HEADINGS FOR THE READINGS: TWENTY-NINTH SUNDAY

First Reading Exodus 17:8-13

Moses needed help from his supporters if he was himself to give support to the army of Israel in its battle with the Amalekites.

Second Reading 2 Timothy 3:14 – 4:2

Ever since childhood, we have had the scriptures to guide us. Now it is our responsibility to proclaim God's message to the world.

Gospel Luke 18:1-8

God is not blind to injustice and will see that, sooner or later, its victims will receive justice.

PRAYER OF THE FAITHFUL

Celebrant: We are called to pray continually, and never lose heart. We believe that the Lord will see justice done to his chosen ones. Encouraged by these thoughts, let us come to the Father with our intercessions.

Intercessions: For the leaders of the church, that like Moses they may keep their hands lifted up in prayer to God with the willing support of their people.

Lord hear us.

That prayer may direct the course of human conflict in the world, and bring opposing parties to reconciliation. May a desire for true justice lead to peace that is hopeful and lasting.

Lord hear us.

In communion with our sisters and brothers in faith worldwide, we pray for the global Church to be united in living the Gospel with generosity and wisdom.

Lord hear us.

For the followers of Jesus, that we may learn to pray always in faith, without becoming weary, knowing that God will respond and do justice for us at the right moment.

Lord hear us.

We pray for Callie Tessie Morgan (who will be) baptised at Saint Mary's today. May she be filled with the Holy Spirit and grow in the knowledge and love of God.

Lord, hear us.

For all who are suffering: the sick, the poor, the forgotten elderly, the abused and imprisoned, that the Lord may be their guardian and their shade. We remember especially all those on our Parish Sick List.

Lord hear us.

For our church and parish. We ask God to show us ways to reach out to those around us.

Lord hear us.

For the recently departed and particularly anyone known to us and all who have died unprepared, and David Lawrence, Harry Barnard, Peter Homewood (Priest) and Charles Kulpinski whose anniversaries occur this week.

Rest eternal grant unto them, O Lord... May they rest in peace.

Let us ask the prayers of the saints and especially those of Mary as we say together Hail Mary...

Celebrant: Almighty God, judge of the living and the dead, hear the prayers of your church with the merciful compassion you revealed in the sacred heart of your Son, who lives for ever and ever. Amen.
Merciful Father...

Redemptorist Bidding Prayers Sunday 19 October 2025 - 29th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Lord of Peace, as we come before you today we focus our prayers on lasting, meaningful peace and an end to hostility, violence and warfare in the Middle East.

We pray for Pope Leo, echoing his words that real faith changes the way Christians live and treat one another. And we ask God to show us how to live in love, compassion and wisdom, so that the ripples of our faith flow out into the world and touch other lives with a message of peace.

As our screens show scenes of hope and joy, as the world anticipates and longs for peace, we prayerfully focus on the glimmer of light shining from the Middle East. We pray that it might grow ever brighter, until the world is irradiated by the peace of the Lord.

We stand in prayer alongside the people of Gaza, who still live and move among the wreckage of war. We pray for the hostages who have endured two years of captivity, and for the families welcoming them home. We ask God to pour healing love and patience into lives undergoing such huge changes.

We ask the Holy Spirit to draw alongside to comfort and console those who are grieving or wounded, and those who have been displaced and traumatised. We pray for the families whose loved ones will not come home alive. May they know peace even in their sadness and suffering.

We pray for those who are working tirelessly to bring about peace, and for those who are waiting to start the process of rebuilding lives and communities.

We take a moment for personal prayer...

Hear our prayers, Lord, and teach us how to be people of peace. Amen.
