October 2026

Here we are, officially in Autumn, that season of mists and mellow fruitfulness. That time when the apples are ready for harvesting, the leaves are turning from green to beautiful reds and golds, and the wildlife is beginning to make its preparations for Winter.

The seasons come and go, year after year, always the same, and yet always different, depending on what nature has chosen to provide for us. This summer has been exceptional, recorded as the hottest, driest on record in this country. Some have enjoyed the hot sunny days, but I suspect most of us have found it hard going. I know my husband and I have survived by keeping windows and blinds closed and doing the minimum.

But some have not had that luxury. Farmers have struggled to feed their livestock – many having to resort to using supplies which should have been kept against the winter weather, because there is insufficient grass available. Firefighters have been on alert against wildfires on our hillsides and moorlands – most started by chance, but inexplicably, some started deliberately.

In other parts of the world there have been earthquakes and disasters caused by the changing climate – most notably the recent glacial eruption in Nepal and Tibet which has caused so much damage and loss of life. We can't imagine what that must be like and can only pray for the people who have been affected.

It is easy, too easy, to blame all this on "nature", as though some malign fairy has waved a cruel wand and upset the equilibrium of the earth. But these changes have been happening gradually over the years as we have pillaged earth's resources for our own purposes.

When God created the earth and gave us dominion over his creation it was with the expectation that we would care for it and maintain it – that we would replace and replenish what we took out to maintain a healthy balance. Sadly, we haven't done that, and we can only hope that we haven't left it too late to make reparation.

In his sermon on the mount Jesus lays down for us a pattern for life – (Matthew Chapters 5, 6 & 7) these passages all exhort us to put others first and ourselves second; to look outward instead of inward; to be good neighbours and to care for the world in which we are set. We still have it in us to start the fight back to restoring the earth and caring for our environment. It only takes a little effort and a lot of perseverance.

Then, when the meek inherit the earth it will be a place worth gaining.

With Love and Blessings

Ann

WATERFORD & HERTINGFORDBURY WI

NEXT MEETING: Thursday 1st October 7.30pm

Ex police officer Chris Foster will be giving us his talk 'On the Beat in King's Cross'.

We really enjoyed the talk about the saxophone and other instruments last month; there was some beautiful playing and sing alongs, as well as stories of Lisa's experience of taking her sax to many different countries. It was interesting that the instrument was named after the inventor, Belgian Adolphe Sax in the early 1840s. Lisa even redeemed the recorder by playing Mozart beautifully! We also had a group go at playing happy birthday on the handbells.

We're looking forward to trips to Audley End, Buckingham Palace and Hertfordshire Archives, and some of us will be doing courses on a residential weekend in Redbourn.

Visitors welcome. We meet on the first Thursday of every month in Waterford village hall at 7.30pm. Look us up on Facebook.

Knebworth COMMUNITY CHORUS

Singing Handel in Knebworth!

Saturday 17 October 2026

St Martin's Church, Knebworth

Discover the joy of making music with your community at our Let's Sing Together Day in Knebworth. You are warmly invited to join us for a day that promises to be thoroughly enjoyable, uplifting, and friendly. There are no auditions and no pressure—just a welcoming group of people coming together to share in the delight of group singing. It is the perfect opportunity to lift your spirits, meet your neighbours, and experience the powerful sense of connection that only music can bring.

Our focus will be George Frideric Handel's magnificent Four Coronation Anthems, including the famous and exhilarating Zadok the Priest. Originally composed for the coronation of King George II, this music is grand, deeply moving, and an absolute joy to sing. To match the true splendour of Handel's vision, we will be magnificently accompanied by a live pipe organ and trumpets, creating a truly thrilling and resonant sound. After a wonderful day of rehearsing, we will conclude with an informal, free performance at 4:00 pm. Everyone is welcome to come along and listen to the final showcase, so please invite your family, friends, and neighbours to share in the majestic music.

The day will run from 10am to 5pm with breaks (BYO lunch). Tea and cakes will be available at 3.30pm. Derek Harrison, our Musical Director, will lead the day and we will be accompanied by Richard Carr. The cost to take part is £25 and absolutely everyone is welcome, whether or not you've sung with us before. There is also an optional rehearsal on Saturday 11 October in Knebworth

Celebrating our community — and looking to the future

There is something rather special about Waterford. It is a village where people come together, lend a hand and look out for one another. Nowhere is this more evident than at our village events — and our Summer Fete was a wonderful celebration of everything that makes our community so special.

NEW VILLAGE HALL

Looking to the future

As many of you will know, we are continuing our efforts to make a new village hall a reality. Our existing hall has served Waterford wonderfully well over the years but is beginning to show its age. A new hall would provide a welcoming home for our community, bringing people together and helping to keep our village traditions alive for generations to come.

And what better demonstration of the importance of a village hall than this year's Summer Fete?

What a Fete!

This year's Fete was our most successful ever, thanks to the many people who gave their time, energy and enthusiasm to make it happen.

Our own talented musicians, Peter Crossley and Pat Crilly, provided wonderful entertainment throughout the afternoon, while the ever-popular Dog Show once again stole the hearts of the crowd. Lisa from Canine Connections, who kindly sponsored the show again, gave us a fun start and proved that you really can teach an old dog new tricks!

The BBQ was a huge hit, the bar was a sell-out, and our wonderful Women's Institute helped make the Tea Room a great success with their delicious homemade cakes.

There was plenty for our younger visitors too, with the Giant Slide, Hook-A-Duck and many other games keeping them entertained.

A huge thank you to everyone who donated plants, crafts and other items, and to all the volunteers who gave their time so generously. So much happens behind the scenes to make our village events successful, and we could not do it without you.

A community to be proud of

The success of the Fete was about much more than raising money. It showed once again what can be achieved when our village comes together.

Our new village hall is an important part of that future, and every contribution, helping hand and idea brings us a little closer to making it a reality. Together, we can create a lasting home for the Waterford community.

Thank you to everyone who supported the Fete in any way — your generosity and enthusiasm are what make Waterford such a special place.

And, of course, there is plenty more to look forward to!

Successes at Watton Garden and Produce Show

Many people enjoyed the show on Sunday 6th September once again this year.

There were 30 exhibitors and a total of 184 entries, an excellent turnout considering the very dry weather that we have been having.

Winners:

Fruit and Vegetables classes	David Wilkinson
Domestic classes	Sharon Knight
Floral classes	Marion Blacktin
Children's classes	Sophie Smith

'Best in Show' went to Jacob Smith for an amazing marrow. Best entry in the Domestic section went to Mary Wills for a very tasty courgette and lime cake.

The children's colouring competition had some very good entries, the children had obviously spent a lot of time on their presentations. The competition was sponsored by We Move Pilates and Room by Room.

Thank you very much to everyone who entered and those who came along on the afternoon, it was a really successful community event.

Alexandra Abel Smith drew the raffle and presented the prizes at the end; tea and home made cakes were enjoyed by all and there was produce from the allotments for sale.

Many thanks to the judges, Alexandra Abel Smith who presented the prizes, the businesses and individuals who donated raffle prizes and the hardworking committee.

Raffle Prizes were donated by:

Bell Ringing

Watton at Stone

Monday evenings 7pm

All abilities welcome

You've probably heard us quite a lot over the summer along with some visiting bands.

Watton at Stone has 8 bells so we have a full octave that can be rung making us quite popular in the ringing community.

All our ringers have had a great year improving their skills and meeting fellow ringers around the county and wider.

We are incredibly excited to have 4 new ringers this year and we had 3 last year making us a very actively growing band.

And we're one of the few towers who has their own 2 teachers!

Bellringing has a reputation of being a dusty old hobby but that's a terrible misrepresentation. It's a very active hobby, keeping your body and mind strong. And there are so many areas to explore, such as maintenance, teaching, composing, historical revival, team leading, competitions and events. Or just plain ringing. Children from 11+ can ring, so you often meet lots of family ringers.

We have a very friendly fun band always keen to help each other and have a laugh with and we often have a pub visit lined up.

You don't need to attend church and you don't need any experience. If you're curious, email us for a tour or more info

Waterford Nature Notes

Firebugs Pyrrhocoris apterus, not arsonists for whom this is a slang term, have appeared in Goldings Lane. Firebugs live in loose colonies but, unlike for example ants, don't have a social structure. Until the past few years this species was considered rare in Britain with the only known colony being in Cornwall. The range extended from North Africa across France, gradually spreading Northwards, in recent years colonies have been recorded in the Southern counties; it is likely that the Waterford colony is the result of an accidental import, perhaps on a plant or other vegetation. None of my books showed this species so I went to the website www.britishbugs.org.

My Somerset correspondent reports on the Abbotsbury Swans, which continue to be hit by Avian Flu. At the release last year, over two hundred cygnets were ringed but many died over the Winter. This year saw the usual number of cygnets hatch but only about eighty have survived so far. Elsewhere, there are encouraging signs of recovery in colonies of Puffins, with some evidence that this species is building immunity. The news for other colonies such as Gannet and Kittiwake isn't so good with estimates for population recovery being fifteen to twenty years.

Until recently there were signs of a healthy population of Moles in the churchyard, I think I have mentioned before that I believe they spread across High Road to the land around the War Memorial, then under the wall into the churchyard. The familiar molehills have disappeared but I don't believe the Moles have moved out. During the long, dry spell worms, which are the main food of Moles, will have moved deeper underground to where the soil retains some moisture and they can move through it and breathe, the Moles will have also moved deeper both for food and because they too need some dampness to tunnel. Another indication of the absence of worms near the surface is the lack of Blackbirds hunting them with that familiar behaviour of listening with head cocked to one side before hopping across to a potential meal and pecking the ground. I have had several offers of advice on how to dispose of the churchyard population, including introductions to molecatchers, I apologize in advance if our Moles spread to your garden but we manage the churchyard for wildlife, what does it matter if we have to put up with piles of earth?

On a drive through the Hertfordshire countryside I visited Walkern church, along a no through road that crosses River Beane at a ford. When I last visited the church on a walk some seven or eight years ago, the river bed was completely dry, this time, against all the odds, there was a reasonable flow, this must be a testament to the work of River Beane Restoration Association (RBRA), please visit their website and see what you could do to help in this important work. <https://riverbeane.co.uk/>

At the start of the hot, dry weather we were watering our garden, not the grass, just the plants, as time went on and the water shortage became more pronounced, we stopped watering altogether, which resulted in many plants dying but we considered that over 50 litres of water, equivalent to about one of us taking a second shower, every other day, excessive. Come the Spring we will have to look at what has survived and consider what we can plant that will be more resistant to drought, for example our Lavender and Rosemary coped well and attracted huge numbers of bees, hoverflies, butterflies and many sightings of Hummingbird Hawk-Moths.

Stapleford Primary School – Hertfordshire’s Hidden Gem

Nestled in beautiful Hertfordshire countryside, Stapleford Primary School is a welcoming, nurturing and ambitious school where every child is encouraged to flourish. Our vision, “Believe, Nurture, Enlighten,” captures our commitment to helping every child discover their potential, develop confidence and develop a lifelong love of learning.

Our dedicated staff know every child as an individual and work closely with families to ensure that every pupil feels safe, valued and ready to learn. Alongside high-quality teaching, we offer rich experiences that make childhood memorable.

Our incredible Forest School provides children with opportunities to explore, discover and learn in our beautiful rural surroundings. Even at this early stage of the term we are already planning an exciting night hike, our Harvest Festival and our much-loved Nativity performances and Carol Service. We simply can’t wait.

At Stapleford, we are proud of our strong community, our beautiful setting and, most importantly, our wonderful children.

Stapleford Primary School – Hertfordshire’s Hidden Gem.
Believe. Nurture. Enlighten.

For parents seeking a caring, high-achieving village school with exciting opportunities and a warm welcome, Stapleford Primary School is the perfect place for children to flourish.
