BIBLE READING NOTES

Daily Bread Bible reading notes provide the reader with a passage from the Bible to read, a prayer and a thought for the day following on from the daily reading. They are a very popular way of helping us to read and understand more about our faith. It also gives encouragement and teaching.

Would you like to receive a free copy each quarter of the year? Speak to myself or Louise. I'm at St Andrew's most Wednesday mornings or St Peter's on a Sunday.

I look forward to hearing from you.

LETTER FROM REVD LOUISE

Dear Friends,

This morning, I was at a local school taking a Bible story assembly. (Yes, we are allowed to talk about Jesus and the Bible in schools!) I shared with the children the story of the Lost Sheep, a story or parable, we have recently reflected on in our Sunday morning services.

We thought about times we have got lost. We agreed it is a horrible feeling: confusing, bewildering and we feel stupid for getting ourselves in that predicament. We thought about how we get lost in our lives. Sometimes we deliberately choose to go in the wrong direction. At other times we get lost because we aren't paying attention to what we are doing. And other times we think we are taking the right path and then realise we have made a huge mistake. When Jesus told this story he was trying to explain to the local religious leaders why he was happy to spend time with people who had got lost. People who didn't follow the religious laws of the day; people who had hurt others, made poor life choices, made mistakes, messed up relationships. He understood and wanted to help them find their way again.

Perhaps you have had times in your life when you have got lost? Perhaps you have times when you drift off from God? Perhaps you feel lost and bewildered. You're not sure how you got to where you are but right now, life is puzzling and a bit scary.

Irrespective of how we got lost, we wonder how to find our way back. We wonder if God will welcome us back. We wonder if other Christians will welcome us back. We wonder if we will ever come home.

Jesus' story is very clear. The lost sheep is brought back by a patient and determined shepherd. The return of the sheep is celebrated with a great party. The neighbours are invited to join in with the celebrations. It seems that what God longs for each of us is to be reunited with him and his community. To be restored, forgiven, loved, renewed. Irrespective of why we wandered off God has not lost us or forgotten us and he longs to bring us home.

If you have lapsed from following Jesus, why not make this the month you start again? Everyone is welcome to our services. If you are very unsure, maybe just come and spend some time in St Andrew's: it's open every day.

Or attend Be Still, our short, gentle service every Thursday?
Or any of our other activities. Don't put it off: you are welcome!

The Parable of the Lost Sheep

One day when many tax collectors and other outcasts came to listen to Jesus, the Pharisees and the teachers of the Law started grumbling. 'This man welcomes outcasts and even eats with them.'

So Jesus told them this parable:

Suppose one of you has a hundred sheep and loses one of them -what does he do? He leaves the other ninety-nine sheep in the field and goes looking for the one that got lost until he finds it. When he finds it, he is so happy that he puts it on his shoulders and carries it back home. Then he calls his friends and neighbours together and says to them, 'I am so happy I found my lost sheep. Let us celebrate!' In the same way I tell you, there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine respectable people who do not need to repent. (Luke 15.1-7)

Will you let Jesus find you and bring you home?

God bless you,

Louise.x

I will be running a stall at a craft/table top sale on Saturday 11th October. I will mostly be selling my cross stitch but also some other bits but anything I raise will go to Geoff, Ces and Sophia and their work with Latin Link.

It would be lovely if you could come along to support my stall and help me raise money but there will be lots of other stalls too where you can get a bargain.

It is being held at Wakering Old School/Community Centre in Wakering High Street between 10-12.

Thank you

DONATIONS TO THE SOUTHEND FOODBANK

Thank you to everyone who places items in the Foodbank collection boxes at both St Andrew's and St Peter's. These contributions are much appreciated by the team at the Foodbank and they go to help people in our town who need emergency food. Each week the team publishes a list of the most urgent needs - although some items often appear week after week. Here's a list of what the Foodbank is currently running low on:

- Tinned chicken in sauce
- Tinned Irish Stew, curry or meatballs
- Tinned fruit
- Dried Pasta
- Pasta sauce
- Long-life Fruit Juice
- UHT Milk (semi-skimmed or full-fat)
- Jam
- Biscuits
- Toiletries: shower gel, shampoo and deodorant

No donation is too small. Please don't give perishable goods, such as fresh fruit and veg. For anyone with a smartphone, there is an app called "Bank the Food". Once downloaded, add Southend Foodbank where prompted and they will update you weekly on the latest urgent needs (but there is no pressure to give).

BAPTISM AND CONFIRMATION CLASS

Are you ready to affirm publicly your wish to be a Christian?

If so, if you are an adult and have not been baptised (christened) and/or confirmed, then perhaps this is the right next step? If you have returned to attending church and practicing faith and you have been baptised and confirmed it is possible to affirm your faith in a special service. If you are not sure what this means, don't panic! Just have a word with Louise who will be delighted to try to answer any questions you may have,

On Nov 30th at 3pm, there is a service of baptism, Confirmation and Holy Communion at St Andrew's Westcliff. I will be taking at least one candidate who will be baptised and confirmed. Is this your next step in your Christian journey?

To find out more and to spend some time in discussion, prayer and learning, we invite you to preparation classes. There are no fees and no exams! And we won't make you be baptised if you don't feel ready.

Classes will take place at 7.30pm at The Rectory, 42 Church Road, SS3 9EU on the following dates:

Oct 20th, Oct 27th, Nov 3rd, Nov 10th, Nov 24th and Dec 1st

Please let me know that you wish to attend. (If you would like to prepare for baptism and confirmation but really can't make those dates, please get in touch and we'll see what we can do.)

PILGRIM GROUP

We have been using Pilgrim booklets for many years to help teach the Christian faith. These include prayers, Bible readings, teaching content and discussion. We find them very helpful and user friendly. Each booklet lasts for 6 sessions. We have found that this works well on Zoom. Our studies about the Beatitudes will conclude in October (7th & 14th) but we will resume our meetings on Nov 4th learning about the Creeds. There is no charge but the booklets cost about £5 each so, if possible, we appreciate a contribution for that.

Please let Louise know if you would like to attend.

October 8th Demetrius of Sirmium

Demetrius of Sirmium should be the patron saint of anyone who takes a stand for the right, despite knowing they will suffer for it.

Demetrius was a soldier from Serbia in the fourth century. He fought for the Roman Emperor, and that took courage. Then Demetrius converted to Christianity – and took his stand with the Christians. That took far more courage – for Demetrius was then tortured and martyred under the emperor Maximian.

His bravery was not forgotten, and in the years to come he became immensely popular in the Church, where he was called ‘The Great Martyr’. Christians thought of his example of faith and devotion to Jesus when they themselves were in trouble, and when they were facing attack from evil spirits and evil people.

Leontius, prefect of Illyricum, built two churches in honour of Demetrius in the early 5th century, one at Sirmium and one at Thessalonica. During the Crusades, Demetrius was ‘adopted’ by the western soldiers. Over 200 churches in the Balkans are dedicated to him, and he is today the patron saint of Belgrade. Demetrius’ fearless stand against evil makes him a good saint to be remembered in October, with Halloween coming.

18th OCTOBER – THANK YOU DR LUKE!

by David Winter

‘Matthew, Mark, Luke and John, bless the bed that I lie on’ – my grandma taught me that one. At least it meant I never forgot the names of the writers of the four Gospels. This month Luke, the writer of the third of them, has his feast day – 18th October.

He was, we learn from the letters of St Paul, a ‘physician’ – an educated man and probably the only one of the writers of the New Testament who was not a Jew. In modern terms, he was Turkish. Paul took him as one of his missionary team on a long journey around the Middle East, and they clearly became close friends. Under house arrest later in his life Paul could write, ‘only Luke is with me’.

However, it is his Gospel which has established him as a major figure in the history of the Christian Church. Mark’s Gospel may have more drama, Matthew’s more prophetic background and John’s a more profound sense of the mystery of the divine, but Luke offers us a Jesus who is utterly and believably real. This man turned no one away, reserved his harshest words for hypocrites and religious grandees, cared for the marginalised, the poor, the persecuted, the handicapped and the sinful. His Gospel is full of people we can recognise – indeed, in whom we can often recognise ourselves.

He was also a masterly story-teller. Try, for instance, the story of the Prodigal Son (Luke 15:11-32). Read it (this time) not as a sacred text but as a brilliant piece of story-telling: subtle repetitions (‘your son, this brother of yours’), believable characters, drama and profound emotion. There is the older brother, so cynical about his sibling’s alleged reformation, the ‘prodigal’ himself, so hesitant about throwing himself on his father’s mercy after the folly of his earlier behaviour, and there is the father, of course, abandoning the dignity of his role in the family and actually running to welcome his wretched son’s return.

There are more women in Luke’s Gospel than in any of the others, but also more poor people, more lepers, more ‘sinners’ and tax-collectors, more ‘outsiders’ who are shown to be ‘inside’ the love of Christ. This, for many of us, is the great Gospel of inclusion and compassion. Here is a Jesus for the whole world and for every one of us. Thank you, Dr Luke!

13TH October - Edward the Confessor, helping to found Westminster Abbey

If you approve of giving money to help cathedrals survive, then Edward the Confessor (1003 – 66) is the saint for you. This early King of England was the virtual founder of Westminster Abbey. And never mind entrance charges – at one point in his life, Edward was giving a full tenth of his income to Westminster Abbey.

Edward was the son of King Ethelred the Unready and his second, Norman wife, Emma. After various ups and downs which included a brief exile in Normandy, Edward was made King of England in 1042.

As King, Edward had a tricky time of it – trying to keep the peace for over 20 years while various Danish and Norman magnates struggled for power (which eventually led to the Norman Conquest). Scholars have argued over how much of a success he was as a king.

As a Christian, there is no doubt: Edward's holiness was evident to all. He made himself accessible to his people, he was generous to the poor, and chaste. He was also reputed to have seen visions and even achieved miraculous cures for people through prayer.

Edward did much to help the Church in many ways. His lasting contribution was the original Westminster Abbey – a huge Romanesque church, 300 feet long, with a nave of 12 bays. Westminster Abbey became the place of coronation and burial of kings and queens of England. It was finished and consecrated just before his death. Edward was buried there, and his relics are undisturbed to this day.

During the Middle Ages, Edward was a very popular saint: along with Edmund of East Anglia he was widely considered to be England's patron saint for a time.

"May the people praise you God...
The land yields its harvest, God,
our God blesses us."

- from Psalm 67:5-6

"Let us fear and respect the Lord our God.
He gives autumn and spring rains at the right time. He makes sure that we have the harvest at just the right time."

- from Jeremiah 5:24

"Honour the Lord with your wealth and the first part of your harvest."

- Proverbs 3:9

"God... gives you rain from heaven and good harvests at the right times. He gives you plenty of food and fills your hearts with joy."

- from Acts 14:16-17

"So the one who plants is not important, and the one who waters is not important. Only GOD is important because He is the one who makes things grow."

- 1 Corinthians 3:7
