JUNE 2023 No. 545

From the Curate:

‘A man that looks on glasse, / On it may stay his eye; / Or, if he pleaseth, through it passe, / And then the heav’n espie’

When George Herbert wrote these words, he had in mind the stained glass of many country churches in his day. The tumults of the Reformation had changed the character of parish worship, yet the vivid images of saints and martyrs etched into church windows were often retained. Such images were more than pleasing adornment: they enacted a visual transformation in paraphrase of the soul. As the light behind them shifted, grew bright, and dimmed with the passage of day and season, so the figures they depicted came alive, and seemed to play out their hallowed story. And what the lively, ambulant glory of stained glass manifested, was a new way of seeing: beyond the images themselves, the mind was brought to rest upon their mysterious illumination. Through the stories they depicted came the dawning awareness of the radiance of God. ‘For with Thee is the fountain of life’, says the psalmist, and ‘in Thy light shall we see light’. Herbert agrees, but points us in the opposite direction: look at the vivid glory of holy lives, he says, and through them discern the unfailing constancy of God. ‘Teach me, my God and King, in all things Thee to see...’

Well, that isn’t easy. God may be constant, after all, but mortal life is full of change and chance. The stained glass which sparked Herbert’s verse soon enough sparked the ire of Puritan iconoclasts, who smashed and slashed the images they regarded as idolatrous, guilty of trading the infinite glory of the unseen God for the corruptible worth of material craft. In the seventeenth century, East Anglia bore the brunt of furious destruction at the hands of those who sought drastic reform. What on earth did they prove? Perhaps only that religion is at its worst when it acts, out of its own fears and suspicions, with brutality and a desire to coerce. Mercifully, even amidst untold carnage, much survived.

Yet even if our parish churches now contain, in the most part, clear glass, Herbert’s poem retains its power, for it gestures towards something far more fundamental: namely, human lives, transfigured by the love of God, blazing with divine radiance in the quiet, ordinary rhythms of life. ‘All may of Thee partake: / Nothing can be so mean / Which with his tincture—“for Thy sake”— / Will not grow bright and clean.’ Herbert is so convincing, so persuasive, because he is so clearly in love with God in the lives of the folk he serves as a priest. God, for Herbert, is invisible. Yet God has a face, too: the face of Christ played out in the love and kindness of ordinary souls.

Recently, I sat watching the light change in one of our churches, contemplating the blessing and privilege of my time here as your Curate. I face the future with great excitement, as I face my leaving here with terrible heartache. But mostly there abides in me a profound gratitude, that through your love, kindness, generosity and faithful joy, I have so many times the heav'n espied. Thank you.

The Rev'd Taylor Wilton-Morgan

Coffee Morning

Thank you to all those who supported the Coffee Morning on 13th May. There were many competing events that Saturday following the Coronation event the week before, so we expected that numbers might be lower than usual, which they were. However we were delighted with the £165.75 raised.

Our next Coffee Morning will be on Saturday 10th June at 10.00 - 12.00. This is due to the Three River Race the weekend before (on the 3rd, 11.00 from the Sailing Club). You'll be able to view the start of the race from Swan Green, or St Benet's Green. About 100 boats are entered for this annual 24 hour race this year, so the start (at 5 - 10 minute intervals for each class) should make a splendid spectacle.

Tuesday 27th June
Tuesday 25th July
Tuesday 29th August

Health matters – At a recent gathering of the Horning Hub Cosy Café the conversation turned to health matters and screening programmes. We hope that the following information may prove helpful.

Breast Screening 71 or over? You can still have breast screening if you choose – Women at this age are still at risk of breast cancer. If you want to continue routine screening once every three years, all you need to do is call 01603 287777 or visit norwichbreastscreening@nnuh.nhs.uk.

If you know your reference number (e.g., from a previous letter?), please have it handy or quote it in an email.

If you move away from the area, you can find details of your local unit at www.nhs.uk/breastscreening.

Bowel Cancer Screening – Aged over 74? You can request a screening kit every 2 years – All you need to do is to contact the bowel screening programme on 0800 707 6060.

British Red Cross First Aid – A British Red Cross First Aid training event took place at a session of the Cosy Café in April, this proved to be very useful and informative to all those attending. Another event will take place soon. However, another avenue for First Aid training is via an App. The British Red Cross First Aid training apps will equip you with simple First Aid skills to use during emergencies. Anyone interested in finding out more about First Aid Apps and the many other services provided by the British Red Cross please visit their website: <https://www.redcross.org.uk> › first-aid › first-aid-apps

The Preston Rooms

With the Preston Rooms decorated with bunting, flags and crowns and tables set 'street party style' all we had to do was wait for everyone to arrive for our village Coronation Tea. Soon the hall was filled, and we were all enjoying a savoury buffet followed by cakes, scones with jam and clotted cream and Coronation Trifle. A hamper was won in the raffle by Mr and Mrs Friend and a lovely afternoon was had by all. It was a great way for us, as a village to celebrate the Coronation of King Charles.

Thanks must go to Molly, of Molly Makes and Cakes for all the wonderful baking she did. The cakes and scones were delicious. Also thank you to everyone who came along and supported the event. The date for the Potato Weigh In is Thursday 10th August, 7pm at the Preston Rooms. With a bit of luck we will be outside in the early evening sunshine. Reports coming in are that the potatoes are growing very well, so perhaps last year's crop record of 5lbs 15oz will be broken. With the weather how it is, we will just have to wait and see!

Sue Watts, Secretary

Horning Football Club have gone from strength to strength the past year, with their achievements this season, proving their top form! Horning FC finished league runners up in their first season playing in the North East Norfolk league, earning a well deserved promotion to Division one, also reaching their first league cup final Vs Fleggburgh which was played on Saturday 13th May at Hickling!

Horning FC have gained themselves quite the fan club, who have become known as 'Horning FC West End', providing a fan base for all home and most away games! New supporters are always welcome and the songs are easy to pick up along the way!

Pre season starts again in August, when Horning FC will have a game every Saturday, further details can be found on the official Facebook and Twitter (@HorningFC) pages nearer the time.

Horning FC along with their manager, Ollie Butler, would like to give a huge thank you to the club sponsor, Herbert Woods.

Horning Coronation Weekend

A splendid Coronation Celebration in Horning! On Friday evening a beautiful service in Horning Church, all the hymns we know and love, the choir in fine voice, followed by Pimms & delicious Canapés enjoyed.

Fizz and an amazing array of cakes welcomed us to the village hall on Saturday evening, so much temptation and happy chatter. On Sunday the weather was kind, families and friends gathered for picnics by the river, lots of fun for children, Johnny Walker and friends filled the air with music, then the grand finale a flotilla of over 38 boats sailing from Horning Sailing Club to the Ferry Inn, the River Green packed with well wishers, clapping and cheering, brilliant!

A huge thank you from the Harber family, we enjoyed every minute!

Diane

I've heard and seen, good things about the Coronation weekend in Horning. Much of this was organised and set up by the Horning Hub with the help of others!

Sally

A big thank you to all who generously baked cakes for our village coronation celebrations. The selection was amazing and greatly enjoyed by all who came to the events

Trish

The exceedingly wet weather did not deter the 80 - 90 people who attended the first of the Coronation events on the Friday before the Coronation itself. We all contributed to the enthusiastic singing of 10 well-known hymns led by our village pop-up choir who had been practising well. And this was followed by some delicious canapes and Pimm's. A big thank you to the choir and to Peter Boshier the organist who treated us with some stirring organ voluntaries as well, to those who made the canapes and to everyone who came and did not let the "rain before reign" dampen their spirits.

News from Ashmanhaugh & Barton Wanderers CC

The 2023 season has got off to a cracking start, despite the weather causing the groundmen extra work!

The first weekend of league fixtures saw both our 1st XI, 2nd XI & Sunday XI come away with convincing wins and the 3rd XI narrowly losing out to Blundeston & Somerleyton CC

The first week of May saw our U13's have a huge win at Ashmanhaugh against Winterton (4 wickets taken by Alfie P) followed by wins for the 1st & 2nd XI. Unfortunately the 3rd XI had their match cancelled but for the first time in many years we fielded a 4th XI (featuring many of our older juniors on senior debut) who also came away with a win.

The future of the club is in very safe hands given the display shown by these youngsters.

We are also delighted to say, after entering the Voneous Village Cup for the first time we are now through to round 3 after winning the first 2 matches!

As a club are very lucky to be growing in numbers all the time and to receive such amazing support from spectators, volunteers and local businesses who choose to sponsor our club financially. We are extremely fortunate and very grateful to you all.

Please take a look at our social media & livestreamed matches or pick up a club handbook and support the local businesses who do so much for us!

Training continues and new members are always welcome

Training at Barton Turf

- 3rd & 2nd XI training every Tuesday 5.30pm
- 1st XI training every Thursday 6pm
- Juniors (9-16 years) training every Friday 6pm

All Stars Cricket (ages 5-8) has now SOLD OUT

Friday junior sessions are family friendly and we usually have the bbq fired up as well as our licensed bar for you to enjoy. Come along and see what you think, no need to pre-book.

Or join us on a match day and take advantage of the beautiful surroundings, have a drink & become a social member.

Details of matches can be found on our social media pages and website www.aandbw.play-cricket.com

Horning Get Together Club – Social Group for the over Fifties –

At our meeting on May 9th we were entertained once again by Bunty Gotts. She is a remarkable speaker with no notes but just a very good knowledge of Blickling Hall. Her topic this time was the 1930's guest list with people like the Astors and Prime minister Baldwin visiting. We could all have listened to her for another hour. Nine of us paid a visit to Fairhaven Water Gardens on the 16th May. Nice lunch but the gardens themselves were very disappointing with a lot of dead wood and nettles.

Our next meeting is on June 13th where we will be entertained by TIMESCAPE, a singing duet with songs from the musicals. We meet at 2:15 in Horning village hall. New members are always welcome.

June at the Museum of the Broads

If you enjoy searching stalls for a bargain, want items for boats and fishing or just fancy an interesting morning out, our popular Boat and Fishing Jumble Sale returns on Sunday 04 June 0930 to 1230. Entry is £1 on the gate and stall holders can pre-book online or by phone. See our website for full details. The Museum will open late that day, at 1300.

June is a perfect time for local people to bring family and friends to the Museum of the Broads at the historic Stalham Staithe. The weather's good and it's generally a bit quieter before the summer holiday rush! We have activities, new displays, and special exhibitions on wind power and the artist, Philippa Miller. Bring a picnic and make a day of it by the river.

Our steamboat, Falcon, is running 2 days a week, and finally, our accessible electric boat, Marsh Harrier, should be joining her again in June. Dogs are welcome, and remember, all 12s and under visit the Museum for free in 2023!

We look forward to welcoming you to the Museum soon!

Horning and District Flower Club

At our meeting on May 15th we were entertained by Brenda Tubb, another talented local demonstrator. Her subject was "Weddings, Weddings, Weddings" and rather than doing arrangement suitable for weddings, she produced an array of beautiful colourful arrangements for various locations. To accompany these she talked about various weddings she had participated in as a flower arranger, together with some very amusing stories.

Our next meeting is on June 12 when the demonstrator will be Jennie Baker, who is also the Chairman of the Norwich Group of NAFAS. Her topic is "Here we go again". The members competition title is "A Seaside Outing".

There will no meeting at Horning Village Hall in July and August, but meetings will recommence in September.

Further information available from Carole, telephone 01692 536270.

Turf and District WI

Our May meeting was one of celebration for the coronation, even though it seemed a while ago now. Members wore red, white and blue and, as well as our usual Jerusalem song, sang the National Anthem and raised a glass of bubbles in a royal toast. Our guest speaker, Cheryl Cade, talked about taste and how to appreciate cheese. She shared some unusual ideas of what to eat alongside it, as well as what to drink with it. Members were very keen to try blue cheese with chocolate orange washed down with Prosecco!!

Seventeen members enjoyed the walk around Horning for ACWW raising £36 and organised by Trish Percival. Our next walk will be in June and will be around Norwich.

Members are also looking forward to various trips out. Hoveton Hall, Peter Beales roses and the Circus in Great Yarmouth.

Our competition this month was for a decorated bag. So many lovely ones to choose from but Elaine Burnett's was outstanding and took first prize.

Next month will be our summer lunch so we start our meeting at 1.30pm. Another lovely afternoon awaits.
