Welcome to the 32nd edition of the Hub Post

Join the rebellion!

As we turn the calendar toward December, it often feels as though the world collectively hits the accelerator. There is a pressure to rush and tick the endless boxes before the big day. The noise around us values speed, volume, and instant outcomes above all else. Into this commercial inertia, the season of Advent offers a gentle, counter-cultural invitation to slow down.

It might seem strange to think of slowing down as "rebellious," but in our current climate, perhaps that is exactly what it is. To step back from the hyper-stimulated rush is a quiet act of resistance. It is a refusal to believe that faster is always better.

The Japanese theologian Kosuke Koyama once beautifully described God as a "Three Mile an Hour God." Why three miles an hour? Because that is roughly human walking speed. God, in His infinite love, chose not to race ahead of us or zip past us. In the Incarnation, He chose to walk beside us, at a pace that allows for genuine connection. Love, Koyama argues, takes time. It cannot be rushed. When we are sprinting through December, life becomes a blur. We miss the details. Advent is a sacred invitation to decelerate to walking speed so that we can actually notice.

We need to slow down enough to notice what God is doing in the quiet corners of our lives. Perhaps even more importantly, we need to slow down enough to notice the people around us. At three miles an hour, we have time to see the tired eyes of a neighbour, or the loneliness of a friend, or the silent struggle of someone finding this time of year difficult. We will find it very difficult to care for people while rushing past them.

The world might imply that pausing is wasteful when there is so much to be done. But there is a different wisdom to draw from. In Hebrew, the language of the ancient texts of the Old Testament, the word for waiting is Qavah—and it's the same word for hoping and expecting.

So, this Advent, I invite you to join this gentle rebellion. Pause, watch, wait, and listen. Dare to walk slowly. In doing so, you might just find yourself in step with God, noticing both the needs of others and the quiet miracles unfolding along the way.

May you receive the compassion and peaceful presence of the God who walks slowly.

A red violin and bow are positioned diagonally across the frame, resting on an open book of musical notation. The violin is a vibrant red, and the bow is dark wood with red hair. The book's pages are filled with handwritten musical notes and lyrics, including the words "P S A L M S" and "English Metre". The background is a soft, warm-toned collage of musical notes and the instrument's body.

As a governor, you'll get the opportunity to help schools give children the best start in life. School governors come from all walks of life. Governors have different skills, experiences and backgrounds, and together use them to make a difference.

You don't need lots of experience in education and you don't need to be a parent. You just need to be over 18 and have a commitment to serve schools with joy.

Interested?

Many of you may know that since my visit to Israel/Palestine in 2022 Steve and I have been actively supporting the Princess Basma Centre for Disabled children and their families from the West Bank. Run and funded totally by the Diocese of Jerusalem as a charity organisation. Having visited the Centre, and with our daughter being a paediatric physio in North Devon working with disabled children, I recognised the value and importance of this facility. This was some 14 months prior to the commencement of the War in October 2023.

The Centre is based in East Jerusalem, which is on occupied Palestinian land. In addition they have a unit based in the Al Ahli Hospital in Gaza City. This hospital is also run by the Diocese of Jerusalem, initially it was an orthopaedic hospital, but at the outbreak of the War it became a light in the darkness for all. Bombed or attacked 8 times, thousands were given shelter there and thousands have died there. It remained open and functioned as best it could, being the only functioning hospital left in Northern Gaza.

Steve and I will be hosting an Open House on Thursday 18th December at 37 Mill Street. There will be seasonal refreshments and information on the Basma Centre. Everyone welcome, 10am -9pm.

United and Reunited

22nd October 2025

Photo taken 22nd October 2025 of the Princess Basma Gaza team united in an online meeting with our Jerusalem team

Earlier this month, five of our Gaza staff were displaced to the south and worked out of their temporary shelters, whilst our remaining staff worked out of our unit in Gaza City.

Even in this extreme emergency, our team, 'together' in different geographical locations treated 76 beneficiaries in the first week of October.

Throughout this time, our Princess Basma team in Jerusalem spoke with

We continue to pray for the situation in the Holy Land.

A Prayer for the Holy Land from Archbishop Hosam Naoum of Jerusalem:

O God of all justice and peace, we cry out to you in the midst of the pain and trauma of violence and fear which prevails in the Holy Land.

Be with those who need you in these days of suffering; we pray for people of all faiths - Jews, Muslims and Christians and for all people of the land.

While we pray to you, O Lord, for an end to violence and the establishment of peace, we also call for you to bring justice and equity to the peoples. Guide us into your kingdom where all people are treated with dignity and honour as your children - for to all of us, you are our Heavenly Father.

In Jesus' name we pray,
Amen.

We also continue to pray for peace in Ukraine and other places where there is war.

Almighty God, from whom all thoughts of truth and peace proceed: kindle, we pray, in the hearts of all, the true love of peace and guide with your pure and peaceable wisdom those who take counsel for the nations of the earth that in tranquility your kingdom may go forward, till the earth is filled with the knowledge of your love; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Amen

GROW COURSES offer introductory learning opportunities for a wide range of roles over Zoom. Primarily for lay people, these courses can be accessed by anyone and may be used as part of their discernment process or as learning for a current or future role. This project aims to help our church members to grow in prayer, make new disciples and serve the people of Devon with joy through practical and specific learning.

Courses are certificated and can be undertaken without prior learning. Some participants join before or after undertaking Foundations in Christian Ministry, but these courses stand alone. Public recognition of this learning is really valuable, so we'd encourage all churches to acknowledge those who complete Grow courses. These courses can also be arranged as in-person training, if we have enough people to run a course in the Deanery.

Current courses include Digital Ministry, Prayer, Sharing our Faith, Children, Youth & Schools, Leading from the Front, Carbon Literacy, Creation Care, Pastoral Care, Social Action, Administration, Preaching, Small Group Leadership and more. These are always being added to and suggestions of new subjects are welcome.

Jon Curtis is Lay Leadership Project Manager for the Diocese of Exeter and can be contacted via email at jon.curtis@exeter.anglican.org

If you are interested in doing one of these courses, please speak to Janet May or Laura Armstrong.

ST MATTHEW'S CHURCH, COLDRIDGE

We welcome you all to enjoy the peace, beauty and iconic location of our ancient and historic church. The church is open between 10:00am and 4:00pm each and every day. Guided visits are available on request. Please contact John Smith (Church Warden) at biggles1047@gmail.com or call 01363 83436 to make an appointment.

CHURCH TOWER ILLUMINATION:

During the Winter season, our church tower is floodlit by public subscription. It is a beacon of welcome and warmth, visible for miles around. We hope that you all enjoy the spectacle.

We will shortly be announcing the means by which anyone can sponsor a period of tower lighting (by the week or the month). We will publish this directly and also on the Coldridge Facebook page.

You can choose to sponsor in memory of a loved one or of a special occasion, such as a Birthday, Wedding Anniversary or any other occasion significant in your life.

So many people tell us how welcoming it is to turn a corner on the road home and spot the tower, beautifully lit-up on the horizon. It tells you that you are safely returned to home, hearth and family.

The sponsorship is designed simply to cover the direct cost of the lighting. In the unlikely event of any surplus money, it will be used to support the planned upgrades to church heating and lighting and the renovation of the bell tower through the medium of the Church Fabric Fund.

Our Pattern of Worship for DECEMBER is as follows:
