CHRIST THE KING
SUNDAY 23RD NOVEMBER

A Message from Fr Paul

With the year drawing to an end we call to mind all that we have done, all that has passed, therefore November tends to be a time of remembrance. This time of remembrance starts on the 1st November as we celebrate the feast of All Hallows, also known as All Saints day. This is the day when we remember all of the saints that have gone before us. This is not the saints that we know and love, whose days we celebrate throughout the year, but those unsung heroes whose good works have gone unnoticed by the Church and by the world. No doubt we all know someone who has been a saint to us, a saint known to us alone. These are the people we should be remembering this day.

The next day, 2nd November, is the feast of All Souls. All Souls Day is the day when we remember all who died, all that have been close to us, but is also a time for those who have no one to pray for them, all those who have been forgotten. This would be a good day where we just take five minutes to remember these people and all they have given us, and perhaps comfort someone who you know may be struggling with their own loss.

The last Act of Remembrance is when we remember those who lost their life in war on 11th November. This should be a time of great gratitude by us as we recall the sacrifice that they paid, that we may have our lives this day. This however is a double Act of Remembrance, firstly with those who gave their lives, but secondly as we remember the mistakes that led to war in the first place. If we do not remember these mistakes then we are likely to make the same mistakes. This would be a great sadness, to those who gave their lives for they would have given them for nothing.

No good ever came from conflict, always look for peace, in doing so we will bring peace to those who gave their lives.

Kirton Parish News

October was a very busy month and seemed to go on for a long time, We started with our harvest festival supper on the 4th October and catered for 46 people. It was a very fun event and no- one went hungry. Harvest services were well attended by the primary school and we collected lots of food for the food bank.

We held a Wave of light event for the community and lots of people added ribbons for babies that were taken to heaven far too soon.

Our coffee morning was well attended, and we cleaned and tidied the church.

Book club celebrated it 6th month of going and Sing - the woman's wellbeing group who meet on a Tuesday evening have seen some growth.
