Lighthouse Holiday Club, 17th – 21st August 2026

We are excited to announce that we are working with other local churches and Christians to run a week-long Christian holiday club for primary age children. It is going to be enormous fun, and will give us the chance to tell the Good News to local children, and will build relationships with other Christians in our area. We are joining the Lighthouse family, so all the materials are planned for us, and we can use all their tried and tested ways of working.

Below is the link to Burghfield Lighthouse. You can get more details here and sign up to be a volunteer. You will need 2 people to give you a reference (you need to supply names, email and telephone number for them, and tick to say you have their permission). There is a drop down list of things you can volunteer to do, or you can just say anything and there is a box for further details (so you can say what you wouldn't do!) later in the form. Do share and ask friends that might be willing to help out. Lighthouse Burghfield

Burghfield May Fayre – Sunday 10th May

We are always looking for volunteers for the May Fayre and apart from help with shifts in the refreshment tent and providing goodies to eat, we are also looking for help in our Church tent. Did you know that every year we offer 'free crafts & activities' to children in our Church tent? Many of the activities provided at the May Fayre can be quite pricy for families to participate in and we have a wonderful uptake from families who are so appreciative of our efforts.

If you are able to help in any of these time slots, please do get in touch. (10.30-12.30, 12.30- 2.30, 2.30-4pm) Thank you in advance.

Sunday@10 – New Family Service

Starting on Sunday 17th May we will be holding a new interactive Family Service, which will include Singing, Prayer & Teaching in a relaxed welcoming new Service. This Service will take place once a month on the 3rd Sunday of each month.
