Collect

God our redeemer,
you have delivered us from the power of darkness
and brought us into the kingdom of your Son:
grant, that as by his death he has recalled us to life,
so by his continual presence in us he may raise us
to eternal joy;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord.

First Reading: Acts 10. 44- end

Second Reading: 1 John 5. 1-6

Gospel Reading: John 15. 9-17

Just as I am, with the love I have,
with the love of you I know,
so guide me, God, in all I do and in all I
am,
to bear fruit for you.
Amen.

Campton

Thank you to Maggie and her working party for another clear up in the Churchyard – you are all certainly keeping on top of the problems which is wonderful.

Morning Praise is the Service this Sunday and we look forward to welcoming everyone. Ken Stevens funeral is tomorrow Friday 7th but of course numbers are limited to family only.

Clophill

We are pleased to welcome Archdeacon Dave Middlebrook to lead our service today and to take an opportunity to discuss our hopes and plans for the time when the Deanery Review is actioned.

Clophill's fundraising team do not stand still for very long and after Saturday's May Picnic they are already planning another outdoor event in our lovely church garden, so pencil the date into your diaries for Saturday 3rd July, and look out for details very soon.

Our neighbours in Maulden are holding an Open Gardens & Plant Sale on Sunday 23rd May. Note the date in your diaries & take this opportunity to crib ideas for your own garden & also meet up with new friends. There are posters with details in & around Clophill.

Lord Jesus,
help me to lay down my time for my friends
and to be available;
to lay down my gifts and be generous;
to lay down my wants and be supportive;
to lay down my expectations and be undemanding;
to lay down my barriers and be vulnerable;
to lay down my noise and be silent;
to lay down my home and be welcoming;
to lay down my life and be loving.
In your name.
Amen.
