Prayer of the Week: Lord Jesus Christ, in the knowledge that you love us enough to seek us out, however often we go astray, that you are always ready to welcome us back, eager to forgive and forget, so we come now, summoned by your love, despite having erred and strayed like lost sheep, disobeying your will and rejecting your guidance in so much. We come in penitence, but also assurance, knowing that you welcome us joyfully and without reserve. Teach us, we pray, as we worship now, to value you as much as you value us. Amen
