

Barrow and Wolds Group January Diary

Reflection of the season

January arrives like a quiet doorway, opening into a year we have not yet lived. After the fullness of Advent and Christmas, the new year invites us to pause, breathe, and remember Who goes before us. The world often urges us to begin January with our own strength—resolutions, goals, willpower. But Scripture reminds us that new beginnings are not anchored in our effort, but in God's steadfast faithfulness: "Because of the Lord's great love we are not consumed... great is your faithfulness." Let this month be a time of re-centering rather than striving. A time to listen for God's voice in the winter stillness. A time to trust that even when the landscape looks bare, God is planting things we cannot yet see.
