

Follow the Star

Treasure Trail Clue Booklet 3

Welcome to All Saints Kesgrave

"Follow the Star" Treasure Trail

This Treasure Trail is for the whole family — a fun and festive way to explore Kesgrave and discover the story of Christmas!

How to Take Part

1. Find the Location Clues

Turn to pages 4 and 5 of this booklet to see the Location Clues. Try to guess each location, then visit that place!

2. Spot the Star Posters

At each location, you'll find a Star Poster — there are 12 numbered Star Stops in total. Each Star Poster will show you a Letter and a Symbol.

3. Record Your Answers

- Write the Letter in the box provided in your booklet.
- Look at the Symbol and match it to the Symbol Clue on pages
 6 and 7 shown in your booklet.
- Write down the Star Number where you found that Symbol.

4. Follow the Trail

Continue around Kesgrave until you've found all 12 Star Posters.

5. Solve the Puzzle!

When you've collected all 12 letters, rearrange them to reveal the title of a well-loved Christmas carol, and write it in the boxes provided in your booklet.

6. Bring Your Completed Booklet

Drop your booklet in our Star Post Box in the porch or bring it to "Follow the Star" Café at All Saints Kesgrave on 14th December,

As you walk the trail, enjoy the stars shining in the sky and the festive displays across Kesgrave.

These stars remind us of the great light that guided the Wise Men to Jesus.

Why not include a Star in your own decorations this year — a bright reminder to Follow the Star and discover the true meaning and joy of Christmas?

"Follow the Star" Café Sunday, 14th December at 3:30pm

📍 All Saints Church, Kesgrave

Join us for a festive afternoon filled with:

• Tea, coffee, and delicious cakes

Fun children's activities

• A display of all the Nativity symbols from the trail

• A special Chocolate treat for everyone who completes the trail!

(Don't forget to bring your completed booklet with your uncovered Christmas carol! Competed booklets will be entered into a prize draw.)

> Christmas Cracker – "Carols of Praise" with the Brass Band 5:00pm – following the Café

Stay on afterwards for our joyful Carols of Praise with the Brass Band! Sing your favourite carols, celebrate with friends and family, and share in the warmth and wonder of the season.

Let's make this Christmas shine brightly across Kesgrave — as we come together to Follow the Star and celebrate the love, light, and joy of Christmas. *

LOCATION CLUES	LETTER
Shepherds at Christmas follow a star,
Finding a home in the manger of God.
Our shepherd was lost and wandered afar,
Now rests at a crossroad near where he trod.
In war time years, they cracked a code
And in Kesgrave we named a road
Or two, so our commuters
Would know of those who made computers.
You will find this place along the way
Named after a wagon maker from back in the day.
When you arrive here, no more need to roam
Because you will have found your way
Friends of Goldilocks and a wise old bird,
These are the emblems we have heard
Of neighbours whose main inspiration
Is the provision of education.
This establishment offers much
To all for free, including such
As IT, borrowing books and craft galore,
Come along and discover more.
Where treasures await at a much lower cost,
Nothing is wasted and nothing is lost.
We take your donations, both big and small,
Giving to others and helping them all.

LOCATION CLUES	LETTER
On one day a year we all gather here
Two minutes of Silence to keep.
Even in weather drear all over the sphere,
We stop to remember and weep.
The Tree of Life its motif is,
It's served generations for sixty years.
Imparting knowledge to one and all
From four years to eleven as I recall.
A carpenter's child in search of a bed
Needing a place to rest their dear head
No worries, we cry, we know just the store
For hammers and nails and much much more
Its main concern is selling plants,
Indoor and out, your home to enhance.
But come inside and you will find
Preserves, cakes and cookies of every kind.
Raise a glass of wine or beer,
But what is that sound you hear?
Is it a tinkle, ding or chime?
Where's the place that solves this rhyme?
I stand in the town, a tall ancient place,
With a tower and bells and historical grace.
My name speaks of many, whom Christians recall,
Good people who have passed and offered their all.

SYMBOL CLUES	STAR No.
We were humble workers,
Who heard the message with joy.
We were the first visitors
To see the new King-boy.
We are the three kings,
Who travelled very far.
We brought expensive gifts,
Guided by a new-born star.
I am the blessed mother,
Full of faith and grace.
I wrapped my baby in swaddling clothes
In a very humble place.
I am a simple wooden box
For animal food and hay.
I am the first resting place
Of the Saviour on Christmas Day.
I am the one who first appeared to Mary
And told her the great news.
My message of a special birth
Helped her overcome the blues.
I am not a person,
But a guiding light in the dark sky.
The Magi followed me for miles,
Until they found where Jesus did lie.

I was the jealous king, Who heard of a new Lord. I grew angry and fearful When the wise men did not keep their word. I am the four-legged friend, Soft and gray. I carried Mary safely On the long, dusty way. I am the carpenter, Who protected my wife and child. I searched for a room, When the town was packed and wild. We are the gentle, Quiet animals in the stable of wood. We kept the space warm for the baby As best as we could. I am the man, Who sadly had no open bed, But I offered my stable, so they could rest their head. I am the sweet little newborn, The whole reason for the story. I am the promised Messiah,	SYMBOL CLUES	STAR No.
I grew angry and fearful When the wise men did not keep their word. I am the four-legged friend, Soft and gray. I carried Mary safely On the long, dusty way. I am the carpenter, Who protected my wife and child. I searched for a room, When the town was packed and wild. We are the gentle, Quiet animals in the stable of wood. We kept the space warm for the baby As best as we could. I am the man, Who sadly had no open bed, But I offered my stable, so they could rest their head. I am the sweet little newborn, The whole reason for the story.	I was the jealous king,
When the wise men did not keep their word. I am the four-legged friend, Soft and gray. I carried Mary safely On the long, dusty way. I am the carpenter, Who protected my wife and child. I searched for a room, When the town was packed and wild. We are the gentle, Quiet animals in the stable of wood. We kept the space warm for the baby As best as we could. I am the man, Who sadly had no open bed, But I offered my stable, so they could rest their head. I am the sweet little newborn, The whole reason for the story.
I am the four-legged friend, Soft and gray. I carried Mary safely On the long, dusty way. I am the carpenter, Who protected my wife and child. I searched for a room, When the town was packed and wild. We are the gentle, Quiet animals in the stable of wood. We kept the space warm for the baby As best as we could. I am the man, Who sadly had no open bed, But I offered my stable, so they could rest their head. I am the sweet little newborn, The whole reason for the story.
Soft and gray. I carried Mary safely On the long, dusty way. I am the carpenter, Who protected my wife and child. I searched for a room, When the town was packed and wild. We are the gentle, Quiet animals in the stable of wood. We kept the space warm for the baby As best as we could. I am the man, Who sadly had no open bed, But I offered my stable, so they could rest their head. I am the sweet little newborn, The whole reason for the story.	When the wise men did not keep their word.
I carried Mary safely On the long, dusty way. I am the carpenter, Who protected my wife and child. I searched for a room, When the town was packed and wild. We are the gentle, Quiet animals in the stable of wood. We kept the space warm for the baby As best as we could. I am the man, Who sadly had no open bed, But I offered my stable, so they could rest their head. I am the sweet little newborn, The whole reason for the story.	I am the four-legged friend,
On the long, dusty way. I am the carpenter, Who protected my wife and child. I searched for a room, When the town was packed and wild. We are the gentle, Quiet animals in the stable of wood. We kept the space warm for the baby As best as we could. I am the man, Who sadly had no open bed, But I offered my stable, so they could rest their head. I am the sweet little newborn, The whole reason for the story.	Soft and gray.
I am the carpenter, Who protected my wife and child. I searched for a room, When the town was packed and wild. We are the gentle, Quiet animals in the stable of wood. We kept the space warm for the baby As best as we could. I am the man, Who sadly had no open bed, But I offered my stable, so they could rest their head. I am the sweet little newborn, The whole reason for the story.	I carried Mary safely
Who protected my wife and child. I searched for a room, When the town was packed and wild. We are the gentle, Quiet animals in the stable of wood. We kept the space warm for the baby As best as we could. I am the man, Who sadly had no open bed, But I offered my stable, so they could rest their head. I am the sweet little newborn, The whole reason for the story.	On the long, dusty way.
I searched for a room, When the town was packed and wild. We are the gentle, Quiet animals in the stable of wood. We kept the space warm for the baby As best as we could. I am the man, Who sadly had no open bed, But I offered my stable, so they could rest their head. I am the sweet little newborn, The whole reason for the story.	I am the carpenter,
When the town was packed and wild. We are the gentle, Quiet animals in the stable of wood. We kept the space warm for the baby As best as we could. I am the man, Who sadly had no open bed, But I offered my stable, so they could rest their head. I am the sweet little newborn, The whole reason for the story.	Who protected my wife and child.
We are the gentle, Quiet animals in the stable of wood. We kept the space warm for the baby As best as we could. I am the man, Who sadly had no open bed, But I offered my stable, so they could rest their head. I am the sweet little newborn, The whole reason for the story.	I searched for a room,
Quiet animals in the stable of wood. We kept the space warm for the baby As best as we could. I am the man, Who sadly had no open bed, But I offered my stable, so they could rest their head. I am the sweet little newborn, The whole reason for the story.	When the town was packed and wild.
We kept the space warm for the baby As best as we could. I am the man, Who sadly had no open bed, But I offered my stable, so they could rest their head. I am the sweet little newborn, The whole reason for the story.	We are the gentle,
I am the man, Who sadly had no open bed, But I offered my stable, so they could rest their head. I am the sweet little newborn, The whole reason for the story.	Quiet animals in the stable of wood.
I am the man, Who sadly had no open bed, But I offered my stable, so they could rest their head. I am the sweet little newborn, The whole reason for the story.	We kept the space warm for the baby
Who sadly had no open bed, But I offered my stable, so they could rest their head. I am the sweet little newborn, The whole reason for the story.	As best as we could.
But I offered my stable, so they could rest their head. I am the sweet little newborn, The whole reason for the story.	I am the man,
so they could rest their head. I am the sweet little newborn, The whole reason for the story.	Who sadly had no open bed,
I am the sweet little newborn, The whole reason for the story.	But I offered my stable,
The whole reason for the story.	so they could rest their head.
	I am the sweet little newborn,
I am the promised Messiah.	The whole reason for the story.
	I am the promised Messiah,
Lying in humble glory.	Lying in humble glory.

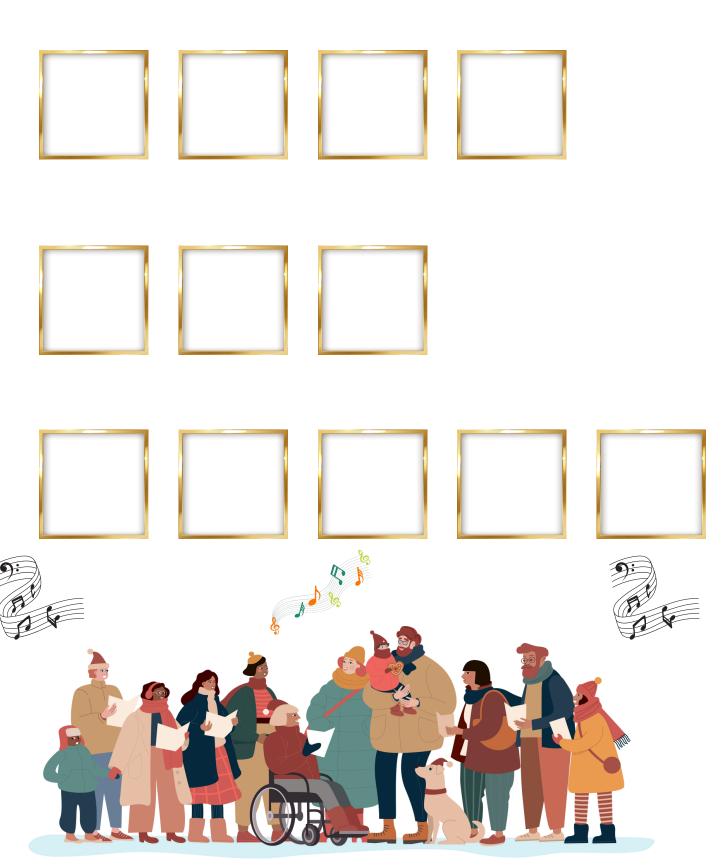

You made it to the end!

Your final task:

Write the name of the Christmas Carol you've uncovered.

Contact phone number:

