

A Message from the Vicar:

Welcome to Heslington Church – the "Parish Church" of the York University campus area. As such we draw together a worshipping community of students and academics, together with local people from Heslington Village, Badger Hill, and further afield.

Because we are an ecumenical congregation - a partnership between the Church of England and the Methodist Church - we are able to draw in many others from different denominations too. So if you are seeking a local Christian community that integrates young and old, university people, those born here and those who have made York their permanent home, then that is what we aspire to be.

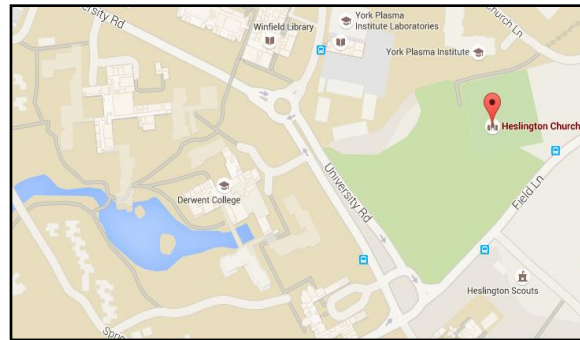

Generations of students have found here a place of belonging not because they want to meet more people just like themselves, but because they care about all their neighbours and believe it's important to rub shoulders with believers of different traditions and outlooks.

Bless you for reading this. We pray that God will bless your time in York in every way.

Heslington Church

All are welcome

INFORMATION FOR STUDENTS

Heslington Church (Hes) is an ecumenical partnership between the Church of England and the Methodist Church, and is the closest Church to the University of York. We seek to be an open, caring and inclusive church and everyone is welcome to worship with us.

Sunday Morning Worship: 10am

Korean Language Service: 2pm

Thursday Morning Communion: 9:15am

Who we are:

Heslington Church is a local ecumenical partnership between the Church of England and the Methodist Church. All services of worship are held jointly between Anglicans and Methodists.

We're a small, close student community based in a local parish church so it gives you a chance to meet non-students and can be a bit like home. Our congregation is an eclectic mix of ages, backgrounds and nationalities. This makes Hes a very special church to be part of: local residents and students from all over the world and different traditions come together to worship and explore our faith.

Over the past year we've had 3 student led services, a family fun day for children and parents in our parish, a games evening, a beetle drive and a bring and share lunch for everyone in the congregation.

You'll also usually find a group of students (plus one or two others, including clergy) enjoying some food in the pub near the church after the Sunday morning service.

We've found Hes to be a very diverse, friendly and welcoming place, and hope you do too!

What's on at Hes:

Music

We're always looking for people with musical talent, whether singing or instrumental, to take part in Sunday services. Have a word with Anne Mott if you'd like to be involved.

Children

Helpers and leaders for the children's club and Messy Church are always welcome. Speak to Bob Cummings if you are interested.

Prayer Group

The Prayer Group meets fortnightly on a Tuesday morning at 10am in Heslington Court Community Room. We pray for the Church and its members as well as issues around the world.

Christian Meditation Group

The World Community for Christian Meditation meets each Friday at 10:30am in the Church Library.

Home Groups

Various home groups meet during the year. These meetings offer plenty of opportunity for questions, discussion, prayer and fellowship.

We have a diverse range of activities at Hes to cater for all walks of life, but if you don't see something for you then why not start something new!

University Chaplaincy:

Rev John Schofield is the Methodist Minister at Heslington Church and the Methodist Chaplain to the University of York. Rev Catherine Reid is the Anglican Chaplain, based in the Chaplaincy Office on Campus West as well as leading services at Heslington and St Lawrence Churches. Fr. Kevin Melody is the RC chaplain. The chaplaincy team work together ecumenically for members of all faiths and none.

You can find out more about their activities on the Chaplaincy website, where you can also sign up to the Chaplaincy email for weekly information about events:
