From the Assistant Bishop

Do you use Wikipedia? It's often a very convenient place to look for information when we want to know more about something or about a person. But, perhaps, like me you've discovered its limitations. As you might anticipate from a free online encyclopaedia to which anyone can contribute and is open to anyone to edit it is both impressively collaborative and also sometimes incomplete or less than fully accurate. Nevertheless, it remains for me – and perhaps you? – a go-to source of quick information.

So, I wasn't surprised when I consulted Wikipedia's

'August

anniversaries' to find it is less than comprehensive about the Christian calendar this month. St Bartholomew's Day is recorded on 24th August – alongside Ukraine Independence Day which surely also deserves marking. Bartholomew (usually identified as Nathanael, one of the twelve disciples of Jesus) isn't generally well celebrated on his festival day, except in places where he's the patron saint of the parish and church, such as Crewkerne where the annual charter fair remembers their link with St Bart. Even so their fair has been moved into September after the end of the holiday season.

August frequently means reduced activity, and fewer events. If that's an opportunity for catching our breath and taking a break from the challenges of deadlines and expectations, then all well and good. But let's not forget, despite them being omitted from the Wikipedia list, the other red-letter August days in the calendar. On 15th August we honour the Blessed Virgin Mary, mother of our Lord Jesus, and on the 6th August, we mark the glorious Transfiguration

of our Lord. That

festival day recalls

how Peter, James

and John

experienced on a mountain top the

transformation of Jesus' physical appearance, enabling them to glimpse the glory of his divinity.

Make the most of these three significant festival days in August. As well, don't forget the other significant days this month, such as Ukraine Independence Day (24th), VJ day (15th) marking the end of World War 2, and – another date missed in the Wikipedia list – the 80th anniversary of the dropping of the first atomic bomb on Hiroshima. Saints' days and anniversaries are significant prompts to our prayers.

From one of our Readers

This month's article is written by Christy Casley, one of the Readers in the Vale of Camelot Churches.

At this time of the year, many of us are either travelling or contemplating travelling, even if only for a day here and there. My thoughts turned to St Christopher, as many people like to wear a pendant depicting him bearing Christ across the river, some touching it in prayer or for luck, to petition for a safe journey. Cars, bikes and lorries also often have a medallion or a statuette to signify protection from the perils of the road.

So, I began to do a little research and found that the name Christopher comes from the Greek 'Christophorus' and really does mean 'Christ Bearer'. However, what I did not before realise, was that, after he reputedly carried the Christ child, heavy as lead, across the river and received the accolade 'I am Christ your king, whom you are serving by this work', he travelled to Lycia and comforted Christians who were being martyred for their faith. The ruler tried to stop him, by tempting him with riches and eventually two beautiful women. The story goes that Christopher converted the women to Christianity, in the same way he had already converted thousands of others in that city. The ruler ordered Christopher to be killed.

There are many, many stories about St Christopher throughout the world and in many cultures. There are more wall paintings in England of St Christopher than of any other saint. So, he has captured the minds and hearts of people travelling anywhere.

However, I would like to focus on the story of him bringing the news of Jesus Christ to many thousands. Becoming a Christian and developing our faith as a Christian is a journey in itself and perhaps, we could best think of St Christopher in this way: our life journey is to remember that Christ bears the weight of our problems, tears, suffering and that that he carries the load, so that we can walk lightly through this world.

So, although using a St Christopher pendant can be a reminder that Jesus is always with us in any of our journeys, and it is always good to pause for a prayer before starting a journey, we could also take a leaf from Celtic Christianity and in our prayer surround the mode of travel and ourselves in the Light of God, asking that God will take care of all things – and entrust ourselves to our God, Jesus walking beside us every step of the way.

Finally, to remember that our journeys in life are meant to be peaceful, joyful and fun!

May God bless us all in our journeying,

Christy Casley

Canon John Hartley

90 years ago, on 21st August 1935, Canon John Hartley, British tennis champion, died. He is only clergyman to win Wimbledon.

John Hartley was appointed Vicar of Burneston in North Yorkshire in 1874 at the age of 25. The All England Croquet Club held the first lawn tennis championships in 1877 in Wimbledon, and in 1879, John paid one guinea to enter.

The tournament started on a Monday and, perhaps surprising himself, on the Saturday, John won through to the following Monday's semi-final, so he dashed home on the train to conduct three Sunday services in Burneston. One of his parishioners took a turn for the worse, so he sat with him until he died in the early hours of Monday morning. John then collected some sandwiches from the vicarage, rode on horseback to Thirsk station, caught an express to King's Cross, hailed a cab to Waterloo and caught a slow train to Wimbledon, changing into his tennis gear in the carriage.

He arrived just in time but, out of breath, lost the first set. However, the heavens then opened and play was suspended. After the rain break, a refreshed John won the next three sets 6-0, 6-1, 6-1. In the final he played Vere St Leger Goold, the younger son of a wealthy Irish baronet. The final was a clash of styles. The flamboyant Irishman flashed into the net while the vicar remained soberly on the baseline, perfecting a new stroke – the lob – which won him the title, 6-2, 6-4, 6-2.

John Hartley received 12 guineas in prize money and a silver cup worth 25 guineas. He returned to Wimbledon in 1880 and successfully defended his title. In 1881, he reached his third successive final, but lost to William Renshaw, inventor of the overhead smash.

NORTH CADBURY & DISTRICT

GARDENING CLUB

On mid-summer's day four lovely South Cadbury gardens were opened for us to visit by their generous owners – for which we thank you all very much. All very beautiful and individual gardens. It was certainly hot, so we are also very appreciative of the refreshment kindly offered at one garden. This was followed by a truly delicious cream tea that we were very ready for!

On August 16th at 11.00am we will be visiting Harry's Cider Farm for a guided tour which culminates in tasting the award winning Somerset craft ciders and taking away a branded glass. The farm is a local family run business at Long Sutton. £15 a head, all are welcome, members and non-members alike. Please pre-book with us.

September 17th sees the return of the evening talks in the village hall – 'The Secret Nature of Dartmoor', being the first, by Paul Rendell. He has an innate knowledge of Dartmoor as he lives and breathes it as a professional guide, having walked there since age 8 - he is also the editor of the Dartmoor News.

October 15th – James Cross returns to talk to us on 'Winter Borders', a timely prompt to sort out our own.

We meet at 7 for 7.30pm in North Cadbury Village Hall, generally on the 3rd Wednesday of the month. All are most welcome, membership is £15 per annum, or a small fee for visitors – to include refreshments. Contact susie.ncgardening@outlook.com.

The Water of Life

'O taste and see that the LORD is good'
Psalm 34:8

*She came to the well around midday,
to avoid all the gossip she came alone,
she met a Man there
who told her all things
five husbands she had
and one not her own.*

*He asked for a drink,
and they started to talk,
a Samaritan woman there with a Jew
breaking all barriers to meet her need
he told her how she could be made new.*

*The water of life that he would give would mean that she
never would thirst again.
This transforming draught
he offers to all
once tasted you never will be the same.*

*At Cana he turned the water to wine;
a miracle no-one but he could do
Just as the water was wondrously changed
if you drink from this Fount
it can happen to you.*

runs a very small business.*

miserably rich than happily poor.*
