

The background of the image is a field of vibrant red poppies in the foreground, with green stems and leaves. In the background, there are silhouettes of soldiers in various poses, some standing and some walking, against a light blue sky with soft, white clouds. The overall tone is somber yet hopeful, fitting for a Remembrance Sunday prayer.

Gracious and Loving God, on this Remembrance Sunday, we pause in reverent gratitude for those who gave their lives in the cause of peace and freedom. We remember with humility the soldiers, sailors, airmen, and civilians who faced the darkness of war so that others might live in light. Lord may their sacrifice never be forgotten, and may their courage inspire us to live with compassion, justice, and hope.

We pray for all who still bear the scars of conflict — in body, mind, or spirit — and for families who mourn loved ones lost.

Grant them comfort, healing, and the assurance of Your eternal peace.

Guide the leaders of nations in the ways of reconciliation and mercy, that the peace for which so many died may truly reign on earth.

Through Jesus Christ, the Prince of Peace, we pray, Amen.
