

Patrick, Glen Maye and Dalby Skeet Sheet 12-19th October

We welcome you to our church this week, it's lovely to have you with us.

Our thanks go to those who have helped set up our churches and are involved in leading worship

We remember before God all those in our communities who are vulnerable or struggling: the isolated and lonely; single parents, young adults and children, those who are ill or depressed, the stressed and anxious; the poor and needy; those facing financial pressures; those grieving the loss of a loved one. We pray that they may know God's presence with them and be comforted.

As we have focused prayers on Gaza and Ukraine, the "worst humanitarian disaster in human history" is developing in Sudan.....Over 150,000 people have been killed by war and genocidal violence. This has triggered mass displacement, famine is spreading, and 8 million people are in danger of starvation. The crisis has deepened in recent weeks, a genocidal army is preparing for massacre in North Darfur. We hold before God the 30 million people who now need immediate help and pray for the global recognition of the necessity to increase Aid Budgets to the majority world.

Readings for the 17th Sunday after Trinity

2 Kings 5.1-3, 7-15c; Psalm 111; 2 Timothy 2.8-15; Luke 17.11-19

In our Gospel reading today we learn that only one came back and gave thanks to Jesus. There have been lots of good things this last week. We celebrated the 67 years of ministry of Brian Kelly, the recovery of the green global turtle population, the start (we hope) of peace in Israel and Gaza, news of remission of illness, meals with old friends and family, beauty in creation. What are you most grateful for this last week? Why is that? How have you expressed your gratitude? To whom? What lay behind the gift, what was the primary cause of the good thing that happened, how did it come about? What has it done for your faith and relationships? How does expressing thanks help you yourself? How have you responded when thanked yourself?

From Dr Peter Litman at the Cathedral:
Sat 1st Nov Afternoon Tea Cooill Hall, Braddan

The shape and presence of Christian Aid is changing on the Island. Come and join us for tea to learn about the changes, give thanks, celebrate and find out more.

A message from Peter Litman:

I might be totally mad, but to raise necessary funds for the Cathedral's Choir, and to alleviate my apathetic exercise regime, I have undertaken to walk the Triskelion Way (36 miles) across 4 days in November. You can sponsor my efforts by going to the following crowdfunding link: <https://www.crowdfunder.co.uk/p/triskelion-way-for-the-choristers>

Many thanks in advance!

Any one is very welcome to come to any of these events
