Feedback on the content of the Grapevine is welcomed. Contact details for the Churchwardens have been removed this week, in response to feedback, and because these details are easily found elsewhere.

The space will be used for additional news, notices and events.

The message from our Rector Philippa below reminds us of other requirements, to ensure that notices are up to date and meet Safeguarding and privacy requirements:

'Requests for names on the prayer list must be made to the Administrator. Requests to remove people's names, as appropriate, would be appreciated. Names will be removed after 6 weeks unless a request has been made for the next 6 weeks. No living person can be added to the prayer list without their permission or that of their power of attorney.'

TRINITY SUNDAY

Collect

Almighty and everlasting God, you have given us your servants grace, by the confession of a true faith, to acknowledge the glory of the eternal Trinity and in the power of the divine majesty to worship the Unity: keep us steadfast in this faith, that we may evermore be defended from all adversities; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

First reading: Isaiah 40: 12-17, 27-end

Second reading: 2 Corinthians 13:11-end

Gospel: Matthew 28:16-end

Now the eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain to which Jesus had directed them. When they saw him, they worshipped him; but some doubted. And Jesus came and said to them, 'All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything that I have commanded you. And remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age.'

POST COMMUNION PRAYER

Almighty and eternal God, you have revealed yourself as Father, Son and Holy Spirit, and live and reign in the perfect unity of love: hold us firm in this faith, that we may know you in all your ways and evermore rejoice in your eternal glory, who are three Persons yet one God, now and for ever.
