PARISH WORSHIP

SUNDAY: 10:00 SUNG MASS AND ADDRESS
Church Parade, as announced

THURSDAY: 10:00 SAID MASS

HOW TO FIND US:

Church website: <https://achurchnearyou.com/church/3323>

Schulze organ website: www.armley-schulze.co.uk

From our visiting Canon:

This offering is going to be mixed.
That is to say, lots of bits and maybe unrelated pieces !!!

Firstly I have to say a very big thank you to all those people who have passed on good wishes after my nasty fall in Kirkstall. Most fortunately no bones broken and only maybe a cracked rib. Next Wednesday I am having some tests and an ECG.

For all of us it has raised some health and safety issues in the church, particularly with reference to the dangerous floor in the sanctuary. All of us will be understanding if some modifications become necessary.

As some of you know I am doing an increasing amount of work at Leeds Minster. This is useful as it generates interest in St. Barts where I do most of my work. I take opportunities to sing your praises with other priests and people.

I am pleased and grateful that we will avoid steps at the parish Mass. I hope to make available a lighter altar on loan. This will be easier than moving the one we normally use when the scouts join us.

Many of you may be planning a holiday abroad or in beautiful places in the U.K. I am hoping to get to Wales for a few days but I shall make sure that I am with you when returned.

In the meantime, rich blessings for all of you.

Fr Ian. Prebendal Canon. Lichfield Cathedral

From my home in the church I learn about all sorts of things.

"LORD,
You know everything I do...
You see me whether I am working or resting..."

You are all around me on every side;
you protect me with your power

Where could I go to escape from you?
Where could I get away
from your presence?...

If I flew away beyond the east
or lived in the farthest
place in the west,
you would be there to lead me,
you would be there to help me."

from Psalm 139

When you leave home and go to somewhere new,
everything can seem very different and strange.
King David may have written this psalm when he was far away from home. It tells of how God is with us, wherever we go,
watching over us and protecting us.

Battleship

To complete this puzzle, you need to place all your fleet of vessels (an aircraft carrier, two battleships, three cruisers and four submarines) into the grid. Some parts of vessels have already been filled in. A number to the right or below a row or column indicates the number of occupied squares in that row or column.

Any vessel may be positioned horizontally or vertically, but no part of a vessel touches part of any other vessel, either vertically, horizontally or diagonally.

PRAYER FOR OUR CHURCH, FROM A MEMBER OF OUR CONGREGATION:

We remember before you all those who worship at or are associated with S. Bartholomew's. May they continue to be strong in their faith and commitment. At this uncertain time, we pray for the future of Your church in this parish. We ask that ways are found to enable us to continue worshipping at this church and that Christ's love may be extended to all those with whom we come into contact.

Amen

HERE WE GO AGAIN: THE SAGA OF THE FLAT TYRE

A driver's nightmare, to come to your parked car and see some debris by one of your wheels. I am in a lay-by of a very busy road. I get in the car, to hear strange rattling. I switch on the engine, rattling still there.

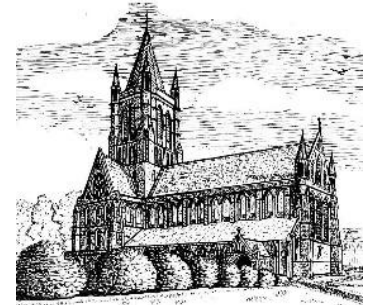

I decide to drive the car, ignoring the rattling and the frantic driver behind me, to a large supermarket car-park nearby, where I can view the car more safely. I discover that I have a very flat tyre. I've no idea what to do. I then remember that I have a spare, required by law! No way I can lift the spare, even less chance of knowing how to fix it. After some quiet panic, I decide to ask the store attendant what I should do.

As soon as I mention my flat tyre, he sets off to view it, with me trailing in his wake. "Oh, we'll soon have this sorted". I empty my boot of all the paraphernalia (I've checked the spelling), it takes my hero less than 15 minutes to remove the flat and fix the spare. He wouldn't accept any payment. In these days, when the newspapers are full of stories of damage, mayhem, by irresponsible people, I am so pleased to report this opposite story.

I now have a new tyre in place, thanks to a local tyre distributor and fitter.
