

LITTLEHAM NEWS FOR APRIL

Hello again,

We are in the midst of Holy Week now with lots happening and the joy of Easter Sunday to look forward to.

Please pray for the Easter Egg Hunt on Saturday and for all those from the surrounding area who come to take part may they will feel uplifted, welcomed and blessed. Thanks to all our volunteers whether it be planning, supervising, refreshments, crafts or generally clearing up the mayhem afterwards. Thank you all. A big thank you also to Tesco for their generous donation of chocolate eggs.

Don't forget our Maundy Thursday service at 7.00pm with Steve and Heidi which will be a flavour of the Last Supper and what that may have been like.

Good Friday reflective service at 11.00am is with Benedict and finally the joy of Easter Sunday Eucharist to celebrate our Risen Lord with Shaun at 10.00am.

Resulting from our recent meeting a new social team has been formed to plan and stage future outreach events like the Easter Egg hunt and the summer fete. If you are interested or you may know someone who is please get in touch. You may have done Alpha before and feel like a refresher or you could get involved as a volunteer. We would love to set up a rota for our talented cake bakers to provide some yummy cakes every week. If you could help please let Debbie know.

Empty pill packs

Superdrug in Exmouth will no longer accept our empty blister pill packs but Boots will. Helen Edwards has very kindly offered to take over this task and deliver them to Boots but if you are able to drop yours in while you're in town that will be a great help. A gentle reminder to make sure that the packs are empty and no "rogue" pills left behind.

Morning Prayer - Wednesday

Don't forget that there is usually morning prayer every Wednesday from 9.00am at Littleham so please do join Di West and her team of prayer warriors for some quiet prayer time.
