Reflections for Sundays has nourished thousands of Christians for a decade with its inspiring and informed weekday Bible reflections.

Now, in response to demand, Reflections for Sundays combines material from over the years with new writing to provide high-quality reflections on the Principal Readings for Sundays and major Holy Days.

Contributors include some of the very best writers from across the Anglican tradition who have helped to establish it as one of the leading daily devotional volumes today.

For each Sunday and major Holy Day in Year C, Reflections for Sundays offers: full lectionary details for the Principle Service, a reflection on the Old Testament reading, a reflection on the Epistle, a reflection on the Gospel

It also contains a substantial introduction to the Gospel of Luke, written by renowned Bible teacher Paula Gooder.

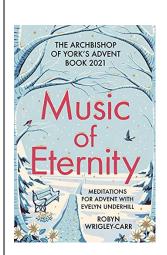

Reflections for Advent is a seasonal extract from the main 2021-22 annual volume(shown above) and is designed to give new readers a taste of the high standard of spiritual and theological writing that makes Reflections so popular.

A first-class line up of writers provides a quality, yet inexpensive daily devotional companion throughout Advent - a season that is increasingly important in popular devotion.

Each day includes: Full lectionary details for Morning Prayer, A reflection on one of the Bible readings, A Collect for the day

It also includes simple forms of Morning and Night Prayer, an introduction to Advent by Libby Lane, and guides to prayer and Bible reading by Rachel Treweek and Stephen Cottrell.

Spiritual writer Evelyn Underhill believed that God does not just come to us at special times, but is always coming to us. But how do we recognise his coming and make ourselves open to it?

In Music of Eternity, the Archbishop of York's Advent Book 2021, Robyn Wrigley-Carr shares a series of meditations exploring the nature God's comings. Skilfully weaving together Underhill's writings with the psalms and short prayers, she shows how, as Christians, we can embrace God's coming and be transformed by them in order to better love others.

Full of rich warmth and encouragement, these Christian meditations will help you make the most of the Advent season and more able to connect with God at all times.

Set out in four parts to take you through Advent and with questions for reflection, the Archbishop of York's Advent book can be used as a study for individuals or small groups to prepare for Christmas.

Tom Wright's guide to Luke, which includes a wealth of information and background detail, provides real insights for our understanding of the story of Jesus and its implications for the reader. His clear style is accessible to new readers of the Bible, as well as to those who are further on. His exciting new translation brings to life, passage by passage, the immediacy and drama of Luke's gospel.
