Dear Friends,

March is a time when the seasons change, winter turns to spring and the clocks spring forward. We've enjoyed the beauty of the snowdrops and crocuses, both in the hedgerows and in the churchyards. Daffodils are starting to come into their full glory. The days are pulling out with lighter evenings and the birdsong becomes louder. Signs of hope of new growth and renewal.

Lent has started but Easter is yet to come. The season of Lent invites us to slow down, notice, and make space. The lovely spring walks in the countryside draw us to the beauty of nature and to the intricate detail of God's creation.

Making space often involves spring cleaning and decluttering our homes, clearing out sheds and tidying up. And just as we might do this in practical ways, Lent also invites us to spring clean our lives, making space for kindness, patience and gratitude. It can sometimes be misunderstood as a gloomy time, but at its heart it is about honesty and attention. It invites us to pause, to notice how we are really living and to ask gentle questions: What matters most? What have I been carrying that I could lay down? What might need making space for?

And as we do this, hope emerges. Not in a dramatic way, but in a quiet gentle way, bit by bit, just like the small green shoots which push through the cold soil and leaves which start to open up to show their enfolded beauty. Hope comes in those small acts of kindness, those moments of taking time and not rushing, perhaps in a cuppa with a neighbour, or stopping for a chat. Hope comes in being present in the moment.

The Christian story shows that hope grows even when we can't see the full picture. Easter, which is just around the corner, but hasn't yet arrived speaks of life emerging from loss, but it doesn't skip over the waiting, the wondering and the pondering. Jesus' disciples experienced all of these things as they journeyed through life with Jesus. Transformation took place but it was a gentle, gradual growing, taking each day afresh, learning to live and love in the way that Jesus modelled, loving God and loving one's neighbours.

So, as we journey through March together, may we notice the light returning, taking care of one another, and trust that even the small signs of renewal are worth paying attention to. May this be a time of pausing, reflecting and enjoying the gift of time.

Yours in Christ

Revd Nicki

Last month's records...

In Sad News we have given thanks for the lives of, and said, 'Farewell' to, Mrs Kathleen Rowley [Camelford]

Mr Peter Geen [St Teath]

We keep their families and friends in our thoughts and prayers.

It is important to the Ministry Team to be aware when people in our parishes are unwell, have suffered a bereavement or other situation. YOU are the eyes and ears in our communities! Please do pass on details when you hear of them - tho' please ask for permission from the person / family before giving us a 'phone number. Thank you

We are called to grow our churches. To enable more people to come to know Jesus as their Lord. To help bring in God's Kingdom here and now. Everything we do must be firmly grounded in prayer, and to that end, to help us all to pray, brightly coloured prayer cards have been produced, for each and every one of us, and for those we know.

If you lead prayers in our services, please include the two prayers each time, also in your own prayer times, please include these words.

The cards are available in each church.

The annual Snowdrop Saturday at St Julitta's Church, was this year linked with a small exhibition on the rare and ancient stained-glass restoration. Research has shown that although some glass is missing since it was installed more than 500 years ago, there is evidence that there was a carefully thought-out pattern to the glass paintings. This includes the Holy Kinship Legend and the Apostles Creed that were current around the end of the 15th century. More than 30 people attended the afternoon tea and the exhibition. The snowdrops were particularly good this year and there has been a push to transplant as many as possible so that next year is even more spectacular!

St Teath Church was filled with visitors, wonderful music from the Church Choir and soloists accompanied by Gareth and fabulous cakes as we settled down to an afternoon of pleasure having viewed the glorious crocus display, which several people have described as the best it has ever been; they have certainly made it through the rain and carpeted the churchyard again.

St Teath Church received the following request, via the Parish Council, as there is a flagpole on the tower: 'On behalf of the Ukrainian community in Cornwall, representing around 800 families, and the Ukrainian-Cornish social club Sunflowers & Choughs, I am writing to kindly request that the Ukrainian flag be flown to mark the fourth anniversary of Russia's full-scale invasion of Ukraine on 24 February'.

Thanks to Patrick for supplying the flag and Tom's kindness in mounting the steps, we are pleased to have been able to assist; photos were sent to 'Sunflowers & Choughs'.
