FEN DITTON 200 CLUB

The winners of the November draw will be announced in the December / January edition of New Life.

Dear friends,

As I write my first New Life message, I have been amongst you as the new temporary curate for two and a half weeks, and it has been a joy to gradually meet people over the last few weeks. Thank you so much for your welcome, and for including me in your communities so warmly. I hope to continue meeting more of you over the coming weeks – please do say hello if you see me out and about!

As we reach November, the clocks have changed, the nights are drawing in, and we spend more time dwelling in hours of darkness than we have done for quite some months. During this period we enter into a time of remembering – of remembering loved ones we have lost at All Souls, of remembering the losses and tragedy of war at Remembrance, and then preparing for Advent, a season of waiting expectantly for the light in the darkness to arrive.

There will be opportunities to remember loved ones in each of our communities, with A Time to Remember services: on 31st October at 3pm in Horningsea, on 1st November at 3pm in Teversham, and with a Requiem Eucharist on 2nd November at 7.30pm in Fen Ditton. All are welcome to come and light candles or lay flowers and remember those we have loved and lost. If you are unable to attend but would like your loved one's name read out, please do be in touch with me. There will also be services for Remembrance Sunday across the parishes on 8th November: 10am in Fen Ditton, 10.15 in Horningsea, and 10.50am in Teversham.

In the Church, during this time, as always, we continue to remember Jesus' light in the darkness: a light to be able to see by, like a torch shining in the world and lighting the pathway ahead; a light of comfort, like the light of firelight, gently flickering with its warm glow; a light of fiery excitement and inspiration, like a firework fizzing into the night; and a light of hope, like a beacon lit up on the hill, blazing away in the darkness and letting all around know of its hope-filled light.

I hope to see you soon.

Blessings

Advent Study Sessions: Walking with Angels

Join us to reflect on the season of Advent in the build up to Christmas. We will be holding two study sessions – one at the end of November and one in early December - to explore the spiritual practice of prayer walking, based on this year's recommended Advent book Walking with Angels by Eleanor Sanderson. The book is described as encouraging…

"…readers to slow down, step outside, and engage both body and spirit as you journey through the Advent season. Drawing on the words spoken by angels in Scripture, it explores how these messengers of God reveal the good news at the heart of the Christian story."

The sessions will give an opportunity to explore these themes together (no need to buy the book unless you would like to). Look out for details of times and location in the weekly mailout.

Rules

Life, so often governed by rules, do this, don't do that! I thought it would be appropriate to share our policy regarding children in church:

If your kids are loud, please still come to church.

If you're running late because getting everyone out the door was a battle, please still come to church.

If your toddler won't sit still, please still come to church.

If your baby needs to eat, please still come to church.

If your child asks questions at the least convenient time, please still come to church.

If someone cries, drops a toy, needs a snack, or has to make their third trip to the bathroom, please still come to church.

If your child doesn't know all the words, all the prayers, or exactly when to sit and stand, please still come to church.

If you feel like you spent the entire service managing your children and heard approximately 12% of the sermon, please still come to church.

If Sunday morning feels messy instead of peaceful, please still come to church.

If you're worried your children are distracting the people around you, please still come to church.

Because children do not learn how to be part of the Church by staying home until they can sit quietly.

They learn by being here.

They learn the hymns by hearing us sing them.

They learn the prayers by hearing us pray them.

They learn to worship by watching us worship.

They learn that church is home because we make room for them here.

The wiggles, whispers, dropped crayons, crying babies, and little voices are not interruptions to the life of the Church.

They are evidence that the Church is alive.

So bring the babies. Bring the toddlers. Bring the big kids. Come late. Sit in the back. Sit in the front. Step out when you need to and come right back in.

Just come.

Children are not simply the future of the Church. They are part of the Church right now.

Rules 'borrowed' from another Facebook post that I can no longer find…but too good not to share.

Report on the Pet Service at St Peters Horningsea

On Sunday 11 October it was wonderful to have the church fully back in action with the pews in place on the beautiful new floor. We welcomed about 15 dogs, 2 pet chickens and a parrot to join in the celebration! The dogs mostly sat (fairly) quietly in the pews, peeking out to watch what the others were doing. The chickens and parrot behaved perfectly! It was a lovely service as the animals were blessed, we all looked into our animals eyes and thought about unconditional love in the context of God's covenant after the Flood when the rainbow appeared.

Remembrance Day in Horningsea

On Sunday 8 November the Remembrance Day Service will start in the Church at 10.15am and at 10.45am we will walk to the War Memorial in the Jubilee Gardens for the Act of Remembrance, reading the names of those from the village who lost their lives in the two World Wars and laying of wreaths. Hot chocolate, tea and coffee will be on offer in the church.

Fen Ditton Gardening Club,

The first meeting of the gardening club year was the AGM and Social, which took place on Tuesday 13th

October, at Fen Ditton Village Hall. We were happy to welcome past and new members and chatted over wine, cheese, biscuits and delicious homemade chutney.

Amy Cudmore remains Chair of the club, alongside Tony Wieser who continues as Treasurer and Polly Archer as Secretary. The committee shared the highlights of the past gardening club year and informed members of upcoming plans for 2026/27.

Our next speaker meeting will take place on Tuesday 24th November, where we will host Margaret Nimmo Smith, with her talk ‘Making the most of small gardens’.

Margaret Nimmo Smith specialises in Hardy Ferns, and used to be in charge of Fern Propagation at Monksilver Nursery. She is a keen gardener, founder member of both the Plant Heritage and Hardy Plant Society local groups and ran Cambridge U3A Garden Group for 8 years. We look forward to an interactive and informative talk.

We hope to see you there!

Amy Cudmore (Chair)

We always welcome new members.

Members range from those with a passionate interest in gardening and allotment growing, to those who enjoy visiting gardens and coming to listen to our varied and interesting speakers.

We meet monthly (from October-April), on the forth Tuesday of the month and listen to some varied and interesting speakers. The programme changes during the summer months and includes weekend garden visits, a picnic and a plant sale.

Membership is £10 for the year. This can be paid on the night of a meeting by card, cash or BACS. Guest price on the night £3.

Thank you to all the people who have been donating used stamps. I now have a large box of trimmed stamps to take to CamSight. They somehow make money out of them for the charity. Please do continue to collect them, especially with Xmas coming up! Keep the the UK ones separate from the foreign ones and cut them off the envelopes leaving 1cm approx of paper around them.

Thank you SO much for all your help.

Deep clean St Peter's Church Horningsea … and start to prepare candles for the Carol Service

During early November we need to give the Church a good clean and polish after all the building work. If you have a spare couple of hours can you contact one of the churchwardens? We will happily give you a task to do in your own time

At the end of the month we will start to get the candles out ready to decorate the church for the Carol Service on Sunday 13 December. Let us know if you can come and help, we will try to fix a day for a working party!

Besom Christmas Hampers

It's that time of year again! Season of cheer – and opportunities to share, especially with those locally for whom it will be a less cheerful time. As ever, our local Besom has been busy this year. There have been requests for household furniture, curtains, white goods etc which have been met through donated items (thank you!), for help with decorating, garden/jungle clearance and much more for those referred to Besom locally by social services. As usual Besom would like to arrange a Christmas hamper for the clients they have helped this year, and have provided a shopping list which is also in this month's edition of New Life. If you would like to donate items on the list, please bring them to your church. The churchwardens will put a box in each church for donations, which will be collected on Sunday 22nd November from Fen Ditton and Teversham, and also from Horningsea on Advent Sunday, 29th November. We'll then get them to Besom for packing and delivering that week. If you'd like to get involved in transporting/packing up offers of help are welcome and please let Jennie Pratt know.

Thank you for your support this year and, in advance, for your kindness in contributing to the hampers.

Real Advent Calendars

Would you like to give a child (or adult!) you know a chocolate every day through Advent plus the Christmas story? Or would you like to donate them to the Food Bank or Besom? We have 36 Real Advent Calendars from the Meaningful Chocolate Company complete with delightful illustrated story book, available throughout November at £5 each from Jennie Pratt.

All Saints

At the beginning of this month, we celebrate ‘All Saints’ (1st November), when we remember all those heroes of the faith who have in one way or another been a witness to Christ in what they said and what they did. But sometimes the saints of old- those portrayed in Renaissance pictures or in craggy, oversized sculptures- can matter less to us than the saints we have personally known.

For instance, one minister tells of a good friend of his, Stan, a farmer on the Yorkshire Wolds, who died earlier this year. Stan was the sort of man you’d meet at the mart, or stop to have a chat with in the village. He always had time for you. You’d go away thinking ‘salt of the earth’, and you would be right.

But Stan was much deeper than that. He was a devout Christian, with a simple but profound faith, used by God in many situations that never made the public eye. His farm had a Site of Special Scientific Interest in that it captured many of the unique features of the Wolds. He was a knowledgeable plantsman, although you would have to drag it out of him. In his day he had taken Bibles to Soviet-era Ukraine and Romania, and received the thanks of Christians there who were so encouraged that they were not alone, that someone cared, made the effort to bring them the Word of God.

So Stan, although a quiet family man living on a fairly remote farm, had had a profound influence for God and for good in many people’s lives, both in the area – and in Ukraine and Romania.

And there have been multitudes like him. This month, are there folk in your life who have been an influence on you for God and for good? What difference did they make to you?

All Saints-tide is the ideal opportunity to give thanks for them. They are life's unsung heroes, who help others steer a path closer to God by their wise words, or their support, their prayers. The impact of a good life on others can be enormous. For all of them, let's thank God.

By the Revd Roy Shaw, a retired but active priest in the diocese of York, where he is a spiritual director.
