22 Questions Discussion Group

Our friendly discussion group meets regularly at 22 Phildock Wood Road, Derby DE22 4PH. 22 Questions is a play on the old radio programme name of '20 Questions' but we've changed it to 22 to match our address! The questions, usually chosen by someone in the group, are simply a place to start the evening and see where conversation will lead us. This is a friendly supportive group that listens to one another and honours what everyone has to say about our faith, in its broadest terms. We can't promise answers but we do promise a safe space to talk.

The group starts at 7.30 with a cuppa and biscuits and finishes by 9pm. Phildock Wood Road is on the Langley Country Park estate (off Radbourne Lane) and there is plenty of easy on street parking. The next meeting will be on Tuesday 2nd September and further meeting dates will be listed on the pew sheets for St Michael's, Kirk Langley.

The land yields its harvest; God, our God, blesses us.

Psalm 67:6

St Michael's, Kirk Langley and All Saints', Mackworth had an extra collection for the Derby Food 4 Thought Foodbank Alliance.

It's a great charity they regularly support, helping 17 food banks across Derby as well as providing food parcels for individuals, families and the homeless. Collecting boxes for food can be found in St Michael's.
