Collects for Sunday 15th February

Sunday next before Lent

Almighty Father,
whose Son was revealed in majesty
before he suffered death upon the cross:
give us grace to perceive his glory,
that we may be strengthened to suffer with him
and be changed into his likeness, from glory to glory;
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Amen

Holy God,
you know the disorder of our sinful lives:
set straight our crooked hearts,
and bend our wills to love your goodness and your glory
in Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen

Reflection: Sunday 15th February

Sunday next before Lent

As we approach the holy season of Lent, the Church invites us into a sacred time of prayer, repentance, and renewal. Lent isn't simply about giving something up; it is about making space - space for God to work more deeply within our hearts.

In the Gospel, Jesus often withdraws to quiet places to pray. He fasts in the desert. He listens attentively to the Father's will. Lent calls us to follow Him into that same spiritual wilderness, where distractions are stripped away and we are reminded of what truly matters. In a world that constantly demands our attention, Lent offers us the gift of stillness and reflection.

Through prayer, fasting, and almsgiving, we are invited to refocus our lives toward love - love of God and love of neighbour. Prayer deepens our relationship with Christ and reminds us that we are never alone. Fasting teaches us self-discipline and helps us recognise our dependence on God. Giving, of time or money, opens our eyes to the needs of others and challenges us to respond with compassion and generosity.

Preparing for Lent begins not with perfection, but with honesty. We come before God as we are - wounded, hopeful, grateful, and in need of mercy. The ashes we may receive on Ash Wednesday remind us of our human frailty, but they also proclaim God's promise of new life. From dust we came, and by God's grace, we are being shaped into something beautiful.

This Lent, let's not be content with small sacrifices alone, but seek something deeper. Let's try to forgive more readily, listen more patiently, pray more faithfully, and love more generously. As we walk this forty-day journey together, may we grow closer to Christ and be renewed by His transforming grace, ready to celebrate Easter with hearts renewed with hope and joy. Hilary Painter

Bible Readings:

Sunday 15th February

Sunday next before Lent

Exodus 24.12-end

12 The Lord said to Moses, 'Come up to me on the mountain, and wait there; and I will give you the tablets of stone, with the law and the commandment, which I have written for their instruction.'

13 So Moses set out with his assistant Joshua, and Moses went up into the mountain of God.

14 To the elders he had said, 'Wait here for us, until we come to you again; for Aaron and Hur are with you; whoever has a dispute may go to them.'

15 Then Moses went up on the mountain, and the cloud covered the mountain.

16 The glory of the Lord settled on Mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it for six days; on the seventh day he called to Moses out of the cloud.

17 Now the appearance of the glory of the Lord was like a devouring fire on the top of the mountain in the sight of the people of Israel.

18 Moses entered the cloud, and went up on the mountain. Moses was on the mountain for forty days and forty nights.

2 Peter 1.16-end

16 For we did not follow cleverly devised myths when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we had been eyewitnesses of his majesty.

17 For he received honour and glory from God the Father when that voice was conveyed to him by the Majestic Glory, saying, 'This is my Son, my Beloved, with whom I am well pleased.'

18 We ourselves heard this voice come from heaven, while we were with him on the holy mountain.

19 So we have the prophetic message more fully confirmed. You will do well to be attentive to this as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts.

20 First of all you must understand this, that no prophecy of scripture is a matter of one's own interpretation,

21 because no prophecy ever came by human will, but men and women moved by the Holy Spirit spoke from God.

Matthew 17.1-9

17 Six days later, Jesus took with him Peter and James and his brother John and led them up a high mountain, by themselves.

2 And he was transfigured before them, and his face shone like the sun, and his clothes became dazzling white.

3 Suddenly there appeared to them Moses and Elijah, talking with him.

4 Then Peter said to Jesus, 'Lord, it is good for us to be here; if you wish, I will make three dwellings here, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.'

5 While he was still speaking, suddenly a bright cloud overshadowed them, and from the cloud a voice said, 'This is my Son, the Beloved; with him I am well pleased; listen to him!'

6 When the disciples heard this, they fell to the ground and were overcome by fear.

7 But Jesus came and touched them, saying, 'Get up and do not be afraid.'

8 And when they looked up, they saw no one except Jesus himself alone.

9 As they were coming down the mountain, Jesus ordered them, 'Tell no one about the vision until after the Son of Man has been raised from the dead.'

Sunday 15th February

Sunday next before Lent

Psalms 2

1 Why are the nations in tumult,
and why do the peoples devise a vain plot?

2 The kings of the earth rise up,
and the rulers take counsel together,
against the Lord and against his anointed:

3 'Let us break their bonds asunder
and cast away their cords from us.'

4 He who dwells in heaven shall laugh them to scorn;
the Lord shall have them in derision.

5 Then shall he speak to them in his wrath
and terrify them in his fury:

6 'Yet have I set my king
upon my holy hill of Zion.'

7 I will proclaim the decree of the Lord; •
he said to me: 'You are my Son; this day have I begotten you.'

8 'Ask of me and I will give you the nations for your inheritance and the ends of the earth for your possession.

9 'You shall break them with a rod of iron and dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel.'

10 Now therefore be wise, O kings;
be prudent, you judges of the earth.

11 Serve the Lord with fear, and with trembling kiss his feet,

lest he be angry and you perish from the way,
for his wrath is quickly kindled.

12 Happy are all they who take refuge in him.

This Lent book, by the Archbishop of York, offers reflections on Christ's crucifixion. Each of the chapters is focused on a different key character, who describes his or her experience of the Passion. The nails used to crucify Christ are used as a jumping off point for their reflections. Each character considers the questions, 'Who killed Christ' and 'Who was responsible?' Each chapter includes a Biblical passage, a meditation, a reflection from the point of view of the character, and prayer.

Good News Story

God of surprises!

When was the last time God really surprised you? Imagine receiving your post today and finding a letter from the King with your name on it. Every week a list goes out with the worship plan for the Launde Minster Community, your very own invitation from our King of Kings to join Him.

On Sunday the 8th of February I took my invitation to St Michael and all Angels in Hallaton, not only was I expecting to meet the King, we were going to have breakfast together. I probably know what you are thinking, what does one wear?

The Rev Crystal was leading the service and the reflection was from Matthew 6. The message, not to worry.

8 "And why do you worry about clothes? See how the flowers of the field grow. They do not labour or spin. 29 Yet I tell you that not even Solomon in all his splendour was dressed like one of these. 30 If that is how God clothes the grass of the field, which is here today and tomorrow is thrown into the fire, will he not much more clothe you—you of little faith?

I do believe God surprised everyone on Sunday. The chairs and tables were all set out in advance including a table with a magnificent cake. The coffee, tea and bacon baps being prepared, all the tables were full and more seats were needed, lots more seats, for 58 adults, 2 young people and 2 children. What a surprise, no one was expecting that many people, let's hope there are enough bacon baps! We all shared another celebration of achievement. Remember I said imagine getting a letter from the King? Well, Denis Kenyon did receive a letter from the King, appointing him as a Member of the Order of the British Empire (MBE). As Bryan Hollier explained, it was awarded for over 40 years of faithful service to the community in Hallaton, its history, village life, its church and the memory of fallen servicemen and women.

Denis Kenyon MBE said a few words, and they are so true, He said anyone can begin something but it is the keeping it going that matters, as his lifetime of service proves.

I was speaking with his wife, Anthea, and as we know, behind every good man is an even better woman. She did laugh about going to the palace with Denis, to receive the award, and is particularly looking forward to getting a new hat!

Thanks everyone for making your church so welcoming, and for all the preparation before, and work after, the service. Just for the record, there were ample bacon baps for everyone.

Uel Sandford
