that I have greatly sinned,
in my thoughts and in my words,
in what I have done, and in what I have failed to do;

(And, striking their breast, they say:)

through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault;

(Then they continue:)

therefore I ask blessed Mary, ever virgin, all the angels and saints,
and you, my brothers and sisters,
to pray for me to the Lord, our God. Amen.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

Sit for the readings

First Reading from the Old Testament

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Jeremiah (23: 1-6)

¹ Woe to the shepherds who destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture! says the LORD. ² Therefore thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning the shepherds who shepherd my people: It is you who have scattered my flock, and have driven them away, and you have not attended to them. So I will attend to you for your evil doings, says the LORD. ³ Then I myself will gather the remnant of my flock out of all the lands where I have driven them, and I will bring them back to their fold, and they shall be fruitful and multiply. ⁴ I will raise up shepherds over them who will shepherd them, and they shall not fear any longer, or be dismayed, nor shall any be missing, says the LORD. ⁵ The days are surely coming, says the LORD, when I will raise up for David a righteous Branch, and he shall reign as king and deal wisely, and shall execute justice and righteousness in the land. ⁶ In his days Judah will be saved and Israel will live in safety. And this is the name by which he will be called: 'The LORD is our righteousness.'

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Psalms: 46

R. / The Lord of hosts is with us:
the God of Jacob is our stronghold.

¹ God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble.

² Therefore we will not fear, though the earth be moved, and though the mountains be toppled into the depths of the sea;

³ Though its waters rage and foam, and though the mountains tremble at its tumult. R./

⁵ There is a river whose streams make glad the city of God, the holy habitation of the Most High.

⁶ God is in the midst of her; she shall not be overthrown; God shall help her at the break of day.

⁷ The nations make much ado, and the kingdoms are shaken; God has spoken, and the earth shall melt away. R./

⁹ Come now and look upon the works of the LORD, what awesome things he has done on earth.

¹⁰ It is he who makes war to cease in all the world;

he breaks the bow, and shatters the spear, and burns the shields with fire.

¹¹ "Be still, then, and know that I am God;

I will be exalted among the nations; I will be exalted in the earth." R./

Second Reading from the New Testament

A reading from the Letter of S. Paul to the Colossians (1: 11-20)

Brothers and sisters: ¹¹ May you be made strong with all the strength that comes from his glorious power, and may you be prepared to endure everything with patience, ¹² while joyfully giving thanks to the Father, who has enabled you to share in the inheritance of the saints in the light. ¹³ He has rescued us from the power of darkness and transferred us into the kingdom of his beloved Son, ¹⁴ in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins. ¹⁵ He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation; ¹⁶ for in him all things in heaven and on earth were created, things visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or powers - all things have been created through him and for him. ¹⁷ He himself is before all things, and in him all things hold together. ¹⁸ He is the head of the body, the church; he is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, so that he might come to have first place in everything. ¹⁹ For in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell, ²⁰ and through him God was pleased to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, by making peace through the blood of his cross.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation and Reading

♪ Alleluia! Blessed is the king who comes in the name of the Lord.

Peace in heaven and glory in the highest heaven. S. Luke 19:38 Alleluia! ♪

The Lord be with you. And also with you.

✠ A reading from the ✠ Holy Gospel according to ✠ Luke (23: 33-43)

Glory to you, O Lord.

³³ When they came to the place that is called The Skull, they crucified Jesus there with the criminals, one on his right and one on his left. ³⁴ Then Jesus said, 'Father, forgive them; for they do not know what they are doing.' And they cast lots to divide his clothing. ³⁵ And the people stood by, watching; but the leaders scoffed at him, saying, 'He saved others; let him save himself if he is the Messiah of God, his chosen one!' ³⁶ The soldiers also mocked him, coming up and offering him sour wine, ³⁷ and saying, 'If you are the King of the Jews, save yourself!' ³⁸ There was also an inscription over him, 'This is the King of the Jews.' ³⁹ One of the criminals who were hanged there kept deriding him and saying, 'Are you not the Messiah? Save yourself and us!' ⁴⁰ But the other rebuked him, saying, 'Do you not fear God, since you are under the same sentence of condemnation?' ⁴¹ And we indeed have been condemned justly, for we are getting what we deserve for our deeds, but this man has done nothing wrong.' ⁴² Then he said, 'Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom.' ⁴³ Jesus replied, 'Truly I tell you, today you will be with me in Paradise.'

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, O Christ.

The Homily

Stand

Niceno-Constantinopolitan Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen. We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven,

(Genuflect) was incarnate from the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and was made human. (Rise)

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is worshipped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead,

✠ and the life of the age to come. Amen.

The Altar is prepared

The Offertory Hymn: Let streams of living justice

Tune: Thaxted, Gustav Holst (1874-1934)

Words: Revd Professor William Whitla (1934-) Professor of English & Humanities at York University, Toronto (1963-94), & Professor Emeritus and Senior Scholar (1994-), Ordained priest in the Anglican Church of Canada (1963). Written in 1989 as a response to the events in Tiananmen Square, in Beijing, China; & dedicated to the mothers of the disappeared in Argentina, the author's home community of Holy Trinity in Toronto, & the people of Tiananmen Square. 1st published in 'Sing Justice, Do Justice' (Selah Publishing, 1998), the result of the Hymn Society in the United States & Canada's international search for new hymns about social justice. Subsequently published in 'Common Praise' (Anglican Church of Canada, 1998, #575).

1. Let streams of living justice

Flow down upon the earth;

Give freedom's light to captives,

Let all the poor have worth.

The hungry's hands are pleading,

The workers claim their rights,

The mourners long for laughter,

The blinded seek for sight.

Make liberty a beacon,

strike down the iron power,

abolish ancient vengeance, proclaim your people's hour.

3. For healing of the nations,

For peace that will not end,

For love that makes us lovers,

God grant us grace to mend.

Weave our varied gifts together,

Knit our lives as they are spun;

On your loom of time enrol us

Till our thread of life is run.

O great Weaver of our fabric,

Bind church and world in one;

Dye our texture with your radiance,

Light our colours with your sun.

4. Your city's built to music;

We are the stones you seek;

Your harmony is language:

We are the words you speak.

Our faith we find in service,

our hope in other's dreams,

our love in hand of neighbour:

our home land brightly gleams.

Inscribe our hearts with justice;

Your way - the path untried;

Your truth - the heart of stranger,

Your life - the Crucified.

2. The dreaded disappearance

of family and friend;

the torture and the silence -

the fear that knows no end;

the mother with her candle,

the child who holds a gun,

the old one nursing hatred -

all who seek release to come.

Each candle burns for freedom,

Each lights a tyrant's fall,

Each flower placed for martyrs,

Gives tongue to silenced call.

5. The dreaded disappearance

of family and friend;

the torture and the silence -

the fear that knows no end;

the mother with her candle,

the child who holds a gun,

the old one nursing hatred -

all who seek release to come.

Each candle burns for freedom,

Each lights a tyrant's fall,

Each flower placed for martyrs,

Gives tongue to silenced call.

Orate Fratres

Pray my sisters and brothers, that my sacrifice and yours may be acceptable to God, the almighty Father.

May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands for the praise and glory of his name, for our good, and the good of all his Church.

Prayer over the Offerings

As we offer you, O Lord, the sacrifice by which the human race is reconciled to you, we humbly pray, that your Son himself may bestow on all nations the gifts of unity and peace. Amen.

THE EUCHARISTIC PRAYER

The Lord be with you. And also with you.

Lift up your hearts. We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give thanks and praise.

Here follows the Preface in which the celebrant praises God for his mighty acts, and all respond:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

✠ Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

The celebrant recalls the Last Supper, and this acclamation is used:
Great is the mystery of faith:
Christ has died: Christ is risen: Christ will come again.

The Prayer continues and leads into the doxology, to which all respond boldly:
AMEN.

¶ THE COMMUNION RITE

The Lord's Prayer

Let us pray for the coming of the Kingdom in the words our Saviour taught us.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come;
thy will be done; on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation;
but deliver us from evil.

The celebrant adds:

*Deliver us, Lord, from every evil, and grant us peace in our day.
In your mercy keep us free from sin and protect us from all distress as we wait in joyful hope for the coming of our Saviour, Jesus Christ.*

For thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Peace

Lord Jesus Christ, you said to your apostles:

Peace I leave you, my peace I give you.

Look not on our sins, but on the faith of your Church, and grant us the peace and unity of your kingdom
where you live for ever and ever. Amen.

The peace of the Lord be always with you.

And also with you.

Let us offer one another a sign of peace.

We share the peace with those immediately around us, a sign that expresses peace, communion, and love.

Agnus Dei

during which the celebrant takes the host and breaks it over the paten, placing a small piece in the chalice.

Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world,
have mercy on us.

Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world,
have mercy on us.

Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world,
grant us peace.

Giving of Communion

Behold the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world.

Blessed are those who are called to his supper.

Lord, I am not worthy to receive you,
but only say the word, and I shall be healed.

Communion Antiphon

The Lord sits as King for ever. The Lord will bless his people with peace.

 At home, make an Act of Spiritual Communion ***

As you imagine yourself receiving the Bread of Heaven, be still and rest in the love of God. Thank Him for entering beneath the roof of your soul.

O Sacred Feast! Wherein Christ is received, his Passion is remembered, our souls are filled with grace and the pledge of eternal glory is received.

O Sacrum Convivium, 13th century (attributed to S. Thomas Aquinas)

After receiving Holy Communion read & pray quietly in thanksgiving.

THE JESUS PRAYER

Lord Jesus Christ, Son of God, have mercy on me, a sinner.

THE TRISAGION (Thrice Holy)

Holy God, Holy Mighty, Holy Immortal, Have mercy on us. (x3)

The Communion Hymn: 307

Sweet Sacrament Divine (Tune: Divine Mysteries)

'The Kingdom of God is the regulative principle'

'The call to-day is to return to what the New Testament calls
"the Gospel of the Kingdom" - the Kingdom of God, the cardinal doctrine of our preaching, regulative of our theology, and the touchstone by which all the activities of the Church are tested.
This will involve a Reformation in comparison with which the Reformation of the sixteenth century will seem a small thing.'

Fr Percy Widdington, 'The Return of the Kingdom of God', (1921)

In 1956, Fr Stanley Evans, then parish priest at Holy Trinity, Dalston, (later, Canon Chancellor of Southwark Cathedral, and Principal of the Southwark Ordination Course), identified the fundamental division within the Christian world as one, 'which did not run along denominational lines but rather divided those Christians in all traditions who believed that the Kingdom of God involved a hope for the transformation of this world and its structures, and those who did not.'

¶ THE CONCLUDING RITE

Stand

Postcommunion Prayer

Having received the food of immortality, we ask, O Lord, that, glorying in obedience to the commands of Christ, the King of the universe, we may live with him eternally in his heavenly kingdom.
Who lives and reigns for ever and ever. Amen.

Benedicámus Domino. Deo Gratias.

Let us bless the Lord. Thanks be to God.

The Recessional Hymn: Ye faithful saints and martyrs.

Words: Kenneth Leech

Tune: Wir Pflügen und wir streuen - "We plough the fields and scatter"

1. You faithful saints and martyrs
Who fought for truth and right,
We ask your prayers and blessings
To aid us in our fight.
Your faith shall be our watchword,
Your cause shall be our own -
To fight against oppression
Till it be overthrown.

Refrain

Lift up the people's banner
And let the ancient cry
For justice and for freedom
Re-echo to the sky.

2. In many a golden story,
On many a golden page,
The poets in their poems
Have sung the golden age,
The age of love and beauty,
The age of joy and peace,
When everyone lived gladly
And shared the earth's increase.

Refrain

3. God is the only Landlord
To whom our rents are due.
God made the earth for everyone
And not for just a few.
The four parts of creation -
Earth, water, air, and fire -
God made and ranked and stationed
For everyone's desire.

Refrain

4. God made the earth for freedom
And God alone is Lord,
And we will win our birthright
By truth's eternal sword;
And all the powers of darkness
And all the hosts of pride
Shall pass and be forgotten
For God is by our side.

Refrain

5. Christ blessed the meek and told them
That they the earth should own.
And he will lead the battle
From his eternal throne.
O have no fear, my comrades,
Cry out in holy mirth!
For God to us has promised
His Kingdom here on earth.

Refrain

BENEDICTION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT

is given from the High Altar at the conclusion of the Hymn.

All kneel.

Celebrant sings,

Let us pray:
Lord Jesus Christ,
you gave us the eucharist
as the memorial of your suffering and death.
May our worship of this sacrament of your body and blood help us to experience the salvation you won for us and the peace of the kingdom where you live and reign with the Father,
and the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

*The celebrant blesses the congregation with the Blessed Sacrament in the Monstrance.
