

The Story Forge

18 October 2025

Prepare for pandemonium and tidal waves of laughter in this hilariously unique, all ages theatrical experience!

Two ludicrously loopy Professors create three brand-new myths by unleashing cardboard chaos and your boundless imagination!

Will your adventure unfold in Ancient Egypt, Viking fjords, or Neptune's deep? You choose! Shape the story, suggest the world and even become the hero!

From the award-winning champions of children's theatre, Rubbish Shakespeare Company, comes an hour of high-octane family fun: expect clowning, improv, music, and epic cardboard props.

Forge your legend – you'd be mad to myth it!

★★★★★ 'The most enjoyable hour this critic has spent at the theatre in years... If Reece Shearsmith and Steve Pemberton did children's theatre, it would look just like this. Outstanding. You'd be mad to Myth it!' – THE REVIEWS HUB

★★★★★ 'This truly is the perfect show to go to as a family' – THEATRE & TONIC

Age Guidance 6-106! (or 6+)

Show Length 60 minutes

Tickets are Pay What You Decide meaning you pay in person after the performance with cash or card.

The venue is wheelchair/pushchair accessible, and has Wi-Fi, a hearing loop, accessible toilet/baby changing and a quiet area but please let us know of any specific access requirements when booking so we can make you feel welcome.

Dates: St. Bartholomew's Church, Armley, Leeds at 2pm on 18th. Oct 2025

BOOK TICKETS