

WEDNESDAY
10 JUNE

BLACKBURN WITH DARWEN DEANERY
DAY OF PRAYER & FASTING FOR MISSION

A day to come together in prayer for our deanery.

Pray in your own time and space, or in one of the churches open during the day. Then come together at 7pm at St James Lower Darwen to share in food, fellowship and prayer.

Churches & Chaplaincies open for prayer

list of places open and times

0900 - Morning prayer, 1000 - Eucharist & refreshments, 1400 - Celtic prayer all at St Peter's Darwen

1000-1200 - Reading of St Mark's gospel at St Michael's Blackburn

1030-1200 - Bible study at St Barnabas, Darwen

1245 - silent prayer in the chapel at Blackburn Royal Infirmary (open all day for private prayer)

1300-1500 - Prayer stations at St Gabriel's Blackburn

1300-1500 - Open for prayer at Immanuel Feniscowles

A word about fasting: some will feel called and able to give up all meals for 24 hours. For many of us it will be more appropriate to give up just one meal, eat simply, or give up a specific type of food for the day.

Please do what is right for you, and don't take any medical risks.

7pm at St James Church, Lower Darwen, BB3 0QP
to break fast together with food, fellowship & prayer

← RSVP by 3rd June

Open to all congregation

but please do book to help with catering