2 Tim. 3. 14- 17 and 4: 1-5

But as for you, continue in what you have learned and firmly believed, knowing from whom you learned it¹⁵ and how from childhood you have known sacred writings that are able to instruct you for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus.¹⁶ All scripture is inspired by God and is^[a] useful for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness,¹⁷ so that the person of God may be proficient, equipped for every good work.

Chapter 4: 1-5

4 In the presence of God and of Christ Jesus, who is to judge the living and the dead, and in view of his appearing and his kingdom, I solemnly urge you:² proclaim the message; be persistent whether the time is favourable or unfavourable; convince, rebuke, and encourage with the utmost patience in teaching.³ For the time is coming when people will not put up with sound teaching, but, having their ears tickled, they will accumulate for themselves teachers to suit their own desires⁴ and will turn away from listening to the truth and wander away to myths.⁵ As for you, be sober in everything, endure suffering, do the work of an evangelist, carry out your ministry fully.

Luke 18: 1-8

The Parable of the Widow and the Unjust Judge

18 Then Jesus told them a parable about their need to pray always and not to lose heart.² He said, "In a certain city there was a judge who neither feared God nor had respect for people.³ In that city there was a widow who kept coming to him and saying, 'Grant me justice against my accuser.'⁴ For a while he refused, but later he said to himself, 'Though I have no fear of God and no respect for anyone,⁵ yet because this widow keeps bothering me, I will grant her justice, so that she may not wear me out by continually coming.' "

⁶ And the Lord said, "Listen to what the unjust judge says.⁷ And will not God grant justice to his chosen ones who cry to him day and night? Will he delay long in helping them?⁸ I tell you, he will quickly grant justice to them. And yet, when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on earth?"
