

Epiphany: 12th Night

Epiphany is also known as 'Twelfth Night' or the last night of the Christmas festival. According to the song it is also the day when that over-enthusiastic 'true love' of yours dumps no less than 78 presents on your doorstep, among them a dozen leaping lords of the realm and a final partridge - to go with the 11 you have already been given.

In many parts of the world January 6 is celebrated as Christmas Day. As we are packing away our tree the Greek Orthodox world and Catholic Spain are giving presents and celebrating the magi.

The wise men brought gold for kingship, proclaiming a royal child. Frankincense was used in Jewish worship and indicated access to the presence of God.

Myrrh finds its place at Calvary. After the crucifixion, Nicodemus and Joseph of Arimathea prepared Jesus's body for burial, using myrrh as an embalming fluid.

The shadow of the cross had already fallen across the crib but myrrh is also symbolic of love, so you could say that the third gift is also about adoration. And Christ's death on the cross is for love of the church.

50 years ago this month

Rev Tony Corble, our vicar, remarked in his parish magazine piece to a strike by junior doctors and the situation in the Middle East where the Israelis were refusing to sit at the same table as the Palestine Liberation organisation.

He had joined us after looking after two parishes in Oxfordshire.

The churches, he said, were only one and half miles apart and he wrote of the difficulties of finding enough parishioners to share the various duties of the lay congregation.

But there was absolutely no enthusiasm for unity.

Tony also appealed to parishioners to join the covenant scheme for which Stan Head was acting as secretary and also for them to come forward and become school governors, or managers, as they were in those days.

Fifty years on it sometime seems that little changes in our world!

Our Mothers' Union held their 26th birthday party, a special cake having been baked by Mrs Wadsworth. Whist and dominoes were played after the meal.

Sunday School restarted after the Christmas break and more than 40 children enjoyed their annual visit to a pantomime. The show this year was Dick Whittington presented by the Manchester Library Theatre company at Wythenshawe Forum. The picture opposite was taken on the coach which was driven by Ray Tonge.

Doreen Herridge BEM

One of our most faithful parishioners, Doreen Herridge, is sadly missed. Her funeral service took place here last month with Bob and Rev Pat Gray sharing memories of her with a packed congregation. Fittingly, for someone who loved dancing and shared that love with so many, the processional music was Glenn Miller's classic Moonlight Serenade and we heard "On the street where you live" from the musical My Fair Lady as we reflected quietly on her long and joyful life.

At the end of the service we heard "I could have danced all night" also from My Fair Lady.

And there were the hymns Praise My Soul, The Lord is my shepherd and Now thank we all our God played by Janet. For her work in our parish and for church Doreen was deservedly rewarded with the British Empire Medal and she and her late husband Cliff were invited to one of the royal garden parties at Buckingham Palace. She and Cliff are reunited once again in God's heavenly kingdom.

Our deepest condolences are expressed to her sons Colin and Stephen and daughter Shirley and their families.

Christmas at St Helen's

This January edition of our parish magazine went to press ahead of Christmas but we began our celebrations with a candlelight carol service on December 14.

The nativity story readers were Roy and Sue, Mike, Virginia, Alan and Irene and our choir, augmented by Virginia, Sue and Les, sang several items including Santa Lucia whose martyrdom was related by Virginia.

There was a good attendance and it included one of the little girls from our day school who had worked on the altar tableau, six-years-old Jessie. Earlier that day, at our morning service, we lit the third candle on our Advent wreath. Next up was our day school Christmas service later in the week and we were then looking forward to the always popular crib service on the afternoon of Christmas Eve and our holy communion service that evening. Between those services there would also be carol singing around the Christmas tree in our grounds.
