Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

Do you have a favourite verse or story from the Bible? I may have asked you this before, so apologies if I'm repeating myself. I particularly love the story of the woman who had a haemorrhage for many years. She had spent a great deal of money on doctors but didn't get better. In her desperation she touches the fringe of Jesus' cloak and is instantly healed. I love how humble this unnamed woman is. Humble, or perhaps, fearful. She may feel ashamed of her illness; she may not want to speak openly about it, and yet she summons up the courage to fight her way through the crowd and touch Jesus' cloak. He, of course, knows what has happened and asked who touched him. In their conversation he calls her 'daughter' and I think those few words as well as her healing must have brought such joy to her. She knows she is healed, but she also knows she is loved and valued.

I turn to this story when I feel that I need an extra bit of comfort and reassurance. I hope I'm not alone in sometimes thinking, 'Does God know? Does God care?' This story of the woman tells me that the answer to those questions is a very big 'YES'. God knows. God cares. God longs for us and many others to reach out and touch Him. God longs for us to seek hope and life in Him. God knew that the woman in the story was in great need, desperate for help. God knows when we are in need and looking for help. We may not be instantly healed as she was, but we will find God's presence and compassion. That's what I take from that beautiful story.

Do you have a story or verse that you turn to in your sorrow or in your joy?

Yours in Christ,

Denise

Dear Lord,

In this autumn season, when the harvest is gathered, we thank You for Your provision for us. We have so much, and yet we see terrible images of starving children on our televisions and smartphones and in our newspapers. Lord, prompt us to do what we can to change things, whether that is by writing a letter or email to someone with influence, or by contributing in some way to aid agencies.

Lord, we ask You to touch the hearts of those leaders of nations whose decisions cause such hunger and suffering. Soften those hard hearts, Lord. Fill them with Your compassion. May there be a new harvest of love – and a kinder world.

In Jesus' name, Amen.

Post Communion Prayer for The Fourteenth Sunday after Trinity

Lord God, the source of truth and love,
keep us faithful to the apostles' teaching and fellowship,
united in prayer and the breaking of bread,
and one in joy and simplicity of heart,
in Jesus Christ our Lord.

This is the prayer we are currently praying after everyone has received Holy Communion or a blessing and before we say the Prayer after Communion together. These prayers and the Collects are used for the whole week beginning at Evening Prayer on Saturday evening, so this prayer will be said every day when Holy Communion is celebrated in the week of the Fourteenth Sunday after Trinity. The Collect for the week will also be used at Morning and Evening Prayer in that week.

I find this Post Communion prayer particularly beautiful. The words are based on Acts 2.42 where we're told those first followers of Christ 'devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and to fellowship, to the breaking of bread and to prayer.' In these few words, I find a summary of much of how we wish our lives to be as Christians. I hope we want to be faithful to the apostles teaching, which means being faithful to the teaching of Christ which has been handed down to us. I hope we seek fellowship with our brothers and sisters in our own churches and beyond and I hope we can be united in prayer; value receiving Holy Communion and find joy in Christ. These are, if you like, the basics of what we do as Christians. There may be times when being faithful in these religious practices can be difficult, but if we return to them and keep them at the centre of what we do, then we will be continuing the long tradition of discipleship which those first Christians began two thousand years ago.

I am going to continue to use this prayer, will you join me?

Fonts in Churches

This is a photo of the original font at St George's in Mossley. It's not a great photo, I know, but I thought I'd write a little about the placement of fonts in churches. I often mention this when I am officiating at a baptism. I'm sure you'll have noticed that in many old churches the font was originally placed at the back, or more accurately, near the main entrance of the church. In more recent times, and often because of the re-ordering of a church, the font has been moved to a more central and prominent place.

There is a great deal of symbolism in the font being by the entrance of the church. At baptism the person being baptised is joining or entering the community of the universal Church. The baptised person is entering a new life, the life of Christ and God's people.

The symbolism of this is clear. As we enter the church by the door, we are entering a special place where we will spend time worshipping and praying with our Christian sisters and brothers who are the community of the Church. This is the prayer and hope we have for all who are baptised, that they too will enter the church building regularly, just as they are entering the Church as disciples at baptism. I imagine that very few of us remember our own baptism as we would have been very young, but the meaning and hope of the sacrament remains the same. I hope that seeing the font as you enter the church building, reminds you that we belong to the community of the faithful, a community that we 'entered' when we were baptised.

News from Robert T Tuxxie

Dear Everypurrr,

Here I am making a lovely, neat cat loaf with my paws tucked underneath. You'd think I was a very happy Robert... But no! I am a very dissatisfied Robert. My mummy has bought 48 sachets of my favourite food, or they were my favourite food until last week. Now I prefer another kind of food. As any self-respecting kitty would do, I turn my nose up and look at my mummy with a great deal of sadness and dismay. Why doesn't she know what I want?

Why does she assume just because I ate it the day before, I'll eat it again? Mummy says she is in a battle of wills with me. I don't know what that means, but if she thinks I'm going to eat a sachet of tuna, salmon, or trout flavoured food she has another thing coming! Mummy is always telling me to be grateful. I think I've mentioned this saying 'Thank you' thing before. She says I'm being too choosy, and the food won't do me any harm. She keeps saying there are lots of human kitties, and kitty kitties who are very hungry and don't have enough to eat. I think she should give them this fishy food. Mummy says there is such a thing as a 'Foodbank'. This is a place where people who need help can go and find some food for themselves and their families. She says we should try to help and support them. Well, I've made a start by providing 48 sachets of unacceptable fish flavoured kitty food. Could you help as well?

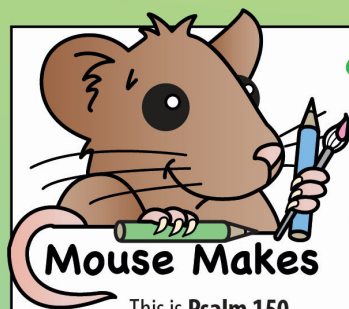

Yours purrfully,
Robert T Tuxxie

Volunteers are needed for the Christmas Fair (22nd November)

We are planning to have various church stalls, with an emphasis on increasing the number of stalls for children. Below is a list of proposed stall ideas. Additional suggestions are welcome.

Ideas for stalls and games:

Where's Santa (put your name in a square on the map)

Secret Santa (select a wrapped gift)

Hoopla (equipment available)

Toss a beanbag (equipment available)

Safety darts (equipment available)

Bowls (equipment available)

Play your cards right (equipment available)

Guess how many sweets in the jar

If you are interested in managing a church stall that you will organise, set up, and supervise on the day, please contact Val or Chris. For those who do not wish to organise a stall but can help on the day, please also speak to Val or Chris.

In addition to requiring help on the day, prizes are needed for the 'secret Santa.' These may include any new items such as a soft toy, game, trolley coin, candle, cosmetics, or similar goods. If you are able to wrap the prizes, please indicate whether they are intended for a baby under 3, a child over 3, or an adult. If you are unable to wrap them, that is not a problem, I will wrap them.

We also need prizes for the bottle stall (please give to Michael), raffle (either individual prizes or items to be put in hampers – please give to Val). Also items for the bargain basement (please give to Julia).

If you have any other ideas, please let us know.

Thanks

Val

Brunch with Santa!

The Big Man will be joining us
at Saint George's Church, Stalybridge.

On Saturday 6th December.

You can choose from two sessions

10am-12noon or 1pm-3pm

The cost is £5 per child and £3 per adult.

This includes a visit with Santa, a gift for each child and a light meal for everyone.

Bookings can be made by email at brunchwithsanta@yahoo.com

Please state the number of adults,
number of children, age and first name
of each child in your email
- this is so that Santa can get a suitable gift.

We have listened to your comments
from last year and made a few improvements.

We hope that this will make your visit even more special.
We can't wait to see you!

RidgeHill Together is the new charity formed as community legacy following the closure of Big Local on Ambleside.

The charity, based in the Baptist church will continue to offer a range of activities and support for the local community.

We have a community garden with allotments, beehives producing honey for sale, Bike Kitchen on Saturdays helping with repairs and bike loans at reasonable cost.

The Knit and Natter club continues Tuesday afternoons, Bread and Butter Thing every Thursday, Art & Craft groups, Kids activities in the school holidays, Be Well Tameside offering health support and advice.

The charity will be run by a team of volunteer trustees who hope to build on the great work of the Big Local and offer more opportunities and services.

Please feel free to call in and find out more or visit our Facebook page
