th May.

SUNDAY 27TH JUNE 10AM AT THE PRIORY

If all has gone to plan:
Join Revd Laura as she presides at Holy Communion for the first time.
Followed by a bring and share lunch

BUT.... WE MAY HAVE TO SLOW DOWN OUR PROGRESS IF:

- The infection rates increase in South East Cornwall
- Government Restrictions are not lifted as expected
- The Ordination date changes
