

All Saints Edingthorpe

Conservation Area Gallery

All Saints Edingthorpe – Conservation Area

Willow Emerald Damselfly
Chalcolestes viridis

Field Grasshopper
Chorthippus brunneus

Common Frog.
Rana temporaria

Refuge areas were created during grass cutting & raking for wildlife.

September 2024 - Wildlife

All Saints Edingthorpe – Conservation Area

Autumn 2024

Wildlife habitats made from tree branches.

All Saints Edingthorpe – Conservation Area

Bleeding Oak Crust
Stereum gausapatum

Mosaic Puffball
Lycoperdon utriforme

Parasol
Macrolepiota procera

Dead Moll's Fingers
Xylaria longpipes

Autumn 2024 - Fungi in the churchyard.

All Saints Edingthorpe – Conservation Area

Autumn 2024 – Owl boxes installed.

Two owl boxes installed on trees in the churchyard. Tawny owl box installed in west tree line and Barn owl box in north tree line. All Saints is grateful to the Hawk & Owl Trust for providing the boxes and installing them.

All Saints Edingthorpe – Conservation Area

Winter 2024

Storm damage – Storm Darragh December 2024.
One of the trees on the west side of the churchyard.

All Saints Edingthorpe – Conservation Area

Winter 2024

A winter's day.

Snowdrops abound.

All Saints Edingthorpe – Conservation Area

Spring 2025

Bluebells and Buttercups

All Saints Edingthorpe – Conservation Area

Spring 2025

All Saints Edingthorpe – Conservation Area

A welcoming doorway.

Spring 2025

Work in progress to remove the fallen tree.

All Saints Edingthorpe – Conservation Area

Spring 2025

Daffodils in spring sunshine.

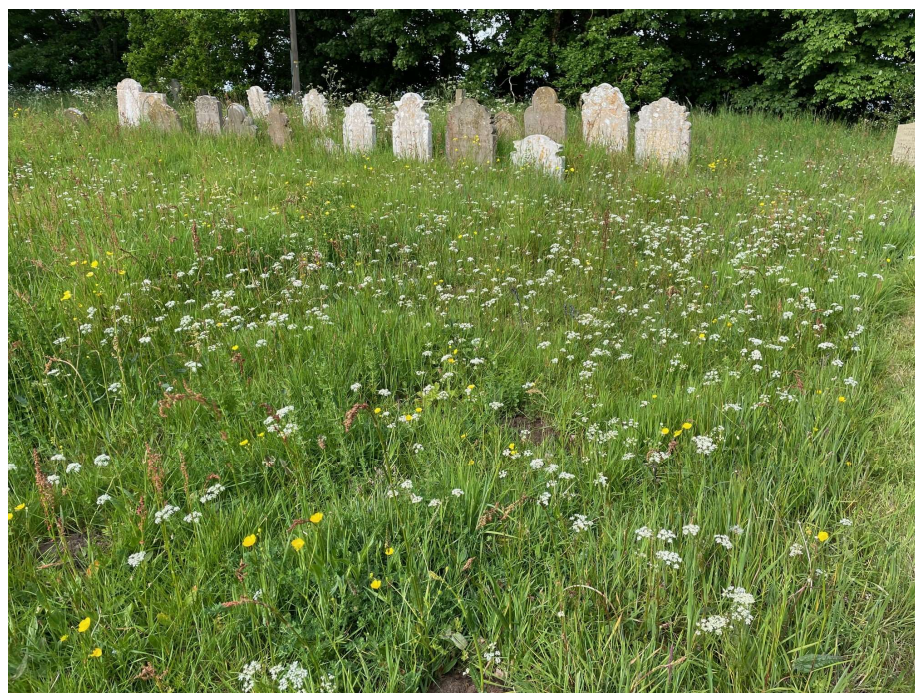

All Saints Edingthorpe – Conservation Area

Spring into Summer 2025

Conservation area wildflowers in bloom.

Pignut and buttercups.

All Saints Edingthorpe – Conservation Area

Summer 2025

All Saints Edingthorpe – Conservation Area

Summer 2025

Red Tail Bumblebee
(Bombus lapidaries)
on Ragwort

Speckled Bush Cricket
(Leptophyes punctatissima)

Gatekeeper (Pyronia
tithonus) on Bramble

Speckled bush cricket

All Saints Edingthorpe – Conservation Area

Grass Cutting August 2025

All Saints Edingthorpe – Conservation Area

Grass Raking August 2025

The North East Norfolk Conservation Volunteers with the All Saints Churchyard Officer

All Saints Edingthorpe – Conservation Area

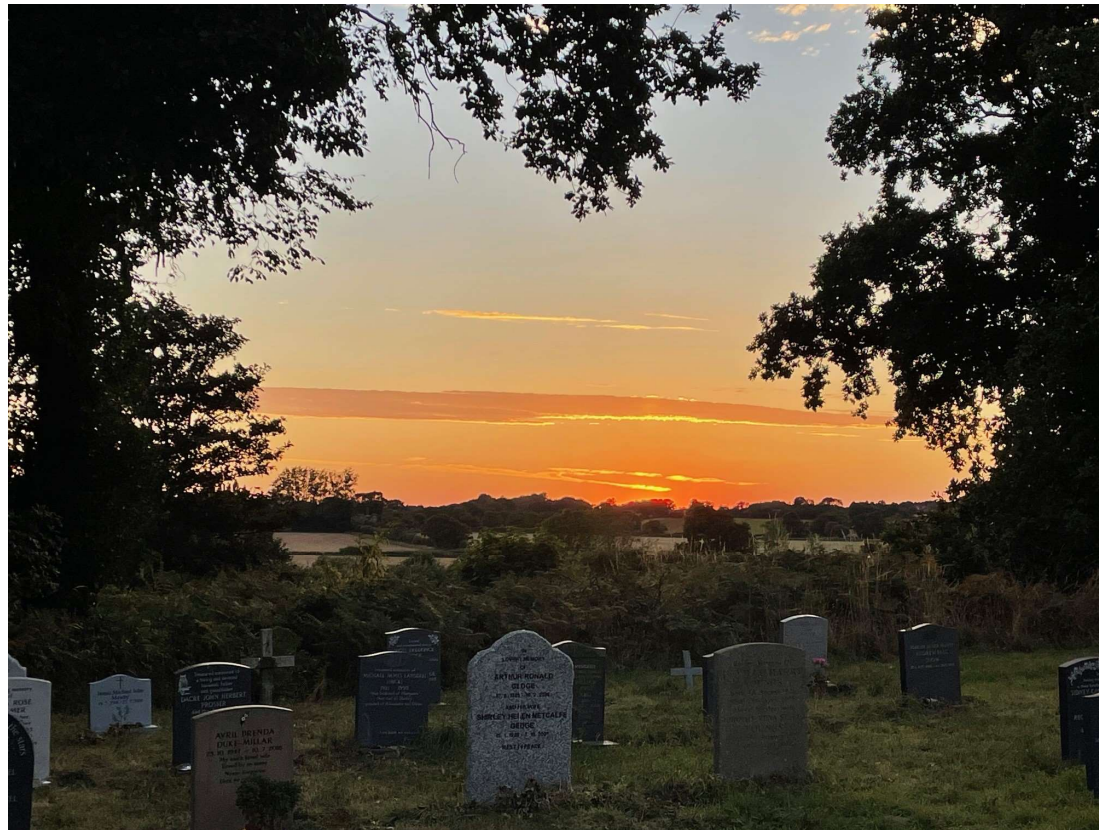

Grass Raking August 2025

Grass raking in progress.

All Saints Edingthorpe – Conservation Area

Summer sunset after the raking.