October 2022

Dean's Ordination

Our curate, Dean, will be ordained as a Deacon at Wells Cathedral on Sunday 1st October at 10.30am. You are very welcome to attend. Please be at the Cathedral by 9.30am in order to get a reasonable seat.

Dean will become Rev Dean! He will be a Deacon until next summer when he will be ordained again - this time as a Priest. He will then be able to preside at Holy Communion Services.

Our service at Holy Trinity on 2nd October will be taken by our friend, Rev David Barge.

Words of wisdom from the curate!

Humility:

The story is told of the famous boxer Muhammad Ali, who was flying one time to an engagement. The aircraft ran into severe turbulence and was soon being shaken violently. The passengers were all instructed to fasten their seat belts straight away. Everyone complied except Ali. Noticing this, a stewardess approached him and asked him to fasten his belt. Ali replied, "Superman don't need no seat belt." The stewardess took one look at him and retorted "Superman don't need no aeroplane either!" So, please remember we are not Superman, and we all need seatbelts and humility.

If you would like the name of a loved one to be read out, write their name on the sheet in HT church or let Rev Will know.

Luke Jerram's Gaia is on its way to Wells Cathedral this autumn

Gaia is a touring artwork by UK artist Luke Jerram. Measuring seven metres in diameter, it is created from detailed NASA imagery of the Earth's surface. Centred around this inspiring artwork, Wells Cathedral's 'Stewards of the Earth' project will encourage everyone to reflect on their impact on the planet and to learn how each of us can care for it.

The art work will be in Wells 11 October - 10 November.
