James 3.1-12

Taming the Tongue

³Not many of you should become teachers, my brothers and sisters, for you know that we who teach will be judged with greater strictness. ²For all of us make many mistakes. Anyone who makes no mistakes in speaking is perfect, able to keep the whole body in check with a bridle. ³If we put bits into the mouths of horses to make them obey us, we guide their whole bodies. ⁴Or look at ships: though they are so large that it takes strong winds to drive them, yet they are guided by a very small rudder wherever the will of the pilot directs. ⁵So also the tongue is a small member, yet it boasts of great exploits. How great a forest is set ablaze by a small fire! ⁶And the tongue is a fire. The tongue is placed among our members as a world of iniquity; it stains the whole body, sets on fire the cycle of nature, and is itself set on fire by hell. ⁷For every species of beast and bird, of reptile and sea creature, can be tamed and has been tamed by the human species, ⁸but no one can tame the tongue—a restless evil, full of deadly poison. ⁹With it we bless the Lord and Father, and with it we curse those who are made in the likeness of God. ¹⁰From the same mouth come blessing and cursing. My brothers and sisters, this ought not to be so. ¹¹Does a spring pour forth from the same opening both fresh and brackish water? ¹²Can a fig tree, my brothers and sisters, yield olives, or a grapevine figs? No more can salt water yield fresh.

Mark 8.27-end

Peter's Declaration about Jesus

²⁷ Jesus went on with his disciples to the villages of Caesarea Philippi; and on the way he asked his disciples, 'Who do people say that I am?' ²⁸And they answered him, 'John the Baptist; and others, Elijah; and still others, one of the prophets.' ²⁹He asked them, 'But who do you say that I am?' Peter answered him, 'You are the Messiah.' ³⁰And he sternly ordered them not to tell anyone about him.

Jesus Foretells His Death and Resurrection

³¹ Then he began to teach them that the Son of Man must undergo great suffering, and be rejected by the elders, the chief priests, and the scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again. ³²He said all this quite openly. And Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him. ³³But turning and looking at his disciples, he rebuked Peter and said, 'Get behind me, Satan! For you are setting your mind not on divine things but on human things.'

³⁴ He called the crowd with his disciples, and said to them, 'If any want to become my followers, let them deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me. ³⁵For those who want to save their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake, and for the sake of the gospel, will save it. ³⁶For what will it profit them to gain the whole world and forfeit their life? ³⁷Indeed, what can they give in return for their life? ³⁸Those who are ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, of them the Son of Man will also be ashamed when he comes in the glory of his Father with the holy angels.'

Blend restarts for school Years 7-9 on Tuesday 14th September at 4pm. No booking is required, just turn up. All those in school Years 7, 8 and 9 from all schools are very welcome. It is great way to meet new friends. £1 per session. Vicki Young

The next Filling Station meeting is Wednesday, September 15th at 7pm, inside, at Bendenden Primary School. There will be lots of space inside; masks not required, but if you prefer to wear one, that is fine too.

Our speaker is James Nickols, our friend, encourager, and regional director for Filling Station, who will be helping us relaunch into this new season, a very unique one it is too. It will be especially good to be together!

Harvest Service at St Nicholas: Sunday 26th September: any donations brought to our Harvest service are this year being given to The Trussell Trust. This is a national Food Bank organisation. Their local outlet is in Hastings; but they have very recently set up a hub in Hawkhurst. The Trussell Trust can help support families that are in need and referred to them who live in Sandhurst. They have recently, to my knowledge, helped one Sandhurst family; so any donations we make at our Harvest service can be used by local families.

To help the Trussell Trust, they would appreciate donations of tinned foods: meat, fish, puddings, fruit, vegetables etc. They are also in need of toiletries at this time (deodorants, shampoo, toothpaste etc. but not sanitary products).

If you can help by donating tinned food products and also toiletries, we will then get them to the Trust to distribute to those in need. Thank you. Revd David

If you have fruit or vegetables that can be used to decorate St Nicholas please contact Anne Tylden-Wright 850281

Covid restrictions: Over the last few weeks of the eased Covid restrictions and guidelines in church, it is apparent that the vast majority are happy to sit together and sing. We are therefore, from this Sunday, opening up the whole of the central nave as an area where social distancing and the wearing of face coverings is optional. The area at the rear of church on the right hand side (south side) will be the "safe zone" for those who would prefer to be socially distanced and/or wearing face coverings or not singing. Please respect the feelings of everyone as they come to worship together. Revd David
