Today's Bible Readings

Malachi 3.1-5

The prophet Malachi speaks to a people traumatised by their recent period of Exile. The promise of God's coming is good news for the poor, but not for their oppressors.

Luke 2.22-40

The law commanded offerings of lambs or pigeons following the birth of a child. Mary and Joseph in their poverty bring the latter, but also bring great blessing to Simeon and Anna in the temple.

COLLECT PRAYER

*Lord Jesus Christ, light of the nations and glory of Israel:
make your home among us,
and present us pure and holy to your heavenly Father,
your God, and our God. Amen.*

100 Club - a few numbers remaining

St Peter's 100 Club raises money for the upkeep of the church building.

I have a number of 'spare' numbers, so if you know of anyone who enjoys and appreciates our 'Church on the Hill' perhaps you could ask them if they would be interested in joining the club?

Thank you to all the supporters who have renewed their membership.

Praying for Gold

An afternoon of prayer for Mission and Revival in the Episcopal area of the Bishop of Wolverhampton

Sunday 8th February

3:30pm Refreshments
4pm-6pm Worship & Prayer

St Martin's Church, 1 Daffodil Rd, Walsall, WS5 3DQ

Join us for an afternoon of worship, prayer, and silence - from across different traditions and styles - as we pray for mission and revival across the Wolverhampton area!

First Aiders Needed

We are looking for trained First Aiders who would be willing to go on a rota for the Daffodil Days festival on March 21st and 22nd. We would also like to know if anyone would be interested in doing some First Aid training to help with future events. Please speak to Rev'd Rich for more info.

Please hold the following people in your prayers:

Rev'd Beryl Pritchett, Lynn Hudson, Barbara Alliband, Sharon Siddons, Helen McPhail, Sheila Harryman, Elaine, Alex, Sue, Jean Mills, Roland Day and Mavis Phillips.
