

St Edmund and St Barnabas Stoulton with Drakes Broughton

The Parochial Church Council (PCC) of Stoulton with Drakes Broughton

DATA PRIVACY NOTICE

1. Your personal data – what is it?

Personal data relates to a living individual who can be identified from that data. Identification can be by the information alone or in conjunction with any other information in the data controller's possession or likely to come into their possession. The processing of personal data is governed by the General Data Protection Regulation (the "GDPR").

2. Who is the Data Controller?

The PCC of Stoulton with Drakes Broughton acts as the data controller (contact details below). This means it decides how your personal data is processed and for what purposes.

3. How do we process your personal data?

The PCC of Stoulton with Drakes Broughton complies with its obligations under the GDPR by keeping personal data up to date; by storing and destroying it securely; by not collecting or retaining excessive amounts of data; by protecting personal data from loss, misuse, unauthorised access and disclosure and by ensuring that appropriate technical measures are in place to protect personal data.

We use your personal data for the following purposes: -

- To enable us to provide a voluntary service for the benefit of the public in a particular geographical area as specified in our constitution;
- To administer membership records;
- To fundraise and promote the interests of the churches of St Edmund & St Barnabas;
- To manage our volunteers;
- To maintain our own accounts and records (including the processing of gift aid applications and planned giving);
- To inform you of news, events, activities and services running at St Edmund & St Barnabas;
- To share your contact details with the (Worcester) Diocesan office so they can keep you informed about news in the Diocese and events, activities and services that will be occurring in the Diocese and in which you may be interested;
- To operate a Parish website in the future and deliver the services that individuals have requested including social media.

4. What is the legal basis for processing your personal data?

- Explicit consent of the data subject so that we can keep you informed about news, events, activities and services, process your gift aid donations and keep you informed about diocesan events.
- Processing is necessary for carrying out our obligations under Safeguarding regulations
- Processing is carried out by a not-for-profit body with a religious aim and
 - the processing relates only to members or former members (or those who have regular contact with it in connection with those purposes); and
 - there is no disclosure to a third party without consent.

5. Sharing your personal data

Your personal data will be treated as strictly confidential and will only be shared with other members of the church in order to benefit church members or for purposes connected with the church. We will only share your data with third parties outside of the parish with your consent.

6. How long do we keep your personal data?

We keep data in accordance with the guidance set out in the guide “Keep or Bin: Care of Your Parish Records” which can be downloaded from the Church of England or Lambeth Palace Library websites at –

<http://www.lambethpalacelibrary.org/content/recordsmanagement>

Specifically, we retain electoral roll data while it is still current; gift aid declarations and associated paperwork for 6 years after the last donation to which they relate; and parish registers (baptisms, marriages, funerals) permanently.

7. Your rights and your personal data

Unless subject to an exemption under the GDPR, you have the following rights with respect to your personal data: -

- the right to request a copy of your personal data which the PCC of Stoulton with Drakes Broughton holds about you;
- the right to request that the PCC of Stoulton with Drakes Broughton corrects any personal data if it is found to be inaccurate or out of date;
