FROM THE VICAR

Whoever takes the Son gets it all.

I was pleased to rediscover this story recently. I hope you like it.

It's the story of a wealthy widower and his son who shared a passion for collecting art. They travelled the world together, adding only the finest articles to their collection. Priceless works by Picasso, Van Gogh, Monet and a host of others adorned the walls of their large country house. The father was filled with satisfaction as his son became an experienced collector in his own right.

But then the country found itself at war and the son entered military service. A few months later the father received the terrible news that his son had been killed rescuing another soldier.

One day not too long after that there was a knock at his door and there on his doorstep was a soldier with a large package in his hand. He introduced himself. "I was a friend of your son. I was the one he was rescuing when he died. May I come in for a few minutes? I have something I want to show you."

Sitting in the house he said to the father, "Your son was fascinated by art. I'm something of an artist myself, and I wanted you to have this. I know it isn't much. I'm not really a great artist, but I think your son would have wanted you to have this."

LECTIONARY

Esther 7:1-6, 9, 10, 9:20-22

Psalm 124

James 5:13-end

Mark 9:38-end

It was a painting of the man's son - not a work of genius, but a good likeness. It brought tears to the father's eyes and he promised the soldier that he would give it pride of place in his house. As soon as the young man had gone he took down from above the fireplace a painting that was worth a fortune and replaced it with the painting of his son.

Months later the old man died. He had no heir and his art collection was to be auctioned off. The day arrived and art dealers from all over the world arrived to bid for some of his marvellous paintings.

But the first painting to be auctioned was not in the catalogue, a simple portrait of a young soldier, the old man's son.

The auctioneer asked for an opening bid: "Who will open the bidding - a hundred dollars anyone?" A voice in the back of the room shouted. "We want to see the famous paintings. Skip this one." But the auctioneer persisted. "Will someone bid for this painting? Who will start the bidding? $100, $200?" Another voice shouted angrily. "We didn't come to see this painting. We came to see the Van Goghs, the Rembrandts. Get on with the real bids!" But still the auctioneer continued. "The son! The son! Who'll take the son?"

Finally a local man, a neighbour, said, "Will you take ten dollars? I knew the boy. I'd like to have it. I can't afford any more." No-one added any more bids; it was sold to the neighbour and the room and the crowd was eager to begin the 'real' sale. But the auctioneer announced that the sale was over. The shocked crowd demanded to know what was going on.

The auctioneer replied "It's very simple. According to the will of the father, whoever takes the son...gets it all.

Now there is the eternal Christian reality, sealed in blood, suffering and then triumph, that whoever takes the Son...gets it all!

ANGER

It is easy to get angry: anyone can do it. But to be angry with the right person, to the right extent, at the right time, with the right purpose and in the right way, - that is not easy, and not everyone can do it. (Aristotle)

"Be angry but do not sin; do not let the sun go down on your anger, and do not make room for the devil."
(St Paul)

SERVICE ROTA

We're now in the third week of a route heading towards normality. We have more than doubled the number of services in the benefice on a Sunday, but this is considerably more challenging than you might expect and I'm grateful to the Wardens' and Reps Group for their input. There will be more changes.

MIDWEEK COMMUNION

The intention is to have a simple midweek communion as well. Tentative arrangements can't be brought to reality though and we'll have to think again. More news when we have it.

CRE stands for Christian Resources Exhibition. It's basically a big Christian trade fair, with about 170 stalls - everything from Christian books to fair trade coffee, from church furniture to church accountancy, sound systems to Sunday school materials, architects to Christian charities.

There are also seminars.

- The art of storytelling
- Digital giving and the hybrid church
- Webstreaming and Sunday services
- Fundraising for capital projects
- Home groups conference (essential to prebook)
- Family Bible engagement
- Jeff Lucas speaks on the Book of Daniel

CRE in October is at Sandown Park Racecourse in Esher, Surrey, so it's about two and a half hours to drive. I am going on Wednesday 13th October and I will have room for 4 people to accompany me.

We set out not later than 7.30am and we'll get home by about 7.00pm, so it'll be a long day.

I can't emphasize too strongly that this is a must see event for all involved in Christian leadership, and that includes wardens, treasurers and worship leaders.

The cost is £3 each if we get three or more, bookable in advance. We can of course take more than one car. Please will you tell me quickly if you want to go so we can get booking done in good time.

LIGHT BITES

For anyone who hasn't tumbled to it yet, a Light Bite is a home produced 'event' of about 20 minutes on You Tube. It will consist usually of an introduction, a bible reading, a talk a hymn and a blessing. They are supposed to TEACH you something about your faith or challenge you.

LIGHT BITE THEMES

Our Christian learning is never complete and there are always some awkward questions we don't like to be asked. This month we'll be dealing with some of those. By all means give me an awkward topic to deal with.

THIS WEEK'S LIGHT BITE

Everyone knows that Jesus was a good preacher and a wise teacher, but why try to turn him into the Son of God too? This week the talk is about the Resurrection.

RON TUBB LATEST

I rang Diana on Thursday. She has had a bad week. Ron is still in intensive care. They have described him as critically ill, and have warned Diana that he is in some danger. He is very weak and barely conscious.

The original hip infection is ok though, so that is not dragging him down. This problem is I think about the kidneys. He really needs to get enough nourishment to gain strength. The staff have said that getting him better may take months.

So please continue to pray.

ROSIE SHEPHERD LATEST

As you know, Rosie is in the Ross Community hospital having broken her hip two or three weeks ago.

The good news is that that all being well she will be coming home on Monday and then there will be a convalescence period.

Keep them in your prayers. Don't forget that they are settling into a new house, and that will bring its challenges.

IVOR TRAPP

Ivor Trapp had another fall this week, and ended up in hospital briefly. Please do commit him to prayer.

THE BORDER NEWS

With the easing of the lockdown we are now in a position to start thinking about what we do with the Border News. Do we return to a paper copy, or do we keep it online? Do we keep its format as now, or do we develop it?

Your views are invited.

Churchwardens/PCC Chairmen have all been sent a questionnaire and have been asked to consult. Do get involved.

A meeting is in the offing.

Gracious God,
you call us to fullness of life:
deliver us from unbelief
and banish our anxieties

NEWS THIS WEEK

Cancel Culture and Oxford University

On Wednesday Worcester College Oxford issued an apology—for hosting a Wilberforce Academy Christian event which has been held at Oxford Colleges annually for more than a decade. The event is a week-long course aimed at Christian young people and is a crash course in Christian worldview.

It seems that there were complaints from students not attending the event that the event was Islamophobic as it included a discussion on the nature of Islam and also one or more speakers were said to be in favour of conversion therapy (a number of techniques to help people who want to to lose their homosexual orientation).

There are big questions here about freedom of speech and so called 'cancel culture.'

When to abort

This week Heidi Crowter, who has Downs Syndrome, lost in a High Court challenge to the law which allows abortion for Downs' Syndrome all the way up to birth. She argued that current rules are discriminatory and do not respect her life.

Cases like this are important. Quite apart from anything else they beg the question of the value of life and the right to life. The Roman Catholic Church, of course, is against abortion in all cases. The Church of England broadly speaking disagrees with it.

THE REAL ADVENT CALENDAR

The Real Advent Calendar is a Fairtrade chocolate Advent Calendar which comes with the telling of the Bible's story of that first Christmas.

You used to be able to get it at Tesco, but you can't this year.

Please do make a firm decision - that any cards or Advent Calendars which you send this Christmas will make reference to the birth of Jesus. Insist on it, and be prepared to go to more than one shop. Don't be afraid to ask.

Please also consider ordering the Real Advent Calendar online through the Meaningful Chocolate Company. You'll find it on <https://meaningfulchocolate.co.uk/> . There are various organisations which sell this product.

Remember that this is a secular society, and if we don't draw attention to the message of the birth of Christ, no-one else will.

Three months to go, so you have plenty of time to do this.

PARISH GIVING SCHEME

We are pushing the Parish Giving Scheme because it is the best way of giving to your Church, not just because of how little hassle it is to you, but also because of how safe and tax efficient it is, how easy it is for treasurers to administer and how it usually does actually drive the income of churches up. And GOOD NEWS—you don't even have to fill in a form. You can set it up by phone. By all means ring your church treasurer for details and fill in a form, or call the number below.
