In this season of Epiphany we are guided to reflect on that central message of Christmas – that Jesus is ‘Emmanuel’, ‘God-With-Us’, and all the ways in which we can see that communicated and borne witness to in the life of our Lord.

Last week we looked at the Visitation of the Magi – the visitors from a far land who travelled vast distances to see and worship the new-born Saviour. This week our attention is drawn to the Baptism of Christ, which is the starting point of his ministry proper. From this point we meet Jesus himself, and are shown just who he is, in what he does, says, and embodies. In fact, in Mark’s Gospel we don’t spend any time on Jesus’ birth story at all, but instead begin right in this moment, where Jesus comes to the Jordon to be baptised by John.

In this wonderful event of Jesus’ baptism we see two absolutely crucial things about who he is showing himself to be. Firstly, he is showing himself to be humble, and obedient to where the Father is leading him. John doesn’t want to baptise Jesus, because he thinks he isn’t worthy of that honour, but Jesus reassures him – this moment is bigger than them both: “...it is proper for us in this way to fulfil all righteousness.” In this moment Jesus is living out solidarity with all those he has come to save. He shares all our experiences, even this one, as he places himself into God’s hands.

Secondly, in this moment we see inarguable evidence that Jesus is the Son of God, right here as his story begins. Everyone gathered there, from John the Baptist, to the smallest member of the crowd, hears the voice of God: “This is my Son, the Beloved, with whom I am well pleased.” Out loud, right there on the shore of the Jordan River, God’s own voice rings out and declares the truth of who Jesus is. The Holy Spirit, descending like a dove and alighting on Jesus, is anointing Jesus, blessing and preparing him for the long journey to come.

Here we realise that Jesus is being recognised, not by human beings this time, but by God, in the sight and hearing of everyone gathered there. It is a moment of revelation that will then mark the beginning of everything that lies ahead.

For us, this is a great moment to reflect on our baptisms – the moment when we were welcomed into the family of God, and heard God’s love for us and blessing upon us pronounced out loud. We too, just like Jesus, have been seen and loved; and in some small way, just like him, are then sent out to live as witnesses to that love. May that amazing revelation life in our hearts this week!

Geoffrey Hawkes 1940-2025

We are saddened to hear about the passing of Geoff Hawkes.

Geoff passed away peacefully, in Kendal, Cumbria. He leaves behind Frances, Philip and Simon.

Many of you will have known Geoff, across the 46 years he lived in Fairford. He was very active in Friends of Fairford Church, particularly around the restoration of the windows. He was a familiar face in the church itself, hosting tours and singing in the choir.

A memorial service will be held at 2.30pm in Fairford Church on February 7th, and everyone is warmly invited to celebrate Geoff's life and join in remembering him in love.

Prayer/Thought for the Week

Jesus said, "Whenever you offer your gift at the altar and you remember that someone has something against you, leave your gift and go and make peace first." It's still the best advice for reconciliation.

Lord God, we thank you for the message of peace that Christmas brings to our distracted world, give peace among nations, peace in our land, peace in our homes, and peace in our hearts, as we remember the birth at Bethlehem of the Prince of Peace, Jesus Christ our Lord. We pray in his most holy name, AMEN

Fairford Christmas Day Lunch 2025

There were 52 individuals and couples who sat down for the annual Fairford Christmas Day Lunch in the Community Centre in Fairford and it was voted a great success.

The event was due to start at 12.30 and many guests arrived early so as not to miss the first glass of bubbly! Fortunately the invaluable team of volunteers, without whom the event would not happen at all, were there too.

Lunch - turkey with all the trimmings followed by Christmas pudding and custard or fruit salad and cream - was served at about 1.15pm.

The guests were given a quiz over coffee and then watched the King's speech at 3pm, following which everyone enjoyed a game of pass the parcel before departing with a goody bag to sustain them in the evening.

As already mentioned the lunch would not be possible without the support of an invaluable and dedicated team of volunteers who are responsible for every aspect of the event, from a "meet and greet" role to cooking the food, serving it, clearing up, acting as car drivers (for those who do not drive or are disabled) and organising the entertainment.

Thanks are also due to outside local support, particularly the Lechlade & District Lions Club, Andrew Butler Butchers and the Church Lands Trust, as well as very generous financial contributions from many local individuals and other supporters who were prepared to display posters.

(The lunch has been a regular annual event since it was started in 2013 and is offered to individuals and couples who are residents of Fairford, the surrounding villages - and Lechlade who would otherwise be on their own at Christmas and would like to spend some of the time in company).
