Collect for the Feast of St Matthew

O almighty God, whose blessed Son called Matthew the tax collector to be an apostle and evangelist: give us grace to forsake the selfish pursuit of gain and the possessive love of riches that we may follow in the way of your Son Jesus Christ, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Readings

The New Testament reading is taken from 2 Corinthians 4.1-6

Therefore, since it is by God's mercy that we are engaged in this ministry, we do not lose heart. We have renounced the shameful things that one hides; we refuse to practice cunning or to falsify God's word; but by the open statement of the truth we commend ourselves to the conscience of everyone in the sight of God. And even if our gospel is veiled, it is veiled to those who are perishing. In their case the god of this world has blinded the minds of the unbelievers, to keep them from seeing the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God. For we do not proclaim ourselves; we proclaim Jesus Christ as Lord and ourselves as your slaves for Jesus' sake. For it is the God who said, "Let light shine out of darkness," who has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. This is the word of the Lord: Thanks be to God.

The Holy Gospel is taken from Matthew 9.9-13 : Glory to you O Lord

As Jesus was walking along, he saw a man called Matthew sitting at the tax booth; and he said to him, "Follow me." And he got up and followed him. And as he sat at dinner in the house, many tax collectors and sinners came and were sitting with him and his disciples. When the Pharisees saw this, they said to his disciples, "Why does your teacher eat with tax collectors and sinners?" But when he heard this, he said, "Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick. Go and learn what this means, 'I desire mercy, not sacrifice.' For I have come to call not the righteous but sinners."

This is the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you O Christ.

Intercessions

Mighty God, with confidence in your mercy and inspired by the witness of Saint Matthew, we bring our prayers before you.

God of mercy, you chose a tax collector, Saint Matthew, to share the work of the Apostles. In doing so, you showed us that with you, all things are possible, and that though we are sinners, we too can answer your call to evangelize the world.

Lord, in your mercy: hear our prayer

Creator God, we pray for all who work in finance, government, or public service: That they may act with integrity and compassion, inspired by Saint Matthew's transformation from tax collector to servant of the Gospel.

Lord, in your mercy: hear our prayer

Father God, Saint Matthew was a disciple of Jesus and a former tax collector so we pray for all those we know facing financial struggles. Help them to manage their resources wisely and remain faithful to your call, even amidst worldly temptations.

Lord, in your mercy: hear our prayer

God of wisdom, Saint Matthew was chosen from an unlikely path to become a pillar of the Church, and so we pray for those discerning their vocation. May they hear the voice of Jesus saying "Follow me," and respond with faith and joy.

Lord, in your mercy: hear our prayer

Loving God, we pray for all who bear the burdens of pain, bereavement, worry and depression. We pray for those whose illness stems from anxiety. We pray that they may have an awareness of your presence and an understanding that you are bearing those burdens with them and always working towards their healing and wholeness.

Lord, in your mercy: hear our prayer

Merciful God, through your love and mercy you turn the darkness of death into the dawn of new life. Comfort those who grieve in their sorrow and those who are worried about how they will cope on their own and reassure them that you will never leave them to carry the burdens of life unaided.

Lord, in your mercy: hear our prayer

Everlasting God, we ask you to lead us into the coming week, Help us to believe that you are close by us, keep us from making mistakes and help us never to disappoint you through our words and actions.

Merciful father: accept these prayers for the sake of your Son, our Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.
