August 2026

My dear friends,

The visit of the Bishop of Lewes on July 5th was a moving and memorable occasion and I take this opportunity to thank all those (lay and ordained) who helped to make it so.

At his visit the Bishop mentioned the weight the Vacancy will bring to the Priests, Churchwardens and their deputies and I would add my bidding to his that you remember them, regularly in your prayers.

I hope by now that everyone has heard that the Parish Lunch that was planned to augment the Solemnity of Our Lady's Assumption has been transferred to Sunday September 6th. The menu will be displayed soon and bookings open.

With my love and Blessing,

J. Ince.

S Sixtus II was Bishop of Rome for under a year, 257 –258. He was martyred in the same persecution under the Emperor Valerian along with six of his Deacons on August 6th: a seventh S Lawrence was martyred four days later on the 10th when we still keep his Feast Day. S Sixtus restored relations between the African and Eastern Churches: he is buried in the Catacomb of S Calixtus: he is one of the Patron Saints of Deacons..
